Happy New Year!

As we celebrate the new (liturgical) year and begin our Advent journey, I hope and pray that all of our hearts will be filled with joyful anticipation of Christ's three-fold coming: 1) His coming as a baby, the "Newborn King"; 2) His coming again in Glory; and 3) His coming into our hearts. Each day of Advent, let us prepare for His coming by inviting Him into our hearts, so that our hearts might be filled with love, joy, and peace.

The Heavenly Liturgy

When we come to Mass, we are invited into a tremendous mystery, a holy and awe-inspiring entry into the heavenly realms. In the Sacred Liturgy, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, heaven, as it were, comes to earth. The more our celebration of the Mass can be beautiful, reverent, and mysterious, the more we (and our children) will sense that the Mass is anything but "ordinary." Especially in this Holy Season, we will seek to focus on sacred silence and a more simple musical setting at Mass. The point is to be drawn into mystery when we celebrate the Mass. Consider, in this context, the vision of heaven John describes in the Book of Revelation:

Then I saw standing in the midst of the throne and the four living creatures and the elders, a Lamb that seemed to have been slain . . . He came and received the scroll from the right hand of the one who sat on the throne. When he took it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each of the elders held a harp and gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of the holy ones. They sang a new hymn: "Worthy are you to receive the scroll and to break open its seals, for you were slain and with your blood you purchased for God those from every tribe and tongue, people and nation. You made them a kingdom and priests for our God, and they will reign on earth." I looked again and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: "To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped. (Revelation 5:6-14)

Renovation Updates

I mentioned as we drew to the close of the liturgical year, when we were reading from the Book of Revelation, that the church, now that we have renovated it, feels more like a "house of prayer" than ever before. At least for me. But perhaps that's true of you, as well. I can't wait until the project gets closer to its culmination. We look forward to the Reredos being installed, as soon as this week, with the icons painted in such a way that they point beyond themselves to the heavenly liturgy and recall the scene of redemption, on calvary. A few weeks ago, the crucifix was cleaned and painted, as were the Stations of the Cross. We won't have the altar, the ambo, or the alter of repose installed until after the New Year. But, step-by-step, we are witnessing increased beauty. I hope that for you, as they have for me, these changes will bring you closer to the One who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Jesus is the one we come to worship and receive, and He offers us Himself. He came among us as a baby, and showed us through His life, words, and witness what obedience and love look like. He ultimately offered up Himself for us, so that through His sacrifice we might become sons and daughters of God and receive the grace to become saints in Him. This Advent, let us draw close to the Lord, surrounded by beauty, to receive love and give it away. Come, Lord Jesus, Come!

Thank you!

We Americans just took time to celebrate Thanksgiving, and I hope and pray that you and your family and friends enjoyed a time of fellowship. It is indeed always well to count our blessings, and I thank God for the gift of being Pastor of the Church of the Resurrection. I'm grateful for the wonderful staff we have at the parish, school, and daycare. Thank you!

Are You Ready? He's Coming!

The Lord is someday (perhaps soon) coming again. Indeed, Advent means "coming." Today, Jesus warns us to "Be watchful! Be alert!" as we anticipate His return. He invites us to travel this journey with joy. May you and your family know the love, joy, and peace of the Lord this Advent.

Eagerly waiting and watching with you, the truth to all. May we strive to imitate him by putting you first in all we do. Give us the courage,
