PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Habemus Papam(?)

I am writing this article on Wednesday, May 7, the day the Cardinal Electors entered into the Papal Conclave to discern and elect the next successor of St. Peter. I expect that by now a successor has been named, but perhaps we are still in the period of prayer for them as they continue to discern who would best follow Pope Francis. I share the conviction of those who said prior to the conclave, "We don't need a quick conclave; we need a holy and wise and effective pope. Take all the time you need!" So, whether there is a new pope or we are still waiting, let us pray! Come, Holy Spirit, renew the Church! Come!

Congratulations to those who made their First Communion

Yesterday morning (Saturday), I had the privilege of celebrating the First Holy Communion Mass for members of our parish and school. It was, as always, a great joy to be able to offer Jesus to children who have been looking forward to this day for a very long time. Please pray for them and for their families, that they might continue to grow in their love of Jesus and their desire for and openness to the graces of the Blessed Sacrament. Thanks to Sr. Theresita, Marianne Vasievich and her CGS team, and Debbie McPherson, who help with the preparation and formation of the students.

Honoring Our High School Seniors

Next Sunday, May 18th at the 9:00 a.m. Mass, we will honor graduating seniors. We congratulate them on their accomplishment and prayerfully wish them well in their future endeavors. Seniors, may each of you know the love that God, your family and our parish have for you, and be assured of our ongoing prayers as you take your next steps. May you each come to know the power of Christ's love for you and the plan He has for you, plans filled with hope and a future (cf. Jeremiah 29:11). Please let us know if you (or your son or daughter) will join us for the celebration. We will reserve spots for graduates up front at that Mass. Please contact the parish office to RSVP by Monday May 12th. Thank you.

Good Shepherd Sunday

This, the fourth Sunday of Easter, is Good Shepherd Sunday. Each year, we read from John 10. A few years ago, I read this at Masses. Take some time to reflect on this beautiful reflection in light of Jesus being the "Good Shepherd."

A most remarkable thing is the sympathy that exists between a shepherd and his flock. He never drives them as our own shepherds drive their sheep. He always walks at their head, leading them along the roads and over the hills to new pasture: and, as he goes, he sometimes talks to them in a loud sing-song voice, using weird language unlike anything I have ever heard in my life.

The first time I heard sheep and goat language I was on the hills at the back of Jericho. A goat-herder had descended into a valley and was mounting the slope of an opposite hill when, turning round he saw his goats had remained behind to devour a rich patch of scrub . . . It was uncanny because there was nothing human about it. The words were animal sounds arranged in a kind of order. No sooner had he spoken than an answering bleat shivered over the herd, and one or two of the animals turned their heads in his direction. But they did not obey him. The goat-herd then called out one word and gave a laughing kind of whinny. Immediately a goat with a bell around his neck stopped eating and, leaving the herd, trotted down the hill, across the valley and up the opposite slopes. The man, accompanied by this animal, walked on and disappeared round a ledge of rock. Very soon a panic spread among the herd. They forgot to eat. They looked up for the shepherd. He was not to be seen. They became conscious that the leader with the bell at his neck was no longer with them. From the distance came the strange laughing call of the shepherd, and at the sound of it the entire herd stampeded into the hollow and leapt up the hill after him.

. . . . Early one morning I saw an extraordinary sight not far from Bethlehem. Two shepherds had evidently spent the night with their flocks in a cave. The sheep were all mixed together and the time had come for the shepherds to go in different directions. One of the shepherds stood some distance from the sheep and began to call. First, one, then another, then four or five animals ran towards him; and so on until he had counted his whole flock.

More interesting than the sight of this was the knowledge that Jesus must have seen exactly the same sight and described it in His own word:

"He called his own sheep by name, and led them out. . . . I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep and mine know me." (H. V. Morton, In the Steps of the Master, p. 154).

May our Holy Father live and love as the Good Shepherd does,

Father Steve
