A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Thank you!

Our 13th Annual School Auction for support of Resurrection School, was a great evening of fun and a great sign of the generosity of the faithful in our parish and community. The point, of course, is to raise support for our excellent school. (I want to extend gratitude to Mr. Allstott, our teachers and staff members, as well as the many volunteers who make Resurrection School the great place it is.) But it was also a great event for our parish and school supporters. I'm grateful to the School Auction Committee, as well as family-members, alumni, and others who worked so hard to make the Auction a great success. Thanks also to those who donated so many great items and to bidders, who bid early and often! It was a great time for a very worthy cause. Thank you!

Lumen Veritatis

This evening (Sunday, November 19th), we will hold our second lecture of the Lumen Veritatis series at 7:00 p.m. at Lansing Catholic High School's auditorium. My brother, Dan Mattson, author of Why I Don't Call Myself Gay: How I Reclaimed My Sexual Reality and Found Peace, will share the journey of his life as a Prodigal Son who left God behind to live the way the world said he could find happiness. Please consider inviting others to join you to hear Dan speak on what has in fact become one of the most challenging topics of our time. As always, we will have food, drink, and fellowship, the talk, questions & answers, and more fellowship. It's a great time. I hope to see you there.

Using (Y)Our Talents

For several years now, we have prayed a powerful prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to come! The preface of that prayer is as follows: Let us pray that every person within the Catholic Diocese of Lansing [I have often focused this for us, saying "within the Church of the Resurrection"] will come to know and love our Lord Jesus Christ in a personal way, grow in maturity as a disciple of Christ, become actively engaged in the full life of the Church, and joyfully utilize his or her gifts for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the salvation of souls. Today, as we hear the Parable of the Talents, it is well for us to reflect on all we have each individually received from God as gifts: first of all our very lives, our natural and spiritual gifts (or charisms), our material resources, and our time. The question at the end of time is how we have used the many gifts we have been given. As a parish, we long to be a place where every baptized Christian can discern, cultivate, and employ their gifts "for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the salvation of souls."

Place of the Laity's Ministry Is in the World

One of the challenges today in the Church is finding the best ways to help baptized Christians discern, cultivate, and employ their gifts. Please pray for the leadership of the parish as we seek to find the best ways to accomplish this important goal and purpose. As part of her role at the parish, Liz O'Neill will be inviting parishioners to volunteer in various ways to serve and will also offer ways for baptized believers to "discern" their gifts/charisms. All too often, faithful Catholics have come to believe that they are "utilizing their gifts" when they assist at Mass, as, say, EMHCs, Lectors, Servers, Greeters, or Ushers. Of course, we need such help at Mass, but for most of us, these are not the primary ways we are called to utilize our gifts. (The exceptions to this general rule are EMHCs who take communion to the sick and thereby exercise the charism of mercy or helps, greeters who exercise their charism of hospitality, and musicians who exercise their charism of worship.) My point in this reflection is to highlight the point that laymen and -women are primarily called to serve outside of—not at—Mass. In other words, your ministry will be primarily carried out in your home, workplace, school, or community.

Ministers at Mass

In light of those reflections, and the challenges of our current arrangements (making sure we always have enough EMHCs and/or the fact that some ministers are asked to serve at every Mass they attend), I have prayerfully decided to limit the distribution of Communion to the Body even on weekends, except for Feasts or Solemnities. This means that we will only receive the Precious Blood on special occasions, like the Immaculate Conception, Christmas, Easter, Pentecost, Days of Obligation, etc. This will also allow ministers to enter into Mass more often, without having to serve every week. I hope that this change will reinforce the truth that our ministry is not primarily at Mass, but after or outside of Mass. Our liturgical minister schedule will reflect these changes, effective the First Sunday of Advent, which is in two weeks.

Thanksgiving

Eucharist means "thanksgiving," and we especially pause this week to say "thank you" to God. This week, families across our Land will celebrate God's gracious gifts to us. I continue to pour out my heart of thanks for all God has given me by sending me to the Church of the Resurrection. I am grateful for your prayerful support, your financial support of the parish and school, and your generosity in service. My prayer for you is that you will experience the delight that our God takes in you as you pour out your thanks to Him. May your time of celebration be filled with love, joy, and peace. We will have Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 8:15 a.m. Join us if you're able. Adoration will be available throughout the day on Friday (9:00 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. to accommodate a wedding rehearsal), in case you need a reprieve from shopping or football!

With gratitude for all God's gifts to us,

Father Steve

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

SCHOOL NEWS

The school auction was another great success this year! Through generous donations and generous bidders, the school was able to raise over $30,000 for tuition assistance and targeted projects.

We could never have accomplished this goal without the auction committee and the numerous parents who volunteered to organize this event for the school. We are so blessed by their commitment to our school and parish community. There were also several students and alumni who volunteer during the auction, which is a great reminder of how the Holy Spirit is cultivating a spirit of generosity and service through Resurrection school. We are so blessed!

Thank you again for your constant support of the school and the good work the Lord is accomplishing through it.
