PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Christmas Mass Schedule

Christmas Eve Mass:
5:00pm

Vigil Mass: Music to begin at 11:30pm with Mass beginning at 11:59pm

Christmas Day Mass:
9:00am

Happy New Year!

As we celebrate the new (liturgical) year and begin our Advent journey, I hope and pray that all of our hearts will be filled with joyful anticipation of Christ's three-fold coming: 1) His coming as a baby, the "Newborn King"; 2) His coming again in Glory; and 3) His coming into our hearts.

Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Friday, December 8 is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and is a Holy Day of Obligation. We will have three Masses to celebrate the Immaculate Conception, a Vigil Mass at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, and two Masses on Friday, one at 8:15 a.m. and the other at Noon. Exposition will begin after the 12:00 Noon mass, and conclude with Benediction at 6:30 p.m., as usual. Confessions will be 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Some Changes to Our Celebration of Mass

Our Worship & Liturgy Commission met in October, and we discussed a few matters pertaining to the celebration of Mass, and how we can include more sacred silence in the context of the Mass as well as a revised end-of-Mass sequence. I have asked the musicians to allow some silence prior to the prayer after communion at every Mass, so that the faithful can make a prayerful thanksgiving to God. At some Masses, there might be a post-communion meditation that would follow a sustained period of silence, as often happens at the 11:00 a.m. Mass, but at every Mass, we want to ensure there is more sacred silence within the Mass. This might take some getting used to, but I think it will help us be more prayerful at Mass.

End-of-Mass Sequence

At Masses here currently, the sequence at the end of Mass has been: final blessing, the priest reverences the altar and exits the sanctuary, genuflection, proclamation of the Last Gospel, the St. Michael Prayer, then a recessional (often, but not always, the proper Marian Antiphon for the season). We are going to change that sequence slightly, and invite the faithful to sing the proper Marian Antiphon right after the final blessing, while the servers leave the sanctuary and the priest reverences the altar and exits the sanctuary. After the Antiphon, the priest will proclaim the Last Gospel, pray the St. Michael prayer. After that, we will sing a recessional hymn, except in the Lenten Season, when we will depart in silence.

Marian Antiphons

The Marian Antiphons are traditionally sung after Night Prayer. As outlined above, we are going to sing them after the final blessing, prior to the proclamation of the Last Gospel and praying the St. Michael Prayer. The traditional times for singing the various Marian hymns is as follows: 1) Alma Redemptoris Mater (Loving Mother of the Redeemer) begins after Evening Prayer I of Advent Sunday through the Feast of the Presentation.

2) Ave Regina Caelorum begins after Evening Prayer I on February 1 if February 2 (the Feast of the Presentation) falls on a Sunday. If February 2 does not fall on a Sunday, we begin singing Ave Regina Caelorum (Hail, Queen of Heaven) on February 2, and this song is sung through Lent.

3) The switch to Regina Caeli (Queen of Heaven) begins after the Easter Vigil.

4) Salve Regina (Hail Holy Queen) begins with Night Prayer after Evening Prayer II on Pentecost.

These four Marian hymns are beautiful reflections on the grace and gift of our redeemer, whose advent we begin to prepare for (again) today. May we be drawn into the mystery by the prayerfulness of the Mother of the Redeemed, the Blessed Virgin Mary. May we honor her well, and learn these beautiful hymns the Church gives us.

Taking the "Generosity Challenge"

In the pews, you should still be able to find a card that I encourage everyone to pray about, fill out, and put in the offertory or drop it by the office. (You could also do so online.) What I'm inviting us each to do is to look at our giving from this past year, and then pray. After prayer, please make a commitment to an amount that you are hoping to be able to give in 2024 in support of our ministry, as a response of faith and obedience to the Lord. One way to fulfill this commitment is to enroll in online giving, which is the easiest way to ensure that you are fulfilling your commitment. That way, when a parishioner is away, the parish continues to receive support. As we anticipate the next year, even if you are unable to make a change (or feel the need to decrease your giving), it would be helpful to have you fill out the card or fill out the form online. Thank you!

Advent Resources

Feel free to get one of the Magnificat Advent Companions, which should be available at the exits. Grab a copy for yourself, and feel free to get one for someone else who might be interested.

Are You Ready? He's Coming!

The Lord is someday (perhaps soon) coming again. Indeed, Advent means "coming." Today, Jesus warns us to "Be watchful! Be alert!" as we anticipate His return. He invites us to travel this journey with joy. May you and your family know the love, joy, and peace of the Lord this Advent.

Eagerly waiting and watching with you,

Father Steve

Author Talk & Book Signing:
Preparing for Christmas with Our Lady of Guadalupe

This Dec. 12 -- the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe -- join nationally acclaimed Catholic writer and speaker Meg Hunter-Kilmer as she reflects on how Mary walks with us through Advent. This event is open to all ages, with a light reception to follow, along with the chance to buy Meg's books and have them signed. (They make perfect Christmas gifts!) The talk will begin at 7 p.m. in Mercy Hall.

Meg Hunter-Kilmer is a missionary and storyteller who travels the world telling people about the fierce and tender love of God. She holds two degrees in theology from the University of Notre Dame, is a Fellow of the Sullivan Family Saints Initiative in the McGrath Institute for Church Life, and has written one book about Scripture (A Year In The Word Catholic Bible Journal) and two books about the Saints (Saints Around the World and Pray for Us: 75 Saints who Sinned, Suffered, and Struggled on Their Way to Holiness).

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Did You Know? The second tallest building in Washington, D.C., at 329 feet, is the Knight's Tower at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Only the Washington Monument is taller. The Knights of Columbus erected the tower and the carillon of bells in 1963. A $1 million memorial fund was established to promote Marian devotion at the Shrine and to preserve the Shrine in perpetuity.

If you are interested in joining the Knights of Columbus or would like information, contact Bill Currie (517-485-5886 or curriewmm@aol.com).
