PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Thank you!

Thanks to all of you who worked so hard to help us pull off another successful Ox Roast Festival. This tradition is a gift to the East Side of Lansing, and I'm grateful for this outreach to our community. So many people look forward to gathering together each year to catch up, spend time together, and enjoy fellowship and good food. Thanks to the Ox Roast Committee, which, if I haven't missed anyone, is comprised of the following: Joel Stanewich, Mary Stanewich, Marisol Hennig, Mickie Kreft, John Gordon, Dan Fell, Joni Guenther, Angela O'Neel, Angela Krause, Kevin Krause, Ed Rivet, Cindi Currie, Russ Pate, Marcia Pate, Loren DeYoung, Janice Harvey, Jake Stoll, George Repovz, Dee Webb, Tara Marchese, and Sean Riley. Thanks to them for making it happen. Thanks also to those of you who volunteered and those who attended the event. Finally, thanks to the team that pulled together the "Run before the Roast," which might (who knows?) become an Ox Roast tradition.

Server Training (September 26)

The next training session for servers will be Saturday morning September 26 after the 8:15 a.m. Mass. This training is non-Resurrection School boys who are ten years or older or will turn ten this academic year (fifth grade and older boys in the school who have not been trained may also attend). Please contact Sarah Michaels at the parish office if your boy(s) are planning to attend or are interested in serving but are unable to attend that training session.

Forgiveness Handout

I neglected to have the handouts available at the various exits last weekend, which I announced in the bulletin. They are now there for your reference. As I said last week in my homily up in Copper Harbor, forgiveness is non-optional. If we won't forgive, we can't go to heaven. It's that simple. Experiencing the Mercy of God and His Love for us makes it possible for us to love as God loves and be merciful as He is merciful. To hold on to resentment leads to bitterness, which blocks the work of the Spirit. Let us let the love of God into our hearts so that we can forgive as we've been forgiven. Amen! Come, Holy Spirit!

"Navigating US" (Formerly "Adventures in Marriage")

I am excited that we are able to offer to married couples in the parish this great program of marriage enrichment, which is filled with very practical helps to living marriage well. During this four-week program, spouses will discover better ways to:

- Meet needs

- Communicate
- Resolve conflict
- Express anger and avoid "dirty fighting"
- Understand how your personality styles impact your marriage.

This program is as applicable to couples who have just been married as those who have been married for half a century. It's excellent material. You can find out more information, including quotes from parishioners who attended last year, and register for the course on our website. The cost is $100 per couple, but the parish will help with scholarships for those who have need. Let's pray for all our married couples, that they will live the covenant well, inspired by the Spirit and guided by principles and practices that foster communication and love.

Interested in learning more about the Catholic Church (OCIA)?

Each fall, as we begin a new season of learning, we also begin programming for those who are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. This year, Greg Ingle will be teaching classes for adults as well as high school students who are interested in learning more and potentially becoming Catholics at the Easter Vigil in the spring. Details about the OCIA class times will be finalized soon, but the plan at this point is to meet on Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. (OCIA stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults.) You can email Debbie McPherson by email at dmcpherson@corlansing.org. Feel free to call the parish office for more information (517.482.4749), and ask for Debbie McPherson who is the office contact for OCIA.

Intentions for the Pilgrimage to Rome

A week from Monday, on September 28, forty-nine of us pilgrims will head out to celebrate with Thomas Crowley his diaconate ordination and to spend time in Rome and shrines throughout Italy. Be assured of our prayers for you as we make pilgrimage. I will pray for the intentions of parishioners. If you would like to send me a note with your intentions, feel free to do so. I will carry them with me as we travel from place to place. Also, speaking of intentions, please keep Thomas and his classmates in prayer, as they anticipate their ordination the evening of October 1 in St. Peter's Basilica, with Bishop Robert Barron presiding. St. Therese, pray for them (and all of us)!

With prayers for vocations,

Fr. Steve

Eucharistic
Rosary
Congresses

Join us in fulfilling our parishes part of the Eucharistic Rosary Congress! Various parishes in our diocese will host Adoration, adding up to a total of seven days and nights of continuous Eucharistic Adoration. It is a sustained act of communal prayer before Our Lord, offered for the conversion of sinners, the consecration of our nation, and the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Our hope is that you will pray the Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet at the beginning of your hour.

Adoration will begin after the 8:15am Mass on Friday, October 9th, and go through the night until the 8:15am Mass on Saturday, October 10th.

Will you volunteer one hour of your time to sit with our Lord? Scan the QR code or sign up on our website at corlansing.org! For more information about the Eucharistic Rosary Congress, please visit rosarycongressusa.org.
