A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Fun Fundraiser for the Shamrock Club

This Saturday night (3/9) after the 5:00 p.m. Mass, you are all invited to take part in the Fourth Annual Bean Bag Toss Tournament, a fundraiser put on by our Resurrection Shamrock Club, which supports the athletic program here. This year, the proceeds will go to support the Mike Ball family, who experienced a great gift of Mike's recovery, but with significant medical bills. Thanks for your prayers for him! Join us. It's a great evening of food, fellowship, and fun. Registration is from 5:30-6:30 p.m., and the tournament will begin at 7:00 p.m. The tournament has both child & adult divisions. It's a great evening.

Prayer Series

Last Thursday, I began a three-part series on Mental Prayer. The next two conferences will be Thursday, March 14, and Thursday, March 21. Each of the talks will be held in Mercy Hall (127 Rumsey) at 7:00 p.m.

Men's Evening of Adoration

Because of the Prayer Series on Thursdays, the Men's Evening of Adoration will be moved to Friday, March 15 from 7-8 p.m. Join the men for prayer, a brief reflection, and fellowship afterward.

Stations of the Cross

Every Friday during Lent at 6:30 p.m., we will pray the Stations of the Cross. Adoration will conclude fifteen minutes before Stations, and begin again after Stations are finished.

This coming Friday, March 15, there will be a second, Family Stations of the Cross at 5:30 p.m. sponsored by the Young Families & Couples Group at our parish. It is a family-friendly Stations. Afterward, the families will enjoy a potluck dinner in Mercy Hall.

Judgment and Forgiveness

Last weekend, in my homily, I quoted from a spiritual commentary on the Gospel of Matthew by Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis. The book is entitled, Fire of Love: Heart of the Word, by Ignatius Press. Here are the quotes that I made last weekend. I trust that you will find them as challenging and edifying as I did:

Our habit of judging others really entrenches us in the impossibility of our receiving God's, or anyone else's, forgiveness—not indeed because God does not give it, but because we have ceased little by little to think of ourselves as at all needing forgiveness. We cannot habitually define ourselves as judges and at the same time really believe in our deeper identity as sinners needing pardon. We may use the prescribed formulas of contrition, but our inward habit keeps us from really believing what we mouth. In this case, God will have to judge us adversely, because we have put ourselves beyond his sphere of forgiveness. By refusing to judge others, I am training myself in the divine art of forgiveness. Refusal to judge does not leave a vacuum, because where my neighbor is involved I am never indifferent: either I judge or I forgive, which means that either I exclude or I love. Can there be a greater bliss on earth than to go about habitually with forgiveness in our heart and mouth—an attitude flowing, not from some recipe to insure my own peace of mind, but from the same vision that the Father in heaven has of his creation . . . ?

THE DARKNESS of compulsive judgmentalism distorts all my perceptions and poisons my heart like a noxious gas. An eye blocked by a beam is so vitiated at the very source of vision that the optic nerve, conserving only a memory of seeing, imagines it sees beams everywhere, whereas the only real beam is that lodged in its own socket. We must ceaselessly struggle against this tendency to assume that our unschooled perception is the objective norm of judgment, that only we possess clear, unhampered sight. This malady can be cured only by putting on the mind of Christ, by seeing my brother through the eyes of Christ, which radiate love and forgiveness: τότε διαβέβηεις (v. 5)—“only then will you see clearly.” This perfective form of the verb “to see” marks the state of true vision that is in contrast to the thwarted vision of verse 3. I have this God-given urge to interlock with others in relationships, to launch out into the world and in some way contribute to its welfare. But I must not move too fast, since I first have to look at myself. Who am I, this person pretending to go out and heal others? Have I realized how, in the present passage, Jesus has imperceptibly moved from the native human urge to judge to the equally native need on our part to interject ourselves into others' lives in order to help them? “Let me remove the splinter from your eye.”

We do not only judge; we move in. We do so as superior to inferior, out of a pleasurable sense of condescendence. We must serve one another, however, as fellow patients afflicted with the same malady—the wounded helping the wounded. The essence of Christian charity consists not so much in the material accomplishment of a heroic deed as in the degree of spiritual communion in the crucified Lord achieved by both the doer and the recipient of the deed. The greatest deed of Christian charity—is forgiveness, and if I must live a life of forgiving others, as Christ teaches, this is not on account of my goodness of heart but out of my own humble consciousness of being continually forgiven by God. Far from judging my brother, I will give thanks that he is there to receive from me the pardon I have received from God. God's forgiveness is uncontainable. Forgiveness is the most beautiful mode of God's love for man and of our love for one another.

40 Days for Life (Planned Parenthood on Clippert)

2019 Diocesan Services Appeal

March 10, 2019

Dear Parish Family,

I write this letter to invite you join me in support of this year's 2019 Diocesan Services Appeal – "Whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully." This scripture text assures us that we will be richly blessed for our generosity. The passage from second Corinthians continues – "God is able to make every grace abundant for you, so that in all things . . . you may have an abundance for every good work."

Every good work! That is exactly what results from our collective support for our annual appeal. Our contributions are put to work, right away, in a multitude of ministries to offer direct assistance to individuals and families and to our parishes, Catholic schools, and Catholic Charities agencies. Vitally important is the impact these efforts have in our parishes, where so much of the Church's work occurs in the activities of everyday life.

Please prayerfully consider making a DSA contribution this year. The special DSA edition of FAITH magazine and a DSA video message from Bishop Boyea are available online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa. You may also use this link to make a DSA gift via credit card or electronic funds transfer from a bank account. Pledge forms will also be provided at liturgies on DSA Commitment Weekend, March 16 & 17.

Our DSA parish goal for 2019 is $79,625, and with your help, I am confident we can reach that goal. Once we reach our goal, 50% of any contributions received, over and above our parish goal, will be returned to our local parish.

Thank you for your generosity. Be assured of my prayers for you and your loved ones.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Father Shure

"WHOEVER SOWS BOUNTIFULLY will also reap bountifully."
