Ox Roast is Here!

The 91st Ox Roast Festival will be held this coming Friday and Saturday, September 18 and 19. We're looking forward to hosting our neighbors and friends that weekend. As you know, we can only put the event on because of the volunteer efforts of parishioners like you and me. I'm grateful for the faithful service of the Ox Roast Committee, chaired by Joel Stanewich. They put in tremendous efforts to plan the event, as well as serving at the weekend itself. They'd love to have you join them in various capacities. You can go to our website to sign-up for timeslots for service.

"Navigating Us" (Formerly "Adventures in Marriage")

I am excited that we are able to offer to married couples in the parish this great program of marriage enrichment, which is filled with very practical helps to living marriage well. During this four-week program, spouses will discover better ways to:

- Meet needs
- Communicate
- Resolve conflict
- Express anger and avoid "dirty fighting"
- Understand how your personality styles impact your marriage.

This program is as applicable to couples who have just been married as those who have been married for half a century. It's excellent material. You can find out more information, including quotes from parishioners who attended last year, and register for the course on our website. The cost is $100 per couple, but the parish will help with scholarships for those who have need. Let's pray for all our married couples, that they will live the covenant well, inspired by the Spirit and guided by principles and practices that foster communication and love.

Interested in learning more about the Catholic Church (OCIA)?

Each fall, as we begin a new season of learning, we also begin programming for those who are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. This year, Greg Ingle will be teaching classes for adults as well as high school students who are interested in learning more and potentially becoming Catholics at the Easter Vigil in the spring. Details about the OCIA class times will be finalized soon, but the plan at this point is to meet on Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. (OCIA stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults.) You can email Debbie McPherson by email at dmcperson@corlansing.org. Feel free to call the parish office for more information (517.482.4749), and ask for Debbie McPherson who is the office contact for OCIA.

Forgiveness

This week in the Gospel, Jesus talks about the necessity of forgiveness. That's a challenge for some of us, especially when we've been repeatedly (and/or deeply) hurt. The power of forgiveness is in what it offers both parties. It offers mercy to the offender and peace interiorly to the one who forgives. Many of you have seen this "forgiveness process" on the perennial handouts, but I offer it to you for your reflection. The handouts are at the various exits for you to work through the prayers should you so desire. The prayer teams are happy to pray with you through this process, as well. You can make an appointment online.

Forgiveness Process (JP II Healing Center)

1. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you who you need to forgive (could be family, friend, abuser, God, yourself).
2. Picture the person in front of you and pay attention to what you feel.
3. Make an account of the debt they owe you. (What did they take from you, how did they hurt you? It is okay to feel angry.).
4. Speak to that person aloud telling them what they did to hurt you and how it has affected you.
5. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal to you what you believe about yourself based on that incident (the identity lie).
6. Renounce the identity lie.
7. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal the judgments you hold towards the person who hurt you.
8. Renounce the judgments.
9. Are there any inner vows you have made as a result of this hurt? Renounce those inner vows now.
10. Pray a short prayer asking Jesus to forgive the person.
11. Forgive the person.
12. Pray a prayer of blessing over that person, asking God to bless them in the opposite way to the way they hurt you.
13. Is there an unhealthy soul tie with the person you have just forgiven? Break the soul tie.
14. Ask Jesus to seal this forgiveness and heal the wounds
15. Thank the Lord for the grace of forgiveness.

You can find the handouts for this and the prayers referenced at the various exits. Let's look for ways to become freer by forgiving. And pray for each other, that we would all choose to forgive as we have been forgiven. Come, Holy Spirit!

With prayers for the grace to forgive,

Fr. Steve

As we continue to celebrate our country's 250th anniversary, we will have retired Rear Admiral Thomas Kendziorski as our keynote speaker. Admiral Kendziorski, a brother knight, will offer his advice for living a life of service and patriotism guided by our Catholic faith. We'll conclude the event by praying the rosary together on the lawn of the State Capitol. During the rosary, our Fourth Degree Honor Guard will line up to form the shape of a rosary as we pray. It's beautiful! This is a great event and a fantastic opportunity to publicly witness to our faith. We hope you'll join us!
