Some Time Away

When you read this, I'll be up in "God's Country," also known as Keweenaw. I'm in Copper Harbor, which, as I have said more than once, is in a metaphorical way my personal "Bethany," a place I go to get renewed in spirit, soul, and body. I'm heading there again to enjoy tech-free beauty and renewal. Please pray for me as I take time away. Be assured of my prayers for you. I'll be offering Mass each day at the chapel in Copper Harbor (Our Lady of the Pines).

Thank you!

As you may have seen in last week's bulletin, we ended the year just over our budget for offertory support of the parish. Thank you all for your response to the call to support the parish, and for those who made a special gift to help us finish the year strong. Thanks also to all those who, after prayer, have committed to increasing your support of the parish. I'm excited about the next year, as we strive to help each other utilize our time and talents to better meet the needs of those in the household of faith and also those in our midst who are in need. Come, Holy Spirit!

Two Discernment Opportunities

Next month, a Men's Discernment Retreat for young men ages 16-25 will be offered at St. Francis Retreat Center from 4:00 p.m., August 12 to 11:00 a.m., August 14. The suggested donation is $200, but scholarships are available. You can register or get more information at the retreat website (stfrancis.ws/discernment):

This retreat is a chance for men to learn more about the discernment process and meet men who are already in formation, ask questions about the life and ministry of a priest, and provides an opportunity to experience the camaraderie of other discerners.

- Fr. Mike Cassar and Fr. Ryan Riley will provide direction on the discernment process, give their reflections on the priesthood, and answer questions.
- Small group discussions will be led by priests of the Diocese of Lansing. Daily Mass and the opportunity for Confession and Adoration will be offered.
- Rooms are private with a shared bathroom. The weekend includes Tuesday dinner - Thursday breakfast.

Bishop's Discernment Talk & Dinner (August 17)

For those young men who are high school juniors or above, I invite you to join Bishop Boyea, priests of the Diocese of Lansing, seminarians, and other young men who are wondering if the Lord might be calling them to the Priesthood. The social gathering, talk, and dinner will be held at St. Francis Retreat Center in DeWitt on Sunday, August 17, 2025. You will hear an informative talk on discerning the priesthood and what seminary formation is about, followed by a Q & A session and a BBQ dinner. Check-in will start at 4:00 PM at St. Francis Retreat Center, dismissal by 6:30pm. You can get more information and register at the diocesan website.

Surrendering and Suffering to Gain Christ

Last weekend, we hear this wonderful (and puzzling) text from St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians:

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory. (Col. 1:24-27).

St. Paul rejoices in his sufferings, because as he joins them to the suffering of Christ, the Lord is at work in and through him on behalf of the Church. The goal of all his strivings and those of Christ is our salvation, the mystery of which, he continues is "Christ in you, the hope for glory." Your suffering and mine, and the suffering of those we love—when it is united to that of Christ—is redemptive; salvific. Such "embraced suffering" has a transformative effect in ways that we can only rarely see here below. When Judgment Day comes, we will see how all our suffering has contributed to the redemptive work of Jesus. St. Paul, who suffered much, offers us a glimpse of our future glory. Because he can see clearly the spiritual realities of this life, he wrote this letter to the Colossians, which addresses the mystery of suffering.

I know well that many of you are suffering very much indeed and/or are concerned about loved ones who are suffering very much indeed. The Lord invites you and me, and all those who suffer, to take advantage of the suffering, and, as St. Paul does, to view suffering through the lens of God's love. Our suffering (as we are able and willing to accept it) is a way for each of us to become more like Christ and for us to "fill up what is lacking in Christ's sufferings" for the sake of the Church, just as St. Paul did. As we suffer, we can be tempted to numb the pain or reject the goodness of God. But, what's better is to strive, prayerfully and obediently, to join our sufferings to his. One day, we will see just what God accomplished because we chose to suffer through, with, and in Him.

With prayers to suffer well in Christ,

Father Steve

Attention all Lovers of the Good Shepherd

If you love children and the Good Shepherd, pray about offering two hours a week to assist in a holy work at Resurrection School where the children meet the Good Shepherd through Liturgy and Scripture. No prior experience is needed; we will train you. The rewards you'll receive are heavenly. If you hear the promptings of the Holy Spirit for this work, please email Marianne Vasievich at mvasievich@corlansing.org. God bless you always.
