PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

John Paul II Healing Center Retreat

As I mentioned in the bulletin last weekend, I am on retreat this week, assisting as chaplain for a priest's retreat entitled "Holy Desire." As is always the case, the teaching, fellowship, and times of prayer have been very rich and fruitful. It never ceases to amaze me how the Holy Spirit works to bring healing to our hearts. I'm struck by the broken hearts of the priests here, who, like myself, benefit greatly from the vulnerability of honest self-reflection, of pulling back the protective walls to allow our hearts to be pierced by the love of God and of our Mother Mary. Please pray for the priests and for me, and for the John Paul II Healing Center staff, that we will continue to be open to the Lord's leading, to allow our hearts to be healed so that we can more effectively be healers of souls in the Healer of Souls, who is the Lord. Come, Holy Spirit!

Lord, Heal Our Land

This Monday, as our nation takes a day to honor Martin Luther King, Jr., let us pray for continued healing of the wounds of racism in our nation, state, and community. The Lord invites us to love one another, and the historical and cultural divides are ones the evil one longs to exploit. May we be men and women who speak and act for the promotion of equity and justice in our Land. Clearly, this past year has proven to expose dark impulses of prejudice, scapegoating, and demonization, and we are called, as Christians, to provide to a power-obsessed world, a different way forward. For us, guided by prayerful reflection, we need to see as God sees, to hear as God hears, and to love as God loves. That will, if we let it, lead us all(!) to acknowledge our own sins and to extend to one another (to everyone) mercy and grace. We must show that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ, and are not, and never have been, rivals for power or privilege or prestige. We, after the pattern of our Lord, should strive to be the servant of all, focusing on those who are suffering the most. Let us pray that we will be agents of mercy, grace, healing, and forgiveness. The world needs the Christian path to follow. May we be witnesses to a world that is fixated on power.

Thank you!

I could easily offer a long list of "thank yous" each week in my bulletin because of all the wonderful things that so many of you are doing week-in and week-out for our parish, school, and community. First of all, thank you for all the generous gifts that people gave to me and the parish and school staff this Christmas. Your kind words and thoughtful gifts encourage us. Thank you. All the many gifts are part of the legacy of "family" and "service" that have marked the Church of the Resurrection and Resurrection School for nearly a century. Everything the Lord has done in and through our parish has been made possible by the generous investment of time, talent, and treasure from parishioners like you. In particular, I am grateful for the donations of time, talent, and treasure that have made possible the improvements and renovations to the New Life Center and our new office. Many donors and servants, with gifts of time, material, talent, and finances great and small have helped us transform a place of hopelessness and darkness into one in which healing, hope, and light are found. Thank you!

"Ordinary Time"

Today, we celebrate the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. There is nothing "ordinary" or "plain" about "ordinary time." The name stems from the word ordinal, meaning "numbered." The Latin for this liturgical period, which makes up the majority of our Liturgical Year, is Tempus Per Annum, which means "time throughout the year." We do have special seasons during the year, but every Sunday of Ordinary Time is a day of obligation. We have an extraordinary opportunity to experience God's redemptive love for us when we gather together as a community of faith at Mass. Each and every time we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we recall Christ's Incarnation, His Death, His Resurrection, His Ascension, and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us for the forgiveness of sins. So, because the time we spend at Mass is anything but ordinary (after all, the Sacrifice of Christ on Calvary is made present, and Heaven comes to earth!), it is essential that we come each week (or even more often) to celebrate the Mass, to remember how extraordinary our life is in Christ.

May God heal all our hearts,

Father Steve

Hello Resurrection Parish!

Did you know we have a parish library with over a thousand Catholic and other inspirational books in it? It's located in our parish office and is ready for you to come peruse the books you probably won't find in your local public library. Topics include:

- Sacraments
- Call to Holiness
- Prayer
- Men's & Women's Spirituality
- Reproduction
- Lives of the Saints
- Vocations
- Mary
- Conversion Stories
- Evangelization
- Healing
- Marriage
- Miracles
- Early Church History
- Theology
- Bible Studies
- Christology
- Church Fathers
- Scripture
- Liturgy

We also have a selection of DVDs and some children's books available. The library is open during regular parish hours and we've put a user-friendly self-checkout system in place. We are not accepting donations at this time due to space limitations.

If you have any questions or suggestions, email me at cluea@corlansing.org.

Pancake
 Breakfast

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Msgr. Gabriels Knights of Columbus Council invites you to a pancake breakfast in Mercy Hall on Sunday, January 21, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. Resurrection School 8th graders will be working the breakfast to earn money toward the 8th grade field trip. Suggested donation is $6/person and $20/family. You can pay by cash, check or card swipe.

Did You Know? The Knights of Columbus teams up with disabled athletes from around the world. In the last five years brother Knights have contributed over $21 million to Special Olympics. Knights do more than donate money. Many attend the competition to provide helping hands and encouraging words. To the delight of many of the athletes the Fourth Degree Honor Guard will participate in opening ceremonies for the competition.

If you are interested in joining the Knights of Columbus or would like information, contact Bill Currie (517-485-5886 or curriewmm@aol.com).
