PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Advent Reflections

Last Sunday at one of the Masses, I mentioned a quote by Johannes Scheffler, which seems fruitful for reflection in this Holy Season of Advent. Scheffler was a 17th Century German theologian, who wrote the following: “Christ may be born in Bethlehem a thousand times, but if he is not born in you, you will be lost for all eternity just the same.” The key here, of course, is to respond to the call from Jesus to Nicodemus, that we must be “born again.” That means to open our hearts and lives to the Lordship of Jesus. Later in his reflections, Scheffler offered this advice, which is brilliant, and is a great response to the call to “prepare the way of the Lord”: “If only your heart could become a crib, God would become a child again on the earth.” This Advent may we allow the Lord to dwell in our hearts, and let the Lord become a child again in us!

C&D and Charity

One need not attend Mass very often here without noticing that coffee & donuts are a “big deal” at our parish. The sheer numbers of parishioners who head over to Coffee & Donuts after Masses is remarkably high. I love seeing the fellowship of families and individuals after Masses, as I typically cut in the front of the line to grab a cup o’ joe. One thing I want to encourage is for you to open up your hearts (and tables) to those who might be new. Or to see about joining a table with a new family who might not have met many other individuals or families yet. Many of you are very conscious of the need to “include” others, whether they’re new to the parish or have been long-time members. I love that we love each other. Let’s make sure that everyone feels that love, especially when they’re taking the step to join with others in fellowship. Thank you!

Men on Fire Retreat

The retreat is this coming Friday and Saturday in Mercy Hall. The speakers are Peter Herbeck and Bart Schuchts. I’m looking forward to having them both here. They’re “real” and wise about how to live life as “men on fire.” Join us if you’re able, and bring someone else along. The times are as follows: Friday, December 10, 6:30 pm – 8:30 pm and Saturday December 11, 10:30 am – 3 pm. Lunch and snacks will be provided. You can register on our website at corlansing.org, but even if you haven’t registered, come anyway. There’s room!

Come Encounter Jesus

Saturday, December 11th, we will have our next Healing Encounter. It is a time of praise, worship, prayer, and adoration from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the church. Prayer teams will be available to pray for healing and other requests afterward. Come, and invite someone to join you.

Next Sunday is Gaudete Sunday

The 11:30 a.m. Mass next Sunday will be celebrated in Latin. This is the Novus Ordo Mass, which is the “ordinary form” of the Mass, but it will be celebrated in Latin. Responses can be found in the St. Michael Hymnal beginning at page 12 and in the St. Isaac Jogues Missal at page 253 (the off-white pages). As I mentioned this past summer, we will celebrate one 11:30 a.m. Mass per month in Latin. It will typically be celebrated on the second Sunday of each month.

Communal Penance Service/Confessions

This week, we are reminded that St. John the Baptist called those who heard him to repentance, which was a way to prepare their hearts to receive Jesus and the Holy Spirit. Let us all see this holy season as an invitation from the Lord to prepare a way of the Lord in our own hearts. One way to prepare a way is to make a good confession. Next Sunday (12/12) afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Gerard, there will be our Advent Community Communal Penance Service. If that afternoon is not a good time for you, consider making a good confession during one of the opportunities we have regularly here at the Church of the Resurrection for the sacrament of reconciliation or at another area parish. See the bulletin for confession times.

Special Rorate Masses December 15th & 18th at 7:00 a.m.

Plan ahead to join us for one of two Rorate Masses. Next week on both Wednesday and Saturday morning at 7:00 a.m., we will celebrate special Rorate Masses by candlelight in addition to our normal 8:15 a.m. Masses.

The Rorate Caeli Mass is a traditional Advent devotion wherein the Mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary for Advent is offered just before dawn. The interplay of light and darkness speak to the meaning of Advent and the coming of the Light of the world.

The Mass takes its title, Rorate Caeli, from the first words of the Introit, which are from Isaiah 45:8: “Rorate, caeli, desuper, et nubes pluant justum, aperiatur terra, et germinet Salvatorem.” “Drop down dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the just: let the earth be opened and bud forth a Savior.”

The Rorate Mass is lit only by candlelight. Because it is a votive Mass in Mary’s honor, white vestments are worn instead of Advent violet. In the dimly lit setting, priests and faithful prepare to honor the Light of the world, Who is soon to be born, and offer praise to God for the gift of Our Lady. As the Mass proceeds and sunrise approaches, the church becomes progressively brighter, illumined by the sun as our Faith is illumined by Christ. The readings and prayers of the Mass foretell the prophecy of the Virgin who would bear a Son called Emmanuel, and call on all to raise the gates of their hearts and their societies to let Christ the King enter; asking for the grace to receive eternal life by the merits of the Incarnation and saving Resurrection of Our Lord.

With gratitude for Mary’s “yes” and the gift of her Son,

Father Steve

CHRISTMAS GIVING DONATIONS

As we prepare for the birth of Christ during this Advent season, let us remember those less fortunate. The Resurrection St. Vincent DePaul Society provides Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets to about 100 families in our community. In addition, we want to make sure that all the children in these families have a gift to open at Christmas. We are asking for you to consider bringing an unwrapped gift (for children up through 12 years of age) to church by Sunday Dec. 19 and place it near the Giving Tree.

We will be working with the Altar Society and Knights of Columbus who will be accepting gift cards for area teens (13 - 17 years) for the Giving Tree. Gift cards (fast food places or stores for teens) can be placed in an envelope from the tree and dropped off at the parish office by Dec. 19. (You may want to purchase them through the parish Scrip program.) The St. Vincent DePaul Society will distribute the gift cards along with the Christmas toys collected for children.

7th & 8th Grade Dance at Lansing Catholic High School

All Diocesan 7th and 8th graders are invited to the 7-8-9 Grade dance at Lansing Catholic High School on Saturday, January 8, 2022 from 7:30-10 p.m. Cost is $3 for 7th and 8th graders and you must bring a signed permission slip.

Contact Ms. DeVries at stacia.devries@lansingcatholic.org for a permission slip or if you have any questions.

Getting Clarity on the Mission

7 p.m. Dec. 13, 2021

St. Martha Parish, Okemos – church sanctuary

The Realigning Resources for Mission project has been reviewing how the resources of the Diocese of Lansing can be best used to better evangelize all those who live within the bounds of the diocese. Father John Riccardo, a powerful and sought-after speaker, will share how we can fire up our faith and be the evangelists God calls us to be.

Fr. John Riccardo was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Detroit in 1996. He is the Founder and Executive Director of ACTS XXIX, a non-profit apostolate that exists to help get God's world back by equipping clergy and lay leaders for the apostolic age in which we live. Fr. John served as a parish pastor for 15 years, most recently at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Plymouth, Michigan where he was witness to the power of the Holy Spirit in a way that caught the attention of pastors around the country.
