PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Dedication of St. John Lateran

Today, we celebrate the Dedication of St. John Lateran, which is one of the four major basilicas in Rome. We celebrate the Feast Day because it falls on Sunday this year. The same happened last week with All Souls Day, and on September 14 with the Exaltation of the Cross. St. John Lateran is the cathedral church of the Archdiocese of Rome, and we celebrate its dedication. Here's a bit of history taken from vaticannews.va:

When the Emperor Constantine granted full liberty to Christians in 313, they did not spare in order to construct places for the Lord – numerous are the churches constructed at that time. Constantine himself also constructed churches, one of which was a magnificent basilica on the Caelian Hill in Rome, over the ancient Lateran Palace, which Pope Sylvester I dedicated to Christ the Savior (318 or 324). A chapel dedicated to Saint John the Baptist was built inside it which served as the baptistry. This moved Pope Sergius III to dedicate it to Saint John the Baptist as well. Lastly, Pope Lucius II also dedicated it to Saint John the Evangelist in the 12th century. Thus, the name of this Papal Basilica is the Basilica of the Most Holy Savior and of Saints John the Baptist and John the Evangelist in the Lateran. Christians consider the Basilica to be the mother church of all churches in the world.

The church was destroyed several times in the course of the centuries, and always rebuilt. The final reconstruction took place under the pontificate of Benedict XIII. The church was rededicated in 1724. It was at that time that the feast celebrated today was established and extended to the universal Church.

One of the beautiful aspects of St. John Lateran is its impressive exterior baptistry, which is an octagonal building outside the basilica, which dates from the fifth century.

Chili Cook-off & Open Mic Night (11/15)

Next Saturday, November 15, after the evening Mass, join us in Mercy Hall for a Chili Cook-off, food and drink, and an evening of live entertainment. We are grateful to be able to offer events like this, and encourage you to come, spend time together, and enjoy the fellowship of our parish community.

Stewardship for Saints and Scholars (S3)

Thank you to all who have already prayed about their gift and those who have made a gift/pledge to the campaign. I've made a gift/pledge myself, and would be happy to answer any questions any of you might have about the campaign, its purposes and goals, and our part in the campaign. As I've mentioned before, I don't want anyone to feel coerced into giving, but I do invite all of us to prayerfully consider the goals of the campaign, and follow the Lord's leading with regard to a potential gift. As I've mentioned before, the letter from the bishop with a particular amount that you are being asked to give is an aspirational amount, rather than an expectation. Some will be able (and choose) to give that amount, some may discern that they are called to give less. Some may feel called to give more than the amount requested. A few of you have already told me that you (and your families) are unable to give or pledge anything more than your committed giving at this time. Be assured of this: I respect your discernment. I simply merely ask everyone to prayerfully consider the elements of the campaign, and then respond to the Lord's leading. (Thanks in advance!) Should you not have received a letter, you can get a pledge card from Sarah Michaels at the parish office. One final note: If you haven't seen the video for the S3 campaign yet, it's quite good. You can find it (and even make an online pledge) at the campaign website (stewardshipforsaintsandscholars.com).

S3 Campaign Prayer

At the end of the campaign video, students from a diversity of Catholic schools in the diocese, prayed the campaign prayer. It's a worthy cause, and I invite others to join me in praying this prayer:

*Lord, everything we have is a gift from you.
You call us to receive your gifts with thanks, to develop these gifts fully, and to share them generously. Through the Stewardship for Saints and Scholars campaign help every young person in the Diocese of Lansing see your truth, beauty, and goodness;
help families to raise their children in the Faith;
and help parishes make a truly
Catholic education available to all.
May the work of this campaign bear abundant fruit in the Saints and Scholars you are raising up for the future.
We ask these blessings through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

With gratitude for our Catholic schools,

Fr. Steve
