A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Lansing's 32nd Annual Life Chain

Today (October 6) is Pro-Life Sunday, and we are once again invited to participate in a peaceful prayer chain witnessing to the sanctity of life. Please gather along Grand River Ave. from Abbot Rd. to Williamston – meeting at Abbot Rd., Brookfield Plaza, Summit Bank near Okemos Rd., St. Martha Church or Main St. in Williamston near St. Mary's Church. The peaceful prayer event will be held from 2:30-3:30 this afternoon, asking God to bless our efforts to promote the sanctity of all human life.

Resurrection Life Course

Whether you are just beginning your journey of faith or have been living your faith for decades, I want to invite you to prayerfully consider attending (and bringing others with you to attend) the upcoming Resurrection Life Course. The format of Resurrection Life will be like Alpha. We will begin with a meal, have a live talk about what difference God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, make in our lives. We will then have discussion groups to discuss the talk. We are offering child-care to make it possible for young couples to attend. You can find out more information on our website, and you can register by calling the office, filling out one of the green registration forms, or you can register online. Please prayerfully consider attending yourself and bringing others along. The evenings will begin at 6:30 with dinner, and we will wrap-up each evening at 8:30.

Rosary Congress and Rosary Vigil October 12 & 13

The Diocese of Lansing will be participating in a "Rosary Congress" October 6-13, during which parishes will offer adoration and prayer vigils through the night. Our parish will be praying through the night of October 12th after the end of the Encounter through Sunday morning prior to the 9:00 a.m. Mass. October 13th is the 102nd anniversary of the last apparition at Fatima. The door on the northeast entrance will be open through the night. We have a sign-up sheet on our website that you can use to commit to an hour of prayer in the church. Should you not be able to pray during the night on the 12th and 13th, feel free to visit the adoration chapel at IHM throughout the week of October 6-13. For more information about the "Rosary Congress," you can visit this website: (rosarycongressusa.org).

The Message of Fatima

Last weekend, I preached about the impact of visiting Fatima had on me, and the ways that it has stirred in my heart a great desire to become holy, and to embrace and enact the message of Fatima, which is all about lovingly offering prayers, adoration, sacrifices, and reparations for the conversion of sinners. Here are some of the accounts that I shared last week:

[I]n the spring of 1916. Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta were together that day tending their families' flocks of sheep at the Cabeco, one of their favorite grazing spots. It had been raining earlier in the morning, but eventually the sky cleared. They ate their lunch and then prayed the Rosary together. Eager to play, the children often prayed as quickly as possible with their own shortened version of the Rosary, saying on each bead only the first two words of the Hail Mary or Our Father.

After their prayers that day, as they were starting to play a game, a strong wind shook the tree tops. Lucia described in her memoirs what they saw: "a young man, about fourteen or fifteen years old, whiter than snow, transparent as crystal when the sun shines through it and of great beauty". The children were astonished but said nothing to each other. Then the angel spoke: "Do not be afraid. I am the Angel of Peace. Pray with me." . . . The angel invited the children to pray with him and taught them a prayer they had never known before. First he knelt down and bowed until his forehead touched the ground.

The angel then taught the children a beautiful prayer which is usually referred to as the Pardon Prayer: My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You. The angel repeated these words three times. Then he rose and said to the children, "Pray thus. The Hearts of Jesus and Mary are attentive to the voice of your supplications." Then the angel disappeared. . . .

*On a second occasion that summer, the angel appeared to them again. During the siesta hours, the children remained in the shade under the trees near the well playing their games. On this occasion the angel appeared suddenly right beside the children. He had a gentle rebuke for them: "What are you doing?" Those words must have made a very strong impression on the children because they responded very faithfully to the angel's second message: "Pray! Pray very much! The Hearts of Jesus and Mary have designs of mercy on you. Offer prayers and sacrifices constantly to the Most High." . . . In addition to prayer, the angel mentioned the need to offer sacrifices. When Lucia asked him how they were to make sacrifices, the angel answered: "Make of everything you can a sacrifice, and offer it to God as an act of reparation for the sins by which He is offended, and in supplication for the conversion of sinners. You will thus draw down peace upon your country. I am its Angel Guardian, the Angel of Portugal. Above all, accept and bear with submission, the suffering which the Lord will send you." This statement of the angel contains some of the most important and basic elements of the Fatima message. Apostoli, Fr. Andrew. Fatima For Today (pp. 23-27). Ignatius Press. Kindle Edition.*

With gratitude for the Message of Fatima,

Father Steve

Herman Van Drie Memorial - 20th Annual Fruit Sale

2019 marks the 20th anniversary of this annual fund raiser. The tradition continues to fund special needs and all profits are directed toward Resurrection school. Last year a record amount was raised.

Private donations allowed free fruit to be given to St. Vincent de Paul, Rescue Mission and many other organizations. Last year over 500 lbs of fruit was given to those in need.

Payments can be made by check or cash. Please make checks out to Church of the Resurrection with "Fruit Sale" in memo. You can pay when you make your order or when it is delivered. Expect Florida fruit deliveries by the 2nd week of December.

Look for order forms at the exits of the church. Any questions, call 517-482-7729.

Payment is due by November 11.
