PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Sunday Excerpts

Last weekend, in my homily, I quoted from a spiritual commentary on the Gospel of Matthew by Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis. The book is entitled, Fire of Love: Heart of the Word, by Ignatius Press. This is the commentary on Matthew's parallel text to the Gospel from last Sunday. I trust that you will find them as challenging and edifying as I did:

"I have not come to bring peace upon the earth": peace is something that cannot be imposed from above, even by God. Peace must be the result of a process of purification and regeneration occurring interiorly within the heart and soul either of a person or of society. The "sword" that Jesus brings instead of worldly "peace" is a therapeutic weapon. This sword is none other than God's terrible and fiery Word, which Jesus personally is:

"The Word of God is alive and active. It cuts more keenly than any two-edged sword, piercing as far as the place where soul and spirit, joints and marrow, divide. It sifts the purposes and thoughts of the heart" (Heb 4:12). . . .

All of these passages indicate that Jesus did not come to bring comfort but life, and this by the infusion of his holy Word, whose work effects a thorough and therefore frightening interior transformation of everything it touches. To the dead, the infusion of vibrant life must feel like a merciless violence. We have here an experience of redemption that is not only spiritual but physiological, totally transformative of the whole man. It was for nothing else that the eternal Word of the Father took on flesh: it was for this that Jesus came into our midst. The healing he brings from his Father does not look or feel like the peace this world gives, and this is why his peace is compatible with tribulation, as he says in John (16:33).

Christ, the divine hero, comes at man brandishing the sword of God's Word. Christ's sword comes to destroy our illusions, our self-deceptions, and to open in our being a blessed wound that will be our clear window to truth and to love.

Another School Year Begins!

It's amazing, but this Tuesday will be the first day of school. As pastor of the Church of the Resurrection, I am excited about what God has in store for our parish, school, and community this year. Jacob Allstott, Chris Gates, and the wonderful team of teachers and staff members who make our Catholic school possible have been busily at work to prepare for another year of providing families an excellent Catholic school education here at Resurrection School. Please keep the faculty, staff, students, and families in prayer as we begin our new school year. Come, Holy Spirit!

With prayers for the new school year,

Fr. Steve

Volunteers needed for Ox Roast—The Ox Roast will be here September 9th – 11th. We would like you to realize that this is a parish event. Events as large as the Ox Roast need volunteers, "Many hands make light work". The Ox Roast has many areas to volunteer in and you will make friends with many people that you see every Sunday at Mass. If you are a parent of a student at Resurrection you can earn the service hours that you are asked to do, and at the same time show your children by example what chipping in and volunteering is about. If your children are older students they also need service hours. Please look over the email list below and consider helping out this year, most shifts are only 2 hours. Many of our volunteers are getting on in years and it would be nice to see the next generation step up,. Saying that, I would like to publicly thank our two newest committee members Angela Krause and Kathleen Sears. The pans for the Bake sale will be set out in the church starting August 27th. I hope to see all of you at the Ox Roast to help celebrate 100 years as a parish.

There are many areas to volunteer, please contact any of the people listed below if you have any questions. You can also contact the chairperson or co-chairperson if you have any questions.
