A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Happy New Year!

As we celebrate the new (liturgical) year and begin our Advent journey, I hope and pray that all of our hearts will be filled with joyful anticipation of Christ's three-fold coming: 1) His coming as a baby, the "Newborn King"; 2) His coming again in Glory; and 3) His coming into our hearts. Each day of Advent, let us prepare for His coming by inviting Him into our hearts, so that our hearts might be filled with love, joy, and peace.

No Announcements!

As I mentioned last week, neither I nor anyone else will give announcements at weekend Masses. Often these announcements are redundant to many fliers and the bulletin. What this means is that I won't be announcing fundraisers, Scrip Sales, Coffee & Donuts, Café, activities of various groups, etc. I will, as need arises, let you know about spiritual opportunities, especially about Holy Days of Obligation and opportunities to grow in the faith, but that will not be before Mass. I hope and pray that this will allow all of us to focus on the Lord and our relationship with Him more fully before, during, and after Mass. NB: If you desire to get a weekly email of updates about events, please visit our website (corlansing.org) and sign-up for our e-newsletter. We are also working on getting a format for showing announcements on the monitors between the Masses and on weekdays. Thanks for understanding.

Clarification About Ministers

Last week, someone who often serves as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC) approached me to talk about how sad she was at my announcement that we would only be distributing the Body of Christ at communion, except on Feast Days and Solemnities. She told me she had talked with two other people who also expressed their own sadness about this change. I thanked her for talking with me. It was my sense that there were at least two reasons for her/their sadness. The first was that those who serve enjoy the privilege of serving as EMHCs. However, I suspect that a bigger reason for their sadness might have been the way I phrased things.

Two weeks ago, I wrote the following:

All too often, faithful Catholics have come to believe that they are "utilizing their gifts" when they assist at Mass, as, say, EMHCs, Lectors, Servers, Greeters, or Ushers. Of course, we need such help at Mass, but for most of us, these are not the primary ways we are called to utilize our gifts. (The exceptions to this general rule are EMHCs who take communion to the sick and thereby exercise the charism of mercy or helps, greeters who exercise their charism of hospitality, and musicians who exercise their charism of worship.) My point in this reflection is to highlight the point that lay-men and -women are primarily called to serve outside of—not at—Mass. In other words, your ministry will be primarily carried out in your home, workplace, school, or community.

Sorry!

Though I remain convinced of the claims I made in that article, I regret that my phrasing could easily have been interpreted as an implicit criticism of those who serve in these ways. I intended nothing of the sort. The fact is that those who serve as EMHCs and Lectors at our parish and at many other parishes are often those who are often most involved in other ministries at the parish. Nevertheless, because so many are involved at Mass, there can be (especially among those who are not already serving in various ways) a false belief that serving the Lord means serving on Sundays. The point I tried to make, and want to underscore is the following: your ministry will be primarily carried out in your home, workplace, school, and/or community. If you are already serving in various ways, let me say once again, "Thank you!" If you are not yet serving, please look forward to opportunities to discern, develop, and find ways to utilize those gifts joyfully in the future.

Music During Advent

The Church invites all parishes to be more subdued/solemn in the celebration of Mass during the Season of Advent (less so than Lent, but it is also a penitential season). This more subdued celebration will contrast well with the joyous celebration of Feast Days during Advent (as well as Gaudete Sunday) and most especially when we get to the celebration of the Christmas Vigil and the glorious Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ. We will use this opportunity to sing the proper opening Antiphon each Sunday, as we did during Lent. These Antiphons can be found on the lavender sheet of paper in the pews. The format for the opening Antiphon will be for the cantor to sing it through the first time, then for us to repeat it together. After that, the cantor will sing the verse followed by the "Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy . . ." after which we will all repeat the Antiphon together.

Are You Ready? He's Coming!

The Lord is someday (perhaps soon) coming again. Indeed, Advent means "coming." Today, Jesus warns us to "Be watchful! Be alert!" as we anticipate His return. He invites us to travel this journey with joy. May you and your family know the love, joy, and peace of the Lord this Advent.

Eagerly waiting and watching with you,

Father Steve

Mass and Adoration Times for December 8th:

Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, is a Holy Day of Obligation. The schedule will be: Confession at 7:45am, 8:15am Mass; Adoration, Noon Mass, Adoration, 6:30pm Mass, followed by confession. Holy Hour will be cancelled.

Our evening will conclude with Benediction

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE- As we prepare for the birth of Christ during this Advent season, let us remember those less fortunate. The Altar Society and Knights of Columbus, in conjunction with the St. Vincent De Paul Society, are sponsoring a Christmas Giving Tree located in the vestibule.

Envelopes are available on the tree to be used for gift cards for area teens whose families are in need. Place a gift card(s) (fast food places or stores for teens) in one of the envelopes and put it in the collection basket, or drop it off at the office. The St. Vincent DePaul Society will include these contributions with the Christmas gift baskets they assemble.

The deadline to donate the gift cards is Monday, December 11.

This does not replace the toy collection that the St. Vincent De Paul Society sponsors every year, but rather supplements it so that those 13 – 17 years of age may also experience your loving generosity.
