A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

“Catholics Come Home”

Beginning this past Wednesday, you may have seen ads inviting viewers to “come home” to the Catholic Church. This is part of a diocesan effort to invite loved ones and friends to return (or come for the first time) to the Catholic Church. Please keep praying for your loved ones and friends who have left the Church, and consider ways that you might invite them to join you for Mass or another parish/school event. One of the most important things we can do in this holy season is bear witness in our lives to our faith, and to share our joy with others. Your friends and family are more likely to respond to your invitation than to an ad on TV, but this ad campaign give us, in a sense, “permission” to invite them to “come home.”

Healing Encounter

One regular opportunity for us to invite people to “come home” is our bi-monthly “Healing Encounter.” For a while now, every second Saturday of even months (December February, April, etc.), we have been offering an evening of praise, adoration, and prayers for healing. Consider joining us (and inviting someone to come along with you) this Saturday, December 9th. We will meet in the church at 7:00 p.m. and spend a couple of hours in the presence of the Lord. Each Encounter, we take time to pray, worship, and entreat Jesus to heal us. (If you have a candle that you’ve used before for the “Burning Bush,” bring that with you. If you don’t yet have a candle, come anyway. They will be available that evening.)

Dangers of Devices

Last week, I preached once again on the dangers of devices, and offered a strong invitation/exhortation/encouragement to pull back from devices during Advent. This was a special Advent invitation, and I sense the Lord inviting all of us to create a space of “silence” in our hearts and homes. In my homily, which is available on our website (corlansing.org), I bore testimony to the increased freedom I have experienced that resulted from pulling significantly back from devices in my life. Though I don’t think the Lord requires this of anyone, it has been really powerful for me.

Amusing Ourselves to Death

In my homily, I quoted from Neil Postman’s 1985 Amusing Ourselves to Death, which outlined the dangers he believed TV posed for our culture and our lives. As I read the book, this excerpt was the most sobering for me: What [Aldous] Huxley teaches is that in the age of advanced technology, spiritual devastation is more likely to come from an enemy with a smiling face than from one whose countenance exudes suspicion and hate. In the Huxleyan prophecy, Big Brother does not watch us, by his choice. We watch him, by ours. We are all very much aware that devices are often used to pacify/entertain/excite/satisfy ourselves and/or to do the same for others. Please note that I am not saying that devices are intrinsically evil. All technologies can be used for good or for evil. Nevertheless, I am convinced that devices often “rule” our lives as masters, rather than as servants. As I have said repeatedly, I am most concerned about how devices will affect the hearts, and minds of children.

Lumen Veritatis

This coming Saturday evening (December 16), Jim Owens will give our next Lumen Veritatis lecture, which is very timely in light of my homily last weekend. The lecture is entitled, “Neuroplasticity, Neurogenesis, & Human Flourishing.” Beginning with a discussion of how the brain establishes and develops neural pathways, Mr. Owens will provide principles by which each of us can pursue lives of true human flourishing. He will touch upon issues related to addiction, the dangerous effects of technology saturation (especially in young people), and the relationship between the development of virtue and neurological health. The evening begins at 7:00 p.m. at the Lansing Catholic High School Auditorium with food, drinks, and fellowship. The talk will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by questions and answers. Please plan to join us. And bring a friend.

The Power of Silence: Against the Dictatorship of Noise

The other book I quoted from last week was Cardinal Robert Sarah’s book on silence. It is very much worth a read, especially in this holy season. I offer here the excerpt from the book that I read at the 11:00 & 5:30 Masses:

...From morning to evening, from evening to morning, silence no longer has any place at all; the noise tries to prevent God himself from speaking. In this hell of noise, man disintegrates and is lost; he is broken up into countless worries, fantasies, and fears. In order to get out of these depressing tunnels, he desperately awaits noise so that it will bring him a few consolations. Noise is a deceptive, addictive, and false tranquilizer. The tragedy of our world is never better summed up than in the fury of senseless noise that stubbornly hates silence. This age detests the things that silence brings us to: encounter, wonder, and kneeling before God.

...In killing silence, man assassinates God. But who will help man to be quiet? His mobile phone is continually ringing; his fingers and mind are always busy sending messages. . . . Developing a taste for prayer is probably the first and foremost battle of our age. Stationed in garrisons of the most pitiful noises, is man prepared to return to silence? The death of silence is apparent. God will always help us to rediscover it.

As I concluded my reading of this quote, I added to the final part of the quote (God will always help us to rediscover it . . .) “if we let Him.” Let’s let Him!

May we all enter into silence and hear the still small voice of God this Advent,

Father Steve

THIS WEEKEND

THE ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY will be collecting wrapped toys for their Christmas baskets on the Second Sunday of Advent (Dec 9 & 10). Please bring your wrapped gift, marked with age and for boy or girl, to Mass.

Please note that these are for children, if you'd like to donate for a 13-17 year old, you are encouraged to take an envelope from the Angel Tree.

Thank you for your continued support!

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE- As we prepare for the birth of Christ during this Advent season, let us remember those less fortunate. The Altar Society and Knights of Columbus, in conjunction with the St. Vincent De Paul Society, are sponsoring a Christmas Giving Tree located in the vestibule.

Envelopes are available on the tree to be used for gift cards for area teens whose families are in need. Place a gift card (s) (fast food places or stores for teens) in one of the envelopes and put it in the collection basket, or drop it off at the office. The St. Vincent DePaul Society will include these contributions with the Christmas gift baskets they assemble.

TOMORROW

The deadline to donate the gift cards is Monday, December 11. This does not replace the toy collection that the St. Vincent De Paul Society sponsors every year, but rather supplements it so that those 13 – 17 years of age may also experience your loving generosity.

MEN'S EVENING OF ADORATION

Thursday December 14th 7-8pm in Church, with fellowship followed in Mercy Hall

Attention Bridge Players: We will play this Wednesday, December 13th at 1pm, Parish Hall. Contact Gary and Laura Langdon if you would like to play, 517-484-1812.

HELP IN THE HOME

Do you have an interest in using your craftsman abilities assisting CofR parishioners and residents within the parish boundaries? We are investigating a new ministry that would reach out to folks who do not have the physical capability or the mechanical ability to make minor, but important, repairs to their residence. Our initial thoughts are things such as changing lightbulbs or lighting fixtures, making minor plumbing repairs such as leaky faucets, doing light handyman work, such as fixing or installing handrails, and painting projects.

We have yet to formalize the organization and duties of the group, and if you have an interest your input and participation would be appreciated. Please prayerfully consider helping us in this important work.

Contact Liz at loneill@corlansing.org and put Help in the Home in the subject line of the email. Or call the parish office.

FRUIT SALE ORDER will be available for pick up Dec 9th following the 5pm Mass, Dec 10th following the 9am & 11am Masses. Weekday pick Dec 11-14, 3pm-5pm. All orders need to be picked up at the Loading Dock of Mercy Hall Parking Lot (behind elementary school).
