A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Welcome!

At this joyful time of year, many people feel drawn to church. It is the Lord's love drawing us to the vulnerable Baby Jesus, who came among us as a sign of God's humility and love for us. If you're visiting or it has been a long time since you have been here, we're glad you're here! For whatever reason you came, thanks for joining us. We want you to feel welcome, and we very much desire to support you (and your family) in any way we can. Fill out a visitor's card, which you can find in the pew. We are honored to have you with us.

Merry Christmas!

It's still Christmas. Celebrate! Beginning with the celebration of Christmas, the Church enjoys eight days, an "Octave of Christmas". The secular world is "done" with Christmas the day, perhaps two days, after Christmas. But for us, Christmas is just getting started! For eight days (and more) we celebrate Christ's birth. Next Sunday, we celebrate the Epiphany, and the week after that, we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, which marks the end of the Christmas Season. It's a time of joy. So, keep on celebrating! Enjoy the goodness of God to us, in giving us a Redeemer, and (especially today) giving us a Holy Family to celebrate and emulate in our homes.

Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

This Sunday, we celebrate the Holy Family. Of course, with the birth of Jesus, the Holy Family was complete. Joseph and Mary provide to all of us, but especially to parents, what it means to "model" the faith for their family. Mary and Joseph were holy and they made their home a place of holiness. God our Father longs for all homes to be marked by holiness. Let us entrust our homes and our families to the prayers of the Holy Family, so that we might share their destiny, which is life in Heaven forever.

Mary, the Mother of God (New Years Day)

On Tuesday, which is the "Octave of Christmas," we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. Masses for the Holy Day are as follows: We will have one Vigil Mass at 4:30 p.m., December 31, as well as a Mass during the night at 10:30 p.m., which will be followed by adoration and Benediction just prior to Midnight. On January 1st, we will have one Mass at 10:00 a.m. If you are traveling, may you have the protection of your guardian angels, and have a joyous celebration with your family and friends. God bless you all!

Read a book on faith this year!

May you and those you love experience the joy and peace of this holy season, and know the love of God made flesh in the person of the Baby Jesus. As I mentioned last week, our Christmas gift to you are books. Feel free to take one or more of the two books we have for you and your loved ones this year. The first is The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity, by Matthew Kelly. This book offers practical tools to dispel the false promises the modern culture feeds you, and discover the single truth that is the key to regaining your fervor, uniting Christians, and leaving your mark on the world—and experiencing more happiness than you thought possible.

The other book we are offering this Christmas is Signs of Life: Catholic Customs and Their Biblical Roots, by Dr. Scott Hahn, which is a thorough and yet approachable guide to Catholic practices that unveils the deep scriptural roots of our faith. This coming year, I pray we will all grow in our knowledge and practice of the faith. Please pray for all who will attend Mass here at Christmas, that we will all grow in wisdom and knowledge and virtue in the New Year. Feel free to take a copy to give to friends or loved ones who were unable to join us for prayer this Christmas. In that way, we can all help spread the faith. May all of us have a joyful celebration of the Savior's Birth.

Thank You!

Thanks to all who worked so hard to make our celebration of Christmas so joy-filled. It was a great blessing to have a wonderful choir, complete with brass, at the Midnight Mass. I am grateful to David Stattelman for his work with the choir, as well as the accompanists, cantors, and Praise & Worship ensembles who help us worship with reverence and beauty.

Behind the scenes, the Altar Society and St. Joseph Guild have worked tirelessly to prepare and maintain our church for worship, for which I am very grateful. I also want to thank all the liturgical ministers and ushers as well. Thanks to the Knights of Columbus and the St. Vincent DePaul Society for their help with families in need.

Finally, I want to thank the tremendous staff at the parish for their great labors for all of us and those we serve. As we all know, Resurrection School is a great gift to us and our community, and I thank Jacob Allstott, our school principal, and all those who collaborate with him to make our school such a great place for learning and growing in faith. Thanks for your generous support of our parish and school staff, and the financial and volunteer help you give in so many ways.

To all of you, including the vital lay faithful of the parish, I say, "Thank you and God bless you!" As I anticipate the new year, I'm calling to mind God's goodness to me. Among the greatest gifts to me is being pastor of this great parish. Thank you for your partnership with me in this ministry.

With deep gratitude for all God's gifts to us,

Father Steve
