PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Mission Appeal

Thank you to all who gave last weekend to support the Archdiocese of Trivandrum in India. You can still give funds to support the Mission Appeal (either put a check or envelop with "Mission Appeal" in the offertory or give online). Checks should be written to the Church of the Resurrection with "Mission Appeal" in the memo line or on the envelope. It is good to support the work of the Universal Church each summer. Thank you for your generosity.

Reverence at Mass (Summer Attire Edition)

Last week, I posted this, and I'm doing so again, in case some of you missed the bulletin last week. As we enjoy summer, it is well, at this time of year, to remind everyone about the importance of dressing appropriately for Mass. Most especially on the weekends, shorts are not appropriate attire for worship. Ideally, we would never wear jeans either, in the summer or the rest of the year. Imagine that we are (for we ARE) coming into the presence of our Lord. What would we wear to meet Him and to receive Him "under our roof"? I'm confident that we would wear our "Sunday best" in order to honor Him. Let's encourage each other, and dress modestly and appropriately this summer. This is especially true of those who are exercising various ministries at Mass. Thank you.

New Deanery Structure Begins

Effective July 1, I became the "Dean" of the "Lansing Deanery," which covers the north part of Lansing extending east. Our Parish Group remains the same (St. Andrew Dung Lac, St. Mary Cathedral, St. Therese, , and Resurrection) and the deanery also includes two other groups: St. Thomas-St. Johns in East

Lansing, which is grouped with St. Mary's in Morrice and St. Martha's in Okemos, which is grouped with St. Mary's in Williamston. All the deans were asked to write an introduction. Here is an excerpt of what I wrote, in which I lay out my hopes for this new structure:

Beginning in 2019, I was privileged to serve along with thirteen others on the "Realigning Resources for Mission Committee." It was admittedly a long process, marked by significant prayer, consultation, and deliberation. And, though the committee's recommendations about parish structures were not ultimately accepted by the priests, I am grateful that Bishop Boyea has decided to establish deaneries. He invited me to serve as Dean of the Lansing Deanery, and I am pleased to say that our first meeting as a deanery confirmed me in my hope that this new structure will help us establish a season of strategic planning at the parish group and deanery levels.

It is clear to me that this shift will help parishes free themselves from the negative effects of parochialism. All too often, parishes believe they need to be "one stop shops." Such a belief is impractical for small and medium-sized parishes. Even for large parishes, it's inefficient. Collaboration and coordination can, and I believe will, help us make the most of the resources God has given us. That was the hope for the Realigning Resources for Mission Committee. I'm excited to see what will happen, and I ask all of us to pray for the priests, deacons, staff members, and parishioners as we strive to better form missionary disciples in the Lansing Deanery.

I am excited to see what the Lord will do for our parish and the Greater Lansing area as we strive to better form--individually as parishes, as parish groups, and as a deanery—missionary disciples who live as disciples and witness to the truth we find in Christ. Please pray for me, my fellow deans, and the pastors, priests, and staff, as we make initial plans to collaborate more effectively in coming months.

With prayers for wisdom,

Fr. Steve
