A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Be There . . .

This Saturday evening, (November 3rd), after the Vigil Mass, we will gather to celebrate God's goodness to us and to have an evening of fun, fellowship, and fundraising at our 14th Annual School Auction. I'm grateful for all of those who have labored lovingly to prepare for that annual event. In contrast to many school auctions, the cost is minimal to attend. We want this to be a parish event as well as a way to help us raise money to continue to form Disciples of Christ at Resurrection School. Please plan to join us after the Vigil Mass this Saturday. It's a great time and a great cause.

Men's Evening of Adoration

The Men's monthly evening of adoration will be moved to next Wednesday (November 14th) at 7:00. It is a time of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Opportunity for confession is also available. We will conclude with Benediction at 8:00, followed by a time of fellowship. Join us if you're able, brothers, next week!

Holy Land Touch of Art

Holy Land Touch of Art is a business of families that live in the Holy Land and will be visiting our parish next weekend, Nov 10 & 11. For centuries, the wood carving industry has been the main industry for the Christians of the Holy Land and has allowed Christian families to earn a living by selling to visiting pilgrims. Due to the dramatic decrease in the number of visiting pilgrims, it has been very difficult for the Artisans to support their families and community. Because of the lack of work in the Holy Land, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the Holy Land. Sadly now, Christians make up less than 1% of the population. Since the start of its ministry three years ago with the blessing of Bishop Boyea, Holy Land Touch of Art has helped up to 75 struggling families. Your support will make a difference in the lives of many Christians. Please plan on stopping by Mercy Hall after all the Masses and supporting this mission by purchasing beautifully handmade olive wood products.

Save the Date: December 1 for Father-Daughter Dance

Beginning at 6:00 p.m. on December 1, fathers (or father-figures, i.e., grandfathers, uncles, god-fathers) are invited to accompany girls in the parish and school, Kindergarten or older, to join in a Ceili Dance. Please plan to "dress up" for this (semi-formal or "Sunday best") for this evening. Buffet dinner will begin at 6:15 p.m., and those who attend will be taught how to do simple Irish Ceili Dances, thanks to Meghan of McCartney Irish Dance. You can buy tickets online. Please sign-up prior to November 20.

Healing the Whole Person Retreat in Brighton

Registration is available for the next few weeks for the Healing the Whole Person retreat that will be held November 29, November 30, and December 1 (Thursday and Friday evenings, and all day Saturday). We were blessed to have this retreat at our parish last year, and I'm grateful that the John Paul II Healing Center will be coming to Michigan again this year. I very much encourage people to take the time to "Be Healed" over these three days. Please share the information with those you know and love. As I preached last week, healing encounters with the living love of God can help all of us deal with the various challenges of life.

Healing Prayer

If you would like healing prayer, please see our "Healing" page on the website. You can make a time for prayer with Sean and Liz; Thursday through Sunday. You can also make an appointment with me (see my page on the website to sign up).

Knowing God's Commands

This week, we hear the "Sh'ma Yisrael," the powerful Jewish prayer that is part of their morning and evening services. The first part of the prayer is taken from Deuteronomy 6:4-9: "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD; and you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. And these words which I command you this day shall be upon your heart; and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. And you shall bind them as a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates."

The Lord created us with rational minds and free wills so that we can respond to the commandments of God. He also makes clear in Deuteronomy that repetition is fundamentally important for learning.

Baptismal Promises

All of this reminds me of the power of the promises that parents & godparents make at a child's baptism. The celebrant explains the sober responsibility parents & godparents are taking upon themselves: You have come here to present this child for baptism. By water and the Holy Spirit he/she is to receive the gift of new life from God, who is love. On your part, you must make it your constant care to bring him/her up in the practice of the faith. See that the divine life which God gives him/her is kept safe from the poison of sin, to grow always stronger in his heart.

That's obviously a very important commitment. The 1965 Vatican II Declaration "On Christian Education", 3 elaborates on this: "Since parents have given children their life, they are bound by the most serious obligation to educate their offspring and therefore must be recognized as the primary and principal educators. . . . Parents are the ones who must create a family atmosphere animated by love and respect for God and man, in which the well-rounded personal and social education of children is fostered. Hence the family is the first school of the social virtues that every society needs. It is particularly in the Christian family, enriched by the grace and office of the sacrament of matrimony, that children should be taught from their early years to have a knowledge of God according to the faith received in Baptism, to worship Him, and to love their neighbor."

As a parish, one of our core values is to be practically supportive of all parents and families as they fulfill their responsibilities to their children. We do so through our school, on Sundays, and other faith-formation opportunities and programs. As we live out our God-given roles, let's please keep each other in prayer. May we all one day get to heaven and help each other get to heaven, along with all the children God is pleased to call His own!

With gratitude that we're members of the Family of God,

Father Steve
