PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Made for Happiness

In light of recent news, it may seem a strange time for us to have a Eucharistic Procession through the city, and then to gather at the Breslin Center for a Diocesan Assembly. But, in fact, the truth is that we are all Made for Happiness, and the Lord knows our struggles, our sins, our needs, and He longs to meet them in and through the Church. This weekend, Saturday, September 22, the Church of Lansing will gather to pray together and to worship God and grow together as the Body of Christ. Details about the Assembly can be found on our webpage. Because the bishop has asked all priests to attend the Assembly, you can join us at the Breslin Center for Mass at 4:30 p.m. Saturday 22nd.

Alpha? Still Not Too Late

If you and/or your friends and family have questions about Jesus or about what Christians believe or why Catholics do this or that, consider attending the Alpha Course this fall. It's a low-pressure opportunity to enjoy a good meal, watch an engaging video, and have a good conversation. No questions are off limits. Though we got started two weeks ago, you and your friends can still sign up. If you or someone you know has questions about Jesus and/or the Christian faith, please join us for the Alpha Course. We get started at 6:30 each Thursday. Childcare is available. Call the office to register (482-4749) or fill out the registration forms available in the church.

Interested in learning more about the Catholic Church (RCIA)?

Each fall, as we begin a new season of learning, we also begin classes for those who are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. This year, Rich Budd will be teaching classes for adults as well as high school students who are interested in learning more and potentially becoming Catholics at the Easter Vigil in the spring. Rich's full time job is Director of Marriage and Family Life for the Diocese of Lansing. He helped out with the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) classes last year, and I'm grateful that he will be serving the parish in this way.

Once again this year, Angie Amburn will be working with those students up to 8th grade who are interested in learning more about and/or becoming Catholic at the Easter Vigil in the spring. Rich Budd can be contacted by email (rcia@corlansing.org) and Angie Amburn can be contacted by email as well (aamburn@corlansing.org). Feel free to call the parish office for more information (517.482.4749).

Quotes from the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Last weekend, I quoted from the Catechism in my homily on how the Lord is at work even now in our current crisis. As I said, I am including them in my bulletin article this week. May we all, as I said last week, become saints. Great Trials are what make Great Saints. Let's let the Lord work in and through us, and together become saints.

765 The Lord Jesus endowed his community with a structure that will remain until the Kingdom is fully achieved. Before all else there is the choice of the Twelve with Peter as their head.168 Representing the twelve tribes of Israel, they are the foundation stones of the new Jerusalem.169 The Twelve and the other disciples share in Christ's mission and his power, but also in his lot.170 By all his actions, Christ prepares and builds his Church. (610, 551)

766 The Church is born primarily of Christ's total self-giving for our salvation, anticipated in the institution of the Eucharist and fulfilled on the cross. "The origin and growth of the Church are symbolized by the blood and water which flowed from the open side of the crucified Jesus."171 "For it was from the side of Christ as he slept the sleep of death upon the cross that there came forth the 'wondrous sacrament of the whole Church.'"172 As Eve was formed from the sleeping Adam's side, so the Church was born from the pierced heart of Christ hanging dead on the cross.173 (813, 860, 1340, 617, 478) The Church—revealed by the Holy Spirit

767 "When the work which the Father gave the Son to do on earth was accomplished, the Holy Spirit was sent on the day of Pentecost in order that he might continually sanctify the Church."174 Then "the Church was openly displayed to the crowds and the spread of the Gospel among the nations, through preaching, was begun."175 As the "convocation" of all men for salvation, the Church in her very nature is missionary, sent by Christ to all the nations to make disciples of them.176 (731, 849)

768 So that she can fulfill her mission, the Holy Spirit "bestows upon [the Church] varied hierarchic and charismatic gifts, and in this way directs her."177 "Henceforward the Church, endowed with the gifts of her founder and faithfully observing his precepts of charity, humility and self-denial, receives the mission of proclaiming and establishing among all peoples the Kingdom of Christ and of God, and she is on earth the seed and the beginning of that kingdom."178 (541)

The Church—perfected in glory

769 "The Church... will receive its perfection only in the glory of heaven,"179 at the time of Christ's glorious return. Until that day, "the Church progresses on her pilgrimage amidst this world's persecutions and God's consolations."180 Here below she knows that she is in exile far from the Lord, and longs for the full coming of the Kingdom, when she will "be united in glory with her king."181 The Church, and through her the world, will not be perfected in glory without great trials. Only then will "all the just from the time of Adam, 'from Abel, the just one, to the last of the elect,'... be gathered together in the universal Church in the Father's presence."182 (671, 2818, 675, 1045)

With continued prayers and fasting for the Church,

Father Steve

WOMEN'S EVENING OF ADORATION

September 27th, 7:00pm-8:00pm, Church

Attention Parishioners with Young Children
Our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program is getting ready to start a new year, and we are excited about the options we can offer to our parish families. If you belong to Resurrection Parish and have a 4 or 5 year old, we will be offering two sessions of CGS for parish children not enrolled in our school. Level 1 will be offered:

Sundays 10:30-11:45AM starting September 30 and Wednesdays 1:30-2:50PM starting October 3.

Tuition is $100/child. Register early!

Please contact the parish office to enroll your child. Be sure to state which day and time you'd prefer. If you have any other questions, please contact Marianne Vasievich at mvasievich@corlansing.org.

Annual Diocesan SENIOR APPRECIATION DAY

You are invited to join us at Cristo Rey Church, Thursday Sept 27th, Mass with Bishop Boyea at 11am, followed by lunch and entertainment.

To register for this free event, please call the parish office by Sept 24th. The event is hosted by the Lansing Area Catholic Council on Aging.

Chant Camp 2018

Do you start to sweat a little when you open your hymnal to a piece of Gregorian Chant? On September 28 and 29th, the Church of the Resurrection will hold a "Chant Camp."

Don't know how to read music? We are going to start at the very beginning. Once you understand how the chant notation works, you will have the building blocks to understand all western music.

This will be of value to the whole family and may even spark an early interest in music for school age children.

We will meet in Mercy Hall:

Friday Sept. 28, 7 - 8:30pm

Saturday Sept. 29, 8:15am - Noon

Help Spread the FAITH-Sept 29-30

Thank you for making last year's Help Spread the FAITH Appeal a success. Thank you for answering Christ's call to evangelize. The Help Spread the FAITH Appeal makes our own local evangelization efforts, like FAITH magazine and the televised Outreach Mass, possible.

Bishop Earl Boyea believes that FAITH magazine has been an important part of our evangelization plan. FAITH magazine is sent to your home and every Catholic home each month by our parishes and diocese. Many of our fellow Catholics have become disconnected from the life of the Church, and Bishop Boyea believes that FAITH magazine has been the best way to reach out to them. In addition to FAITH magazine, our diocese continues to evangelize with interactive websites, weekly television Masses, the US bishops' national efforts and local parish initiatives. By supporting the Help Spread the FAITH Appeal, you will help us continue to answer Christ's call to reach out with the Gospel message.

Workshop Teaches Self-care to Caregivers

Caregiving is sacred but draining work, but self-care is also important. Rooted in Love: Caring for Those who Care for Others is offered at Weber Retreat & Conference Center from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Thursday, Sept 27, to show professionals and those who care for family members how they can practice the art of self-care in their busy lives.

Suzanne T. Fabick, a hospice chaplain for the past 15 years, helps participants to integrate various spiritual resources and practices such as Scripture, guided meditation, and journaling to validate and give meaning to the sacred role of caregiver.

The cost is $15, and registration is required. To register, visit www.webercenter.org and click on "programs." Registrations may also be made by contacting Weber Center at 517-266-4000 or webercenter@adriandominicans.org.

St. Therese Parish, "Open Doors" Tutoring Program

St. Therese Parish (on Lansing's north side) is home to "Open Doors", a free tutoring center for children in grades K-6. Children from all over the city are being helped with reading and math skills by volunteer tutors on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4:00 – 6:00 pm. We are looking for more people who would like to be part of this rewarding ministry. If you are interested in becoming a tutor, please call the St. Therese Parish Office at 487-3749, or stop by the tutoring center for a visit any Monday or Wednesday. There are only two requirements:

- * Take the Virtus Training (www.virtusonline.org)
- * Have a criminal background check (Through Sue Benjamin at the St. Therese Parish Office).

We would love for you to join us!
