PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

The Healing Power of the Spirit

When I preached to the priests on retreat, I quoted this section from Fr. Wilfrid Stinissen's book Into Your Hands, Father: Abandoning Ourselves to the God Who Loves Us. I offer it to us all for our prayerful meditation. It is, truly, transformative.

It is characteristic of the Spirit to place everything in a larger context. He reveals that the Father was present in all that you experienced in your life. What looked so terrible and caused such pain was in reality not so bad. ". . . In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them. . . . He lifted them up and carried them all the days of old" (Is 63:9). God carried you when you thought that you were faltering; he surrounded you with his love when you felt you were abandoned. The Spirit helps you to see the whole of reality and not just a small fragment. It is possible that you were not welcome when you were born into this cold world, but God has welcomed you. "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you" (Jer 1:5); ". . . borne by me from your birth, carried from the womb" (Is 46:3). Perhaps your mother did not have time for you when you were small. Perhaps you felt abandoned by her. Maybe you were harassed in school, or you are simply so sensitive and vulnerable that what is insignificant to others caused deep wounds in you. But now, in the light of the Spirit, you understand that you were never really left alone. "I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire, you shall not be burned; the flame shall not consume you. . . . Fear not, for I am with you" (Is 43:1-2, 5). "I am with you." He can truly say this, for he has gone through all of it himself. He has experienced the indifference, hardness, and cruelty of mankind. He has suffered through all your anguish, loneliness, and despair. Everything that wounds you has wounded him first. He has freely taken all of it upon himself, so that you should never have to say that you are alone. You can never say to him: "You do not know what this is, you do not know what you are speaking about." Yes, he knows. He has already suffered everything. All fear, loneliness, and disappointment have been gathered together in him. It has received a positive stamp by the fact that he has gone through it. Every time a painful memory comes back, you can, so to speak, welcome it in Jesus name. All your memories are also his memories, and your wounds are his wounds. (pp. 39-40). Ignatius Press. Kindle Edition.

BBQ with Bishop

Brothers, if you're curious about the priesthood and you're a junior in high school or older, please consider joining me, my brother priests, and Bishop Boyea next Sunday, August 20. Beginning at 4:00 p.m. at Bethany House in DeWitt, there will be a meal and time for fellowship and prayer for those young men (and even those not so young) who are curious about seminary and/or feel a call from the Lord to give their lives in service to the Lord. If you have questions, please contact me. Or you can go to the diocesan website and RSVP (<https://2023bishoppriesthood.eventbee.com>).

Ox Roast Volunteers

As we anticipate the Ox Roast festival, please consider volunteering for a shift or more. We see this as an outreach to our community, a celebration of our parish, and a fundraiser. This year, we're hoping that people from our geographic parish will come to join us, and people who have historic connections to the parish do so as well. We hope to have an online sign-up set up. For now, though, you can contact the various co-chairs for the Ox Roast Committee to volunteer. Thanks in advance for giving some time in service to the community and our parish.

Another School Year Begins!

It's amazing, but this Tuesday will be the first day of school. As pastor of the Church of the Resurrection, I am excited about what God has in store for our parish, school, and community this year. Jacob Allstott, Chris Gates, and the wonderful team of teachers and staff members who make our Catholic school possible have been busily at work to prepare for another year of providing families an excellent Catholic school education here at Resurrection School. Please keep the faculty, staff, students, and families in prayer as we begin our new school year. Come, Holy Spirit!

With prayers for the new school year,

Fr. Steve

A TEACHING SERIES

FORMATION COURSES at

COURSE 8 | ON HOPE

In the modern world, many are tempted to despair by the circumstances of life or eke out lives of quiet desolation. How can we retain our hope when everything around us seems to be dragging us down? This short formation course explores: the theological virtue of hope; despair and presumption, the two sins against hope; and how we can hold onto hope in adversity.
