It's Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit!

Today, we pray for the Holy Spirit to come . . . fill the hearts of the faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love . . . Just what we've been praying, for years. As I've said more than a few times over the past years, "Come, Holy Spirit" is a prayer that the Holy Spirit can't resist. He comes! May we be those who open our hearts to receive with an open heart, mind, and will the power of the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit Changes Everything

Our Catholic faith teaches us that the Holy Spirit changes everything, at least those "things" that are willing to be changed (including us)! Countless men and women (boys and girls) have experienced the transformational change that the Lord offers us through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. St. Ignatius of Laodicea drafted these powerful words, which struck me the first time I heard them, and impress me still:

WITHOUT THE HOLY SPIRIT, God is distant, Christ stays in the past, the Gospel is a dead letter, the Church is simply an organization, authority a matter of domination, mission a matter of propaganda, the liturgical services no more than a reminder of the past, Christian living a slave morality.

BUT WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT, God is with us, the universe is resurrected and groans with the birth pangs of the kingdom, the risen Christ is here, the Gospel is the power of life, the Church is the organism, the Body of the living Christ, authority is service, mission is Pentecost, the liturgy is both memorial and anticipation, human action is God at work in this world.

Take some time this coming week to muse about why St. Ignatius would say such wondrous things about the Holy Spirit's effects in our world, hearts, and lives.

40 Hours Devotion (Adoration)

Throughout the diocese, deaneries have arranged for times at every parish to spend in adoration. Our parish time for the 40 hours is this coming week, beginning at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, June 12, and will run through 7:30 a.m. Saturday, June 14. You can sign-up for an hour (or more) of adoration on our website. We would love to have at least two people for each hour of adoration. (The Blessed Sacrament, of course, will be reposited for Mass times, and exposed afterward.)

Feast of Corpus Christi Mass & Procession with Bishop Boyea

Bishop Earl Boyea invites you to join him and clergy from around the Diocese on June 21 at 10:00am for Mass at Jackson Field (home of the Lansing Lugnuts) and will then lead a procession with the Blessed Sacrament from Jackson Field to the steps of the State Capitol (0.5 miles). The procession will conclude on the Capitol Lawn with benediction. Food trucks will be nearby for those who would like to stay and eat after the event. You can RSVP that you will attend the mass at the dedicated website for this event: (eucharisticjourney.org).

Priestly Ordinations

Please keep the seven transitional deacons in your prayers, as they anticipate their priestly ordinations next Saturday, June 14, at St. Thomas Aquinas. The diocese is blessed to have men discerning the priesthood, and I invite you to support our parish seminarians and also to encourage men you know and love to prayerfully discern whether they might be called to the priesthood. If any of you is wondering about what the priesthood is like, I would be happy to speak with you (without any pressure, of course) and could put you in touch with discernment groups and potentially a discernment retreat in August. Thanks to all of you for fostering vocations to the priesthood. And, please do pray for the soon-to-be priests. Come, Holy Spirit!

Healing Encounter

Our bimonthly Healing Encounter will be held next Saturday (June 14). Encounter will be held in the church beginning at 7:00 p.m. It will be an evening of adoration and prayers for healing. We should be finished up around 8:30. Confession and prayer ministry will be available afterward.

With gratitude for the gift of the Holy Spirit,

Father Steve
