Women's Morning of Reflection (April 29)

The women of the parish are invited to a Women's Lenten Morning of Reflection next Saturday, April 29, from 9:00 a.m. to noon in Mercy Hall. Snacks and coffee will be provided. The morning will be led by Sr. Dorcee Clarey of the Servants of God's Love. Please register online using the link or by calling the parish office.

Formation Opportunities

For the next six Thursday evenings, you are invited to join others in watching and discussing an episode of Chosen from the first season. I very much encourage you to consider joining the others who will enjoy this dramatic representation of the ministry of the Lord.

Christ is Risen!

I have to say, one of my favorite resurrection accounts is the one in today's gospel, which is known as the Road to Emmaus. We see patterned in this account what happens every time we celebrate the Mass. We bring with us along the journey the burdens of our lives. For the two disciples it was their sadness over the death of Jesus. Without them recognizing Jesus, he accompanied them and engaged them in conversation about the various things that had occurred in Jerusalem, along with their hopes that Jesus had, in fact, been raised from the dead. Jesus then opened up the scriptures for them, outlining how they foretold his coming, his death, and his resurrection. Then they asked him to stay with them, and then he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them. And they recognized him in the breaking of the bread. This is what happens every time we celebrate the Mass. Like them, we are fed from the Table of the Word and from the Table of the Eucharist. Let us be open with the Lord about what is troubling us, and let him meet us where we are, to unfold the scriptures in prayer, and to feed us with himself. Come, Holy Spirit!

Super Raffle for Our School

Typically in November, we have a very successful fundraiser for the school. It's our annual auction event. Because of the 100th Anniversary Dinner, we postponed the fundraiser to the spring. We won't have our typical auction. We will just have class-level items for auction this year. But in a desire to help raise funds, the School Commission has decided to hold a Super Raffle. The drawing will be May 6. If you typically support the school at the auction, would you be willing to buy one (or more!) Super Raffle tickets? You can buy get more information about the event and to buy tickets online. Tickets will also be for sale Sunday mornings during coffee & donuts in future weeks.

Deaneries and Deans

This past week, along with others who have been asked to serve as Deans met with Bishop Boyea for some training about what the responsibilities and expectations are for them. Bishop Boyea sent out an email earlier this year announcing the following: Canon 555 of the Code of Canon Law lays out nicely the responsibilities for a dean:

- To promote and coordinate common pastoral activity
- To ensure that local clerics lead a life in keeping with their state
- To ensure that local clerics perform their duties diligently
- To ensure that religious functions are celebrated according to liturgical prescripts
- To ensure that the beauty and elegance of churches and sacred furnishings are maintained carefully, especially in the Eucharistic celebration and custody of the Eucharist
- To ensure that, according to particular law, clerics attend lectures, theological meetings, or conferences
- To take care that spiritual supports are available to presbyters of his district and to show concern for those who are in difficult circumstances or beset by problems.

Bishop has asked me to serve as one of the ten Deans, beginning in July. I will be Dean of the "Lansing Deanery," which will include the following groups:

- Lansing North: Church of the Resurrection, St Andrew Dung-Lac, St Mary Cathedral, and St Therese.
- East Lansing/Shiawassee: St Mary, Morrice and St Thomas Aquinas (includes St. John Church & Student Center, East Lansing)
- Eastern Ingham: St Martha's (Okemos) and St Mary's, Williamston

Please pray for me, the other nine deans, and the entire diocese as we anticipate this new structure, which will go into effect in July. I will of course continue in my role as pastor here. I think the Lord is going to bless this initiative, but I invite you to join me in calling on the Lord for His leading. Come, Holy Spirit!

With prayers for wisdom,

Father Steve

School Staff Changes for Next Year:

It has been a fantastic school year, and I am very grateful for the way our staff supports the students and parents in the school. In a particular way, I want to honor two of our teachers who are not returning to teach in the fall. One of them is Mr. Benjamin Stenlund who is stepping down from teaching Latin due to family obligations. I am extremely grateful that he was able to step into this position on short notice last summer. While, we will miss him in the staff capacity, we will continue to see him as a school parent. The other teacher is Mrs. Theresa McDowell. She is retiring after 10 years of teaching at Resurrection and 24 years of teaching in the Diocese of Lansing. Theresa was one of my first hires when I started at Resurrection, and she has been a faithful witness for our school. We will miss her in that role within our Resurrection family, but we are looking forward to seeing how the Lord blesses her plans for a new ministry within the Lansing area. Here is a short thank you and request for prayers from Mrs. McDowell.

"It is with sincere gratitude that I thank God for being able to be part of the Resurrection School family these last ten year. God has presently called me to a new ministry with the underserved and so I am retiring. It is bitter sweet for me; I am excited about starting a new chapter but will miss being at the school. I humbly ask for your prayers and be assured you will be in mine."

We also want to congratulate Mrs. Kenzie Smith who is due with her first child in late July. She is start the school year on maternity leave, so we currently have the 3rd grade, Latin, and 4th grade maternity leave positions posted on the Diocese of Lansing page. We will continue to accept applications through May 5th. Please invite anyone who is interested in teaching at Resurrection school to contact me via email or phone. < jallstott@corlansing.org > (517) 487-0439
