PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Safe Haven Sunday

Today is "Safe Haven Sunday." From the Covenant Eyes website:

What is Safe Haven Sunday?

Inspired by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) formal statement, Create in Me a Clean Heart: A Pastoral Response to Pornography, Safe Haven Sunday is a weekend set aside within the liturgical calendar by dioceses and parishes to directly address the societal harms of pornography. Within the context of the Mass, parishes are able to provide teaching and resources that will support and protect individuals, marriages, and families in making all homes a safe haven.

At the exits, you'll find a copy of a book written by Covenant Eyes, entitled Equipped: Smart Catholic Parenting in a Sexualized Culture. I'm grateful for the work of the diocesan offices and the US bishops for promoting this effort. Let's pray for all those who live in the "online world," that they will use all resources wisely and well.

Quotes about Humility

In addition to citing I Peter 5:5-11 and James 4:5-10, last Sunday I quoted from C.S. Lewis and St. Thomas Aquinas on humility. I offer the quotes for your reflection:

To even get near [humility], even for a moment, is like a drink of cold water to a man in a desert. Do not imagine that if you meet a really humble man he will be what most people call "humble" nowadays: he will not be a sort of greasy, smarmy person, who is always telling you that, of course, he is nobody. Probably all you will think about him is that he seemed a cheerful, intelligent chap who took a real interest in what you said to him. If you do dislike him it will be because you feel a little envious of anyone who seems to enjoy life so easily. He will not be thinking about humility: he will not be thinking about himself at all.

*If anyone would like to acquire humility, I can, I think, tell him the first step. The first step is to realize that one is proud. And a biggish step, too. At least, nothing whatever can be done before it. If you think you are not conceited, it means you are very conceited indeed. (C.S. Lewis, Mere Christianity, from the chapter "The Great Sin")*

St. Thomas Aquinas says "the virtue of humility consists in keeping oneself within one's own bounds, not reaching out to things above one, but submitting to one's superior."

Rosary Congress (Prayer Vigil, October 11-12)

The yearly Rosary Congress will happen at our parish this coming Wednesday evening following the 6:00 p.m. Mass, running through the night with Benediction at 7:30 a.m. Thursday October 12th. The Rosary Congress is a prayerful vigil with the Rosary being prayed each hour on the hour through the night. Please sign-up on our website (look for "Adoration") to pray an hour for the Church and our parish. It is particularly fitting during the Synod on Synodality. The Blessed Virgin Mary said that the last conflict would be over marriage and family, which seem fairly evident when we look at the cultural challenges of our day. That makes this a vital time to seek her intercession.

St. Jude: Apostle of the Impossible (October 12)

One of the Church's most beloved saints, Saint Jude, is the one to whom people turn when they are desperate and have tried everything else. When things seem lost or unbearable—when they seem hopeless—Saint Jude is the one to whom people often turn. Come and experience his transformative presence. Come and see what he has for you. The tour features other churches in Michigan, but the closest to us is October 12 at St. Thomas Aquinas. The timeline of the veneration is as follows:

- Public veneration of Saint Jude Relics begins: 1:00 PM
- Special Mass celebrated in Saint Jude's honor: 7:00 PM
- Public veneration ends: 10:00 PM

Mass for Victims of Domestic Abuse (October 14)

Mass for victims of abuse. Abuse occurs in many forms to both men and women. A Mass for healing will be held at St. Mary Cathedral on Saturday, October 14, at 9:00 a.m. Let us keep all of those who suffer from abuse in our prayers, and for the abusers themselves, that they will all seek the Lord's healing graces.

Healing Encounter (October 14)

This coming Saturday evening, we will have our bi-monthly Healing Encounter, which is a time of praise, adoration, and prayer for healing. It includes a testimony, brief reflection, and opportunity for individual prayer ministry and confession. Join us if you're able!

With gratitude for these opportunities for prayer and growth,

Rosary Rally at Michigan's State Capitol
on Friday, October 13 at 3:00 pm

We invite you to join us for our last Rosary Rally of the year at our Lansing State Capitol. This has been organized by a group of Catholics committed to praying publicly for our state and nation on the 13th of each month, May through October, the dates of Our Lady's Fatima Apparitions. Please join us on Friday, October 13, 3:00 pm (anniversary of the Miracle of the Sun) in front of the steps at the Michigan State Capitol building in Lansing where we will be led in prayer for our state and nation. It will last about an hour. Please bring chairs, water and your rosary.

A public square rosary rally is a time to give witness to people of all races and beliefs, keep polarizing politics out, and focus on prayer to unite our nation. If you are interested in helping with this campaign or have any questions, please reach out to Sandra Sherwood at ejsherwood@charter.net.
