Priest Discernment Retreat (August 4-6, 2026)

This retreat, which runs from Tuesday, August 4 at dinner through Thursday morning, August 6, is a chance for men to learn more about the discernment process and meet men who are already in priestly formation, ask questions about the life and ministry of a priest, and provide an opportunity to experience the camaraderie of other discerners. Fr. Mike Cassar, Director of Seminarians, and Fr. Ryan Riley, Pastor of St. Martha's in Okemos, will provide direction on the discernment process, give their reflections on the priesthood, and answer questions. Small group discussions will be led by priests of the Diocese of Lansing. Daily Mass and the opportunity for Confession and Adoration will be offered. Rooms are private with a shared bathroom. The suggested donation is $100, but SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE. If interested, please contact the Diocesan Vocation Office at 517-342-2507. You can also register online at the diocesan website.

We invite you to participate in a special discernment opportunity on Sunday, August 16, 2026, for an informative talk on discerning the priesthood and, what seminary formation is about, followed by a Q & A session with priests and seminarians, and a BBQ dinner. Check-in will start at 4:00 PM at St. Francis Retreat Center, dismissal by 6:30pm. Cost is free. If you are under 18 years of age, a permission/health form must be submitted to your parish. If you have any questions or want to make an appointment to discuss your discernment, please contact Fr. Mike Cassar at mcassar@dioceseoflansing.org or his office 517-342-2507. Blessings During Communion? (Repeated from last week)

As you are likely aware, I (like many other priests and bishops) give blessings for children too young to receive as well as others not in full communion or not a position to receive. This practice is not, however, foreseen in the rubrics of the Mass. I have long wondered whether the practice is prudent. Admittedly, especially at funerals and weddings, I have invited those who are not of Catholic faith or not in a state of grace to come forward to receive a blessing instead of receiving communion. But, after Pope Leo's Wednesday Audience on May 27, 2026, where he made the following comments, I find myself questioning the practice.

Here's what Pope Leo wrote:

The Council Magisterium . . . thus calls for the avoidance of confusion amongst the faithful, discouraging anyone from adding, removing or altering anything in liturgical matters on their own initiative (cf. Sacrosanctum Concilium, 22) . . . I therefore urge all those called to prepare the celebration of the divine mysteries, in particular priests who exercise the ministry of liturgical presidency, to always uphold that respect for the texts and regulations of the liturgy which springs from an inner attitude of openness and trust in God, manifesting humility before His greatness and sincere fidelity to ecclesial communion.

After prayerful reflection, my sense is that I should refrain from giving blessings to children and others who are unable to receive communion. As I prayed and mused about this, I couldn't help but imagine the practice grew out of a desire not to have anyone feel excluded or left out. But Communion is not primarily about our subjective feelings; it is rather about a sacramental reality. As for blessings, everyone will receive a blessing at the end of Mass. The blessing-as-alternative-to-communion is not part of the rubrics for the Communion Rite, even if it has become customary in many places. The practice of giving blessings during communion has had a life of its own, in which even EMHCs feel bound to give what might be called quasi-blessings. But, even if EMHCs say, “May God bless you,” which is a great prayer, it's not the time for such prayers. It's the time for communion. I will be talking about this and explaining the procedure moving forward in coming weeks. Please pray for me, as I navigate this change, as well as those who may feel hurt or “left out” after this change is made. Come, Holy Spirit! I know that this will be confusing to especially (but not only) children, so I invite parents to remind children that they will receive a blessing at the end of Mass, and that they will one day be able to receive communion like their parents and older brothers and sisters. Thank you!

With prayers for wisdom,

Father Steve

St. Vincent de Paul, Church of the Resurrection Chapter*Serving neighbors in need with dignity, faith, and loveThank you

Thank you, Resurrection parishioners, for supporting what we do at St. Vincent de Paul Society - Resurrection Chapter! It is your generosity that enables us to assist our neighbors in need.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international Catholic lay organization dedicated to serving the poor and suffering through person-to-person support. In the Lansing area, local chapters (or conferences) provide critical emergency aid such as food, clothing, housing costs, and furniture.

The Beginnings of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In 1833, Frederic Ozanam and five fellow college students met and founded a group that later became the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The group's purpose was to assist the poor during the political, social, religious, and economic turmoil of early 19th century France. This Catholic lay organization was intended to help its members increase in holiness by providing loving service to those in need. In 1845, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul established roots in the United States.

St. Vincent de Paul at Resurrection Church

The Resurrection SVdP Chapter has been around since the late 1950s, serving families in the geographic area surrounding the parish. We are staffed by volunteers (and will welcome new volunteers!). We offer support for the neighbors in our area, including bags of food each month for those who request it. We also provide non-food assistance in the form of vouchers for clothing, furniture, and household goods from the SVdP thrift store on South Washington Avenue. We also provide financial assistance, sometimes partnering with other SVdP chapters, for rent and other needs. Included here is the information about who we served for the first half of the year. We can only do this because of your generosity of cash donations and through your participation in the Meijer Simply Give card program. Thank you!
