PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Ox Roast Preparations (and Volunteers)

The 91st Ox Roast Festival will be held Friday and Saturday, September 18 and 19. We're looking forward to hosting our neighbors and friends that weekend. As you know, we can only put the event on because of the volunteer efforts of parishioners like you and me. I'm grateful for the faithful service of the Ox Roast Committee, chaired by Joel Stanewich. They put in tremendous efforts to plan the event, as well as serving at the weekend itself. They'd love to have you join them in various capacities. You can go to our website to sign-up for timeslots for service.

"Run Before the Roast" 5k

The first event of our celebration of 100 years of Catholic Schooling is coming up soon. This year, we're hosting the "Run Before the Roast" 5k. It will be 9:30 a.m. on Saturday of the Ox Roast (September 19). You (or a runner you know) can get information about the run and register for the race at our website.

Interested in learning more about the Catholic Church (OCIA)?

Each fall, as we begin a new season of learning, we also begin programming for those who are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. This year, Greg Ingle will be teaching classes for adults as well as high school students who are interested in learning more and potentially becoming Catholics at the Easter Vigil in the spring. Details about the OCIA class times will be finalized soon, but the plan at this point is to meet on Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. (OCIA stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults.) You can email Greg Ingle by email at RCIA@corlansing.org. Feel free to call the parish office for more information (517.482.4749), and ask for Debbie McPherson who is the office contact for OCIA this year.

Simon Peter's Profession of Faith

Last week in the Gospel, Jesus asked the question of questions: "Who do you say that I am"? Each of us needs to answer that question at some point. One of the reasons we are here is to help people ask and answer that question. Let's all pray that we will all, through opportunities for formation come to know Jesus and His healing love for us, in a personal way. Peter gets it right: Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God. Amen!

Authority in the Church

As I mentioned last week, I am including a couple of paragraphs from the Catechism of the Catholic Church on the authority that the Lord gave St. Peter and his successors. I offer it to you for your reflection. Authority is a gift from God, and we do well to strive to honor and obey the proper authorities in our lives, while prayerfully discerning times when we might need to appeal decisions that our leaders make (in the Church and in the world).

552 Simon Peter holds the first place in the college of the Twelve; 283 Jesus entrusted a unique mission to him. Through a revelation from the Father, Peter had confessed: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Our Lord then declared to him: "You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it." 284 Christ, the "living stone," 285 thus assures his Church, built on Peter, of victory over the powers of death. Because of the faith he confessed Peter will remain the unshakeable rock of the Church. His mission will be to keep this faith from every lapse and to strengthen his brothers in it. 286

553 Jesus entrusted a specific authority to Peter: "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." 287 The "power of the keys" designates authority to govern the house of God, which is the Church. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, confirmed this mandate after his Resurrection: "Feed my sheep." 288 The power to "bind and loose" connotes the authority to absolve sins, to pronounce doctrinal judgments, and to make disciplinary decisions in the Church. Jesus entrusted this authority to the Church through the ministry of the apostles 289 and in particular through the ministry of Peter, the only one to whom he specifically entrusted the keys of the kingdom. 283 Cf. Mk 3:16; 9:2; Lk 24:34; 1 Cor 15:5. 284 Mt 16:18. 285 1 Pet 2:4. 286 Cf. Lk 22:32. 287 Mt 16:19. 288 Jn 21:15-17; cf. 10:11. 289 Cf. Mt 18:18.

Crosses—freely taken up

This Sunday, Jesus gives a difficult word to St. Peter (and to each and every one of us): "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." It's a challenging word, but thankfully, the Lord Himself invites us also to come to Him when we are burdened and heavy-laden. He is walking by our side, always, and invites us to share our hearts with Him, as He shares His heart with us.

With prayers that we will daily take up our crosses and follow Jesus,

Fr. Steve

Resurrection Adult Choir 2026-2027 Season

The Resurrection adult choir will begin its 2026-2027 season beginning with our first rehearsal on Wednesday September 9th and will begin singing at mass on September 13th. The choir is always looking for new and committed members to join us as we explore the vast treasures of music written for the liturgy. The choir meets each Wednesday from 7:00 to 8:30 pm for our weekly rehearsal and on Sundays at 10:15 am for a quick warm up before we sing the 11:00 am Mass. Our mission is to glorify God and lead the assembled community in full, conscious, and active participation in the liturgy through sacred music.

Participation in the choir does include a real time commitment but the rewards you will feel being part of a dedicated ensemble are invaluable. In a culture where community is hard to find, the choir represents a tight group of individuals who band together each week to learn music from the chant of the early church to the most contemporary composers. As an ensemble we learn the practice of good choral singing, from sight reading musical notation to the subtle intricacies of performance practice. The range of experience within the choir is widespread so even if you worry that you might not be able to read music, this is an opportunity to learn.

If you are ready and willing to start with us, please contact me, David Stattelmann, at dstattelmann@corlansing.org, or contact the church office and leave us your information and I will be in touch. This is an auditioned ensemble, meaning I will want to hear you sing beforehand; however, this does not need to be intimidating and is a very simple process.

Memorial Service for Aborted Children

On Saturday, September 12th, pro-life Americans throughout the country will gather at the gravesites of aborted babies and other memorial sites dedicated in their honor for the 14th annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children. Please join us on Saturday, September 12th for a 9 am Mass followed by a rosary procession. This will take place at the St. Joseph Cemetery Mausoleum at 2520 W. Willow St. in Lansing. For more information, contact Chris V. at 517-528-8502. Together let us remember the victims of abortion and pray for an end to this injustice in our land.
