PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Ox Roast Volunteers

As we anticipate the Ox Roast festival, please consider volunteering for a shift or more. We see this as an outreach to our community, a celebration of our parish, and a fundraiser. This year, we're hoping that people from our geographic parish will come to join us, and people who have historic connections to the parish do so as well. We hope to have an online sign-up set up. For now, though, you can contact the various co-chairs for the Ox Roast Committee to volunteer. Thanks in advance for giving some time in service to the community and our parish.

“The Weight of Glory”

I concluded the Sunday Masses with a quote from C.S. Lewis's great essay “The Weight of Glory.” I've shared this before, but here is the section I quoted:

Meanwhile the cross comes before the crown and tomorrow is a Monday morning. A cleft has opened in the pitiless walls of the world, and we are invited to follow our great Captain inside. The following Him is, of course, the essential point. That being so, it may be asked what practical use there is in the speculations which I have been indulging. I can think of at least one such use. It may be possible for each to think too much of his own potential glory hereafter; it is hardly possible for him to think too often or too deeply about that of his neighbor. The load, or weight, or burden of my neighbor's glory should be laid on my back, a load so heavy that only humility can carry it, and the backs of the proud will be broken. It is a serious thing to live in a society of possible gods and goddesses, to remember that the dullest and most uninteresting person you can talk to may one day be a creature which, if you saw it now, you would be strongly tempted to worship, or else a horror and a corruption such as you now meet, if at all, only in a nightmare. All day long we are, in some degree, helping each other to one or other of these destinations. It is in the light of these overwhelming possibilities, it is with the awe and the circumspection proper to them, that we should conduct all our dealings with one another, all friendships, all loves, all play, all politics. There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, arts, civilizations—these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub, and exploit—immortal horrors or everlasting splendors. This does not mean that we are to be perpetually solemn. We must play. But our merriment must be of that kind (and it is, in fact, the merriest kind) which exists between people who have, from the outset, taken each other seriously—no flippancy, no superiority, no presumption. And our charity must be a real and costly love, with deep feeling for the sins in spite of which we love the sinner—no mere tolerance, or indulgence which parodies love as flippancy parodies merriment. Next to the Blessed Sacrament itself, your neighbor is the holiest object presented to your senses. If he is your Christian neighbor, he is holy in almost the same way, for in him also Christ . . . the glorifier and the glorified, Glory Himself, is truly hidden.

BBQ with Bishop

Brothers, if you're curious about the priesthood and you're a junior in high school or older, please consider joining me, my brother priests, and Bishop Boyea next Sunday, August 20. Beginning at 4:00 p.m. at Bethany House in DeWitt, there will be a meal and time for fellowship and prayer for those young men (and even those not so young) who are curious about seminary and/or feel a call from the Lord to give their lives in service to the Lord. If you have questions, please contact me. Or you can go to the diocesan website and RSVP (<https://2023bishoppriesthood.eventbee.com>).

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Tuesday, August 15, is a Solemnity and Holy Day of Obligation. We will have a Vigil Mass at 6:30 p.m. on Monday and two Masses on Tuesday, one at 8:15 a.m. and the other at Noon. May we see in our Blessed Mother's Assumption our own promise of resurrection and life with God. Amen!

With gratitude for Mary's Assumption,

Fr. Steve Mattson

Summer Office Hours

Beginning June 5th, our parish office summer hours are Tuesday through Thursday, 8am-12pm and 12:30pm-4:30pm. Our office is closed on Mondays and Fridays.

Hello Parents,

I pray that all of you are still enjoying your summer break. I pray that it has been a time of rest and renewal, and that all the families are looking forward to the start of school.

School families are invited to attend the 9:00 AM Mass next weekend (August 20th) for a special blessing of our students. Homeschool families are also welcome to join in this special blessing at the 9:00 AM Mass. Both school and homeschool families are also welcome to have their students receive a special blessing at the 11:00 AM Mass, but the Resurrection school staff will attend the 9:00 AM Mass and be in their classrooms to meet with parents and students after the 9:00 AM Mass. So feel free to attend either blessing with your students. However, reconnecting with other school families at coffee and donuts and meeting the teachers might be difficult if your family is trying to make the 11:00 AM Mass.

There are three primary goals for this event. First, we can benefit from the grace of a special blessing! Second, we want the students to be familiar with their new classroom and their new teacher(s) on the first day of school. The first day can sometimes be intimidating, but the Blessing of Backpacks is great way to help students prepare for the first day back. The third goal is to make packing up for the first day of school easier by allowing parents to bring all those back to school supplies in on Sunday.

Jacob Allstott

A TEACHING SERIES

FORMATION COURSES at

COURSE 8 | ON HOPE

In the modern world, many are tempted to despair by the circumstances of life or eke out lives of quiet desolation. How can we retain our hope when everything around us seems to be dragging us down? This short formation course explores: the theological virtue of hope; despair and presumption, the two sins against hope; and how we can hold onto hope in adversity.

Ox Roast Miscellaneous Raffle

In September we will be celebrating our 88th Ox Roast Festival. We are looking for donated items for the Miscellaneous Raffle. Those items could include electronics, kitchen appliances, household items, outdoor items, children's toys/games, gift cards, etc.

The items must be new. Minimum value $25, please.

Donated items may be dropped off at the parish office, or contact Don Gardner 517 648-3218 or Cindi Currie 517 485- 5886.

All items must be dropped off by Thursday, August 31.

The Diocese of Lansing will be holding the 23rd Knights' Family Night to Celebrate Vocations during a baseball game at Jackson Field in Lansing! This year's event will be Friday August 18th. The game will feature the Lansing Lugnuts vs. the Great Lakes Loons. This will be a very fun event that has been designed for the entire family. It will be attended by some 2,000 Catholics from all over the Lansing Diocese, our seminarians, dozens of priests, deacons, and sisters, and the Knights of Columbus. Please show your support by ordering game tickets ($13 each) and join your fellow Resurrection parishioners at the game. Donations will also be accepted to bring children from Holy Cross Children's Services, St Louis Center, and St. Vincent Home for Children to the game. Resurrection Knights of Columbus purchased 60 tickets to be sold on a first come, first served basis. Contact Bill Currie at 485-5886 or curriewmm@aol.com to order tickets. Make checks payable to "K of C Council #11099", with "Lugnuts tickets" on the memo line.
