A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Come Encounter Jesus

This Saturday (April 13th), we will have our next Healing Encounter. It is a time of praise, worship, prayer, and adoration from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the church. Prayer teams will be available to pray for healing and other requests. Come, and invite someone to join you.

Becoming an “Inviting Parish”

One of my desires for the Church of the Resurrection is that we would become more and more comfortable sharing our faith with family and friends, in non-judgmental, winsome ways. Indeed, it's not obvious (or easy) to share the faith, but it all begins with prayerfulness. Do you have family or friends who don't practice their faith, are dealing with serious challenges, seem to be frustrated with life, or are seeking for the answers to the meaning of life? If so, the first step is praying for them. Ask the Lord for a sense of peace about inviting them to join you during Holy Week, or at some occasion during the season of Easter. As we enter this Holy Week, let's keep each other in prayer, as well as those that the Lord is placing on our hearts this Lent and Easter. God bless you all.

The Holiest of Weeks . . .

Today, we recall Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. We honor Jesus too, waiving our own palms of victorious celebration, with the poignant awareness of what Jesus came to Jerusalem to do for us—die! And then, Praised be Jesus Christ, rise again. This entire week is one long meditation on love and discipleship. Give yourself, your family, your friends a great gift and join us as often as possible. Holy Week is a great gift to us, and we are exceedingly blessed as we spend time in prayer and gratitude this week.

Sacred Triduum

This Thursday, we again begin the “Sacred Triduum,” or the Holy Three Days. Note that there are no Masses Thursday, Friday, or Saturday mornings, because the Sacred Triduum forms a great liturgical whole. During the day on Thursday, my brother priests and I will gather with the bishop in Lansing for the blessing of the Holy Oils and for the renewal of our priestly vows. In the evening, we will celebrate the institution of the Eucharist and priesthood at the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 6:30 p.m. (Please note the earlier time compared with prior years.)

Eucharistic Procession to the Altar of Repose

After communion that evening, we will process with the Blessed Sacrament to the Altar of Repose, which will be in the parish hall, where the faithful are invited to spend time with Jesus (ending at 11:00 p.m.). Note that adoration will be available Friday morning from 8:00 a.m. until 11:30am at the Altar of Repose (again, in the parish hall).

Good Friday of the Lord's Passion

On Friday, there will be many opportunities to pray together. The Church's liturgy of the Lord's Passion will be held at 12:10 p.m. That day, for the second time in a week, we will recall together the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

We will also pray for our needs and the needs of the world, in the context of Christ's love poured out. We will then venerate the wood of the cross and receive communion. At 3:00 p.m., we will gather again to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet at the “hour of mercy.” Finally, in the evening, we will pray the Stations of the Cross at 6:30 p.m.

Holy Saturday Night: The Easter Vigil

We spend the day on Holy Saturday in quiet silence and prayer on Saturday as we recall Christ lying in the tomb for us. That evening, we celebrate the Easter Vigil, which is the greatest Solemnity of the liturgical year. We will gather outside at dark, and begin the Solemn Vigil at 8:30 p.m. We will begin with the lighting of the fire that represents Christ's triumph over death, and then process into the church, following the Paschal Candle. Christ is our Light, and we are enlightened by Him. If you have not attended an Easter Vigil, plan to come. It is a glorious celebration of the love of God and the power of Christ (and those baptized into Christ) over death. Come, let us worship!

Easter Sunday: The Resurrection of the Lord

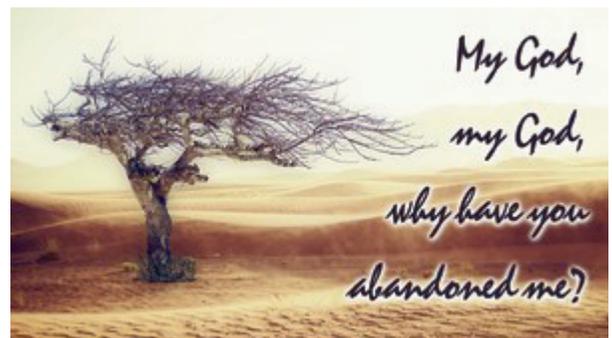

Easter Sunday we will have two Masses at the usual times: 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. It will be a jubilant time of celebration of our Hope in Christ. Plan to come, and invite your friends and family to join you as we celebrate the great gift that death could not keep Him down.

Have Easter Meal at Resurrection

Everyone is invited to enjoy Easter dinner with us in the Parish Hall next Sunday after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. I'm very grateful for Judy Edwards, who has coordinated this in the past, to offer a meal together with those who may not have other places to enjoy a meal together. Join us if you're able! See invitation and RSVP information on page 7.

Prayerfully wishing you the holiest of Holy Weeks,

Father Steve

The parish office will be closed Good Friday afternoon (12-4:30pm) and Easter Monday April 22nd. We will resume normal business hours Tuesday (23rd) at 9am.
