Solemnity of St. Joseph, Husband of Mary

This coming Wednesday, March 19th, with all the Church, we celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Husband of Mary. It's a time to thank God for St. Joseph, and to look to him for his intercession for us, for our families, and for the Church as a whole. We will have Mass at 8:15 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. to celebrate the Solemnity. Join us if you're able! May all fathers look to Joseph and all of us give thanks to him for the love he showed to Jesus and Mary.

Diocesan Services Appeal

Thank you to all who have already made their pledge to the 2025 Diocesan Services Appeal. This year our goal is a bit more than $117,000. As I have said in past years, I am hopeful that some of us who are able to give generously will do so, to help us make our goal. I would love, in order to show support for Bishop Boyea and his great staff, to have a very high percentage of families/households donate, even if the amount of the gift is not very large. The fact of our giving donations, even if the amounts vary, is a sign of our support. Please prayerfully discern your gift. You can fill out the form online or drop the envelope in the offertory. Thank you!

Spiritual Warfare

Last Sunday, we read, as we do every year, the account (this time from Luke) of the Temptation of the Lord. The Devil tempted Jesus, and the devil and/or demons tempts us. Of course, the flesh and the world play their parts, as well! Let us be wise to the machinations of the enemy. C.S. Lewis, whom I quoted from, in his The Screwtape Letters (a satirical book filled with letters from a senior to a junior devil), writes the following at the end of Chapter 12:

You will say that these are very small sins; and doubtless, like all young tempters, you are anxious to be able to report spectacular wickedness. But do remember, the only thing that matters is the extent to which you separate the man from the Enemy. It does not matter how small the sins are provided that their cumulative effect is to edge the man away from the Light and out into the Nothing. Murder is no better than cards if cards can do the trick. Indeed the safest road to Hell is the gradual one—the gentle slope, soft underfoot, without sudden turnings, without milestones, without signposts, Your affectionate uncle, SCREWTAPE.

Wounds/Lies and the Truth

The enemy delights in getting us to believe lies about ourselves, about others, and about the Lord. The handouts at the exits include these very powerful prayers. Each of the prayers is powerful, and, as I mentioned at Mass, praying them out loud is more effective than doing so interiorly. Three of them, Rejection, Fear, and Hopelessness, seem to be particularly common and powerful. I commend these prayers to your prayerful reflection:

Rejection: In the name of Jesus Christ, I renounce the lie that I am unloved and unlovable. I renounce the lie that I am not wanted, not desired and not good enough. In Jesus name, I announce the Truth that by virtue of my baptism I am a beloved son/daughter of the Father. I announce the Truth that he loves me so much that Jesus gave his life for me, and that there is no greater love possible (Jn. 15). I announce the Truth that the Love of God has been poured out into my heart through the Holy Spirit. I announce the Truth that I am loved and valued, wanted and desired, and that I am precious in the Father's eyes.

Fear: In the name of Jesus Christ, I renounce the lie that if I trust I will be hurt, disappointed or die. In the name of Jesus I renounce all fear, anxiety, mistrust and distrust. I renounce the lie that I am not safe and not protected. And I announce the Truth that God is my rock, my fortress, my deliverer and my protector (see Ps 23, 27, 91). I announce the Truth that God's perfect love casts out all fear (1 Jn. 4:18). I announce the Truth that I am safe and secure.

Hopelessness: In the name of Jesus Christ, I renounce the lie that nothing ever changes and I will never have what I want. I renounce the lie that my life is meaningless and that I have nothing to live for. In Jesus' name, I announce the Truth that my hope is steadfast in Christ, and that He makes all things new (Rev. 21:5). I announce the Truth that because my hope is in Christ I will not be disappointed (Rom. 5:5); I announce the Truth that 'I am being transformed from glory to glory into the image of Christ' (2 Co. 3:18); that God is at work in me, and what he begins he will bring to completion (Php. 1:6). Therefore I am filled with hope in the good things to come.

Days Away

I'll be gone this week and next weekend. Be assured of my prayers for you and yours. Please pray for me, as well. Thank you. (Masses will be as usual, except the added Mass for the Solemnity of St. Joseph at 8:15 a.m. in addition to the regular 6:00 p.m. Mass).

With gratitude for St. Patrick and St. Joseph,

Father Steve

Resurrection Young Families & Couples - Stations of the Cross March 28, 2025 5:15pm in the Church

Prayer Saves Lives

In early February, a woman approached 40 Days for Life prayer vigil participants outside Planned Parenthood in Lansing to effusively thank them for their prayer and presence. Years earlier, she had driven to PP to have an abortion, but the presence of people praying changed her mind. Her son, in the back seat of the car, is now eight years old and the joy of her life. Join us during the Spring Campaign as we expand our vigil hours outside Frandor from 7:00am—6:00pm from March 5-April 13. For more information, contact Brent at 517-894-4334 or 40daysforlife.com.

Pancake Breakfast

The Knights will provide a pancake breakfast on Sunday, March 23rd from 10:00am to 1:00pm. This is a free will donation with the profits going to the 8th grade students for their class trip. We hope to see you!

Knights of Columbus Euchre Tournament

The Knights of Columbus at Resurrection will be holding a Euchre tournament on Wednesday, March 19th at 6:00pm in Mercy Hall. Each player will pay $5 to enter. A portion of the door will be donated to the Sisters at Resurrection and the remainder will be awarded as prize money. We are limiting the amount of players to 32 for this tournament. The Knights will supply pop, plates and eating utensils. We ask players to bring a small dish to pass. To RSVP please contact John Gordon at 517-290-3955 by calling or texting.

Resurrection's Children's Market

Resurrection Church will be hosting a Children's Market on April 12th from 10:00am—12:00pm. We want to encourage entrepreneurship in our children and provide an opportunity to use their time and talents to produce valuable items which are beautiful, tasty and/or useful. The goal is for our children to learn how to have a small business, how to set up, display and promote a product, how to handle business transactions, and how to assess expenses versus income.
