Merry Christmas (almost)!

We celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent and then we're right into the Christmas Eve Celebration. As I mentioned last weekend in the bulletin, the Sunday and Christmas Mass obligations are a bit complicate, because Christmas is on a Monday this year. The long-and-short of it is that you need to go to Mass twice to fulfill your obligations. We will have a Christmas Vigil Mass at 5:00 p.m. on December 24th, Mass at Midnight with music beginning at 11:30 p.m., then, on Christmas morning, we will have one Mass at 9:00 a.m. Please note that Mass at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday the 24th can fulfill either the 4th Sunday obligation or the Christmas obligation, but not both.

Merry Christmas!

May you and all those you love experience joy and peace in this holy season, and know the love of God made flesh in Baby Jesus. At the various exits, you will find copies of a book of reflections called Signposts, written by Sean O'Neill. You can use that for individual reflection or in a group context. There are also copies of Beautiful Eucharist, from Dynamic Catholic. We also have available the most recent copy of Resurrection Magazine. Please take copies and share them with others, as well.

Welcome!

At this joyful time of year, many people feel drawn to church. It is the Lord's love drawing us to the vulnerable Baby Jesus, who came among us as a sign of God's humility and love for us. If you're visiting or it has been a long time since you have been here, we're glad you're here! For whatever reason you came, thanks for joining us. We want you to feel welcome, and we very much desire to support you (and your family) in any ways we can. We are honored to have you with us.

Why We're Here . . .

The Church of the Resurrection is committed to spreading the Good News in word and deed, living our faith in authentic ways, and supporting families (i.e., helping each other and our family members get to heaven). Mission-Focused, Authentically Catholic, and Supportive of Families are our parish "Core Values." Those values inform and shape our life and ministry as a parish, school, and community. We're glad you're here.

Thank You!

Thanks to all who work so hard to make our celebration of Christmas so joy-filled. We rejoice that the organ was back in the church for this celebration. I am grateful to David Stattelmann for his work with the choir, for Guine Norman's work with the schola, and for all the accompanists, cantors, and servers. Behind the scenes, the Altar Society have worked tirelessly to prepare and maintain our church for worship, for which I am very grateful. Finally, I want to thank the tremendous staff at the parish for their great labors for all of us and those we serve. Resurrection School is a great gift to us and our community, and I thank Jacob Allstott, our school principal, Chris Gates, our assistant principal, Judie Mirabelli-Migaldi, who directs our pre-school program, and all those who collaborate to make our school such a great place for learning and growing in faith. Thanks for your generous support of our parish and school staff, and the financial and volunteer help you offer in so many ways. To all of you, including the vital lay faithful of the parish, I say, "Thank you and God bless you!" As I anticipate the new civil year, I call to mind God's goodness to me. Among the greatest gifts to me is being pastor of this great parish. Thank you for your partnership in ministry. I'm very excited about what God has in store for us in 2023. Come, Holy Spirit!

Special Event: Twelfth Night

On January 6, we have planned a parish cultural event, which we hope to have on an annual basis, called the Twelfth Night Celebration. Doors will open at 6:00 p.m. and the program will begin at 7:00 p.m. It's a celebration of the great gift of Christ's manifestation at Christmas and Epiphany. We had a great time last year, and we hope that even more of us can join us this year. Mercy Hall will be decked out as something resembling a pub(!). Adults in the parish and friends are invited to join us for an evening of songs, music, and poetry that will inspire and entertain in equal measure. The Twelfth Night has been a traditional celebration since before medieval times, particularly in Europe, and involves the consumption of abundant food and drink as well as performances to honor the birth of our Savior. You can sign-up to join us on our website. Space is limited, so register early. I hope to see you there!

New Year's Mass Schedule

Next Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Family, Sunday within the Octave of Christmas. The next day, January 1 is the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. Like last weekend, we need to go to Mass twice. We will have our normal Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass, and Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Sunday evening, we will celebrate two Vigil Masses, one at 5:00 p.m. and one at 10:30 p.m., which will be followed by a time of adoration and Benediction just prior to Midnight. On New Year's Day, we will have one Mass at 11:00 a.m. (NB: Please note that Mass at 5:00 p.m. or 10:30 p.m. on Sunday the 24th can fulfill either the 4th Sunday obligation or the Christmas obligation, but not both.) If you are traveling, may you enjoy the protection of your guardian angels, and have a joyous celebration with your family and friends.

Rejoicing that the Lord is (nearly) here,

Father Steve

Did You Know?

The Knights of Columbus has placed over 750 ultrasound machines in pro-life pregnancy centers, allowing expectant mothers a window to the womb, and helping them to choose life for their babies. Local councils must raise half the cost of the ultrasound machine and Supreme Council will match it. There have been over 80 ultrasound machines given out in Michigan. Msgr. Gabriels Council has contributed to the purchase of two of these.

If you are interested in joining the Knights of Columbus or would like information, contact Bill Currie (517-485-5886 or curriewmm@aol.com).

SCRIP News:

Heads up for January! Since it is historically a slower month for sales, we will only have one sale on January 17. You can purchase electronic cards throughout the month. Let me know if you need help getting that set up.

If you need Kroger, Soup Spoon or Apple Market cards, please plan ahead since those are not available online.
