PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

May Crowning Tuesday Evening

Tuesday evening, May 4, at 6:15 p.m., we will have our May Crowning. If you are able, please plan to join us for the May Crowning of the statue of Mary with a ring of flowers. This will then be followed by a Votive Mass to the Blessed Virgin Mary at 6:30. It is a special opportunity for the First Communicants to bring flowers to Mary, as well as others in the parish and school to do the same. Perpetual Help Devotions will be prayed at 6:00 p.m.

Thanks!

I'm grateful to all of you who have already made a gift or pledge to DSA for this year. We're at 81% of our goal of $96,346. If you haven't had a chance yet to give or pledge, please consider doing so. I would love to have a very high percentage of parishioners support the bishop this year, even if it's a small amount.

Super Raffle

We are having a "Super Raffle" to support the work of the school. The drawing will be held May 22nd at 7:30 p.m. We have 500 tickets, which sell for $100 each. The prizes will be $10,000, $2,000, $1,000, $750, $750, $500. You needn't be present to win. It's a great way to support our school and to have the possibility of winning up to $10,000. Tickets are available at the parish office, and will be available in the parish hall during coffee & donuts and café on Sundays. You can purchase the tickets online, as well. Thanks in advance!

Upcoming Book Study Sessions

Because of the increased case count for Covid-19, we have postponed some of the book studies. The second evening discussion of Loved as I Am will be held May 6th, the second discussion of the USCCB pastoral letter will be held on May 13th, and the first discussion of 3 Big Questions for the Frantic Family will be held on May 20th. All of these evenings begin at 6:30 in Mercy Hall.

Disordered Desires and Human Needs

Last weekend, I preached about desires and needs, and how important it is for us to have our needs met in appropriate ways. Otherwise, as I mentioned, the desires/needs will be met in ways that "come out sideways." What I mean by that is that we'll end up doing things or saying things that are less than healthy. This is a repetition of some things I posted in my article a couple weeks ago:

Sr. Miriam offered these fundamental truths about our desires and our needs, and what is going on in our hearts when those desires and needs are unmet. I'll plan to talk about these some more after I return.

I. Behind every disordered desire is a holy desire.

II. Behind every disordered desire is an unmet need. (We all have these needs)

- To be loved, wanted, desired
- To have secure attachments
- To receive affirmation, to be shown that you are good)
- To belong and be accepted, to be chosen
- To find meaning and purpose in life

- To develop intimate relationships ("being at home")
- III. Behind every disordered desire is an unhealed wound.*
- IV. Behind every disordered desire is a hidden pattern of sin, which is often anger and/or pride*

Johann Hari and "Lost Connections"

I also referenced a book called Lost Connections: Uncovering the Real Causes of Depression - and the Unexpected Solutions. Here is an excerpt from the conclusion of his book, which seems worth reflection:

You aren't a machine with broken parts. You are an animal whose needs are not being met. You need to have a community. You need to have meaningful values, not the junk values you've been pumped full of all your life, telling you happiness comes through money and buying objects. You need to have meaningful work. You need the natural world. You need to feel you are respected. You need a secure future. You need connections to all these things. You need to release any shame you might feel for having been mistreated. Every human being has these needs, and in our culture, we're relatively good at meeting physical needs—almost nobody actually starves, for example, which is an extraordinary achievement. But we've become quite bad at meeting these psychological needs. That's a crucial reason why you—and so many of the people around you—are depressed and anxious. You are not suffering from a chemical imbalance in your brain. You are suffering from a social and spiritual imbalance in how we live. Much more than you've been told up to now, it's not serotonin; it's society. It's not your brain; it's your pain. Your biology can make your distress worse, for sure. But it's not the cause. It's not the driver. It's not the place to look for the main explanation, or the main solution

I would say to my younger self—your distress is not a malfunction. It is a signal—a necessary signal. I know this is going to be hard to hear, I'd tell him, because I know how deep your suffering cuts. But this pain isn't your enemy, however much it hurts It's your ally—leading you away from a wasted life and pointing the way toward a more fulfilling one. Then I would tell him—you are at a fork in the road now. You can try to muffle the signal. That will lead you to many wasted years when the pain will persist. Or you can listen to the signal and let it guide you—away from the things that are hurting and draining you, and toward the things that will meet your true needs.

We want to be a parish and community that honors the way we were created, and that fosters healthy connections, and that trends toward always deeper healing. Let's pray for each other that we would each know the love that God has for us, that we would receive love, and give it away. If you're struggling, please reach out to me or to the prayer ministry team. We want all to help each other know and receive God's love.

With gratitude to for the Lord's healing love,

Father Steve

We are in need of adorers in front of the Blessed Sacrament every Friday from 2-3pm and 3-4pm

We are a blessed Parish community to have the opportunity for all day Adoration from 9am-8pm each Friday. However, we do not want to displease the Lord by allowing Him to sit alone in a vacant church. He delights in your company; your dedication! Escape the busyness of the world outside. Sit in the stillness, in His presence to hear Him.

Please spread the word. Invite everyone you know to spend an hour with Jesus. Sign-up Genius is on our website under “worship”.

Please contact Susan Bartold at sbartold@corlansing.org or 517-482-4749, ext. 107
