Twenty - Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Jesus Wants You!

A few weeks ago, when I preached about the workers in the vineyard, I mentioned how hard the landowner worked to ensure that everyone who was willing would be engaged in working in his vineyard. As I mentioned that day (and we have prayed countless times), our desire is that “every person . . . will come to know and love our Lord Jesus Christ in a personal way, grow in maturity as a disciple of Christ, become actively engaged in the full life of the Church, and joyfully utilize his or her gifts for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the salvation of souls.” That preface to the Come Holy Spirit prayer is one that we’ve been praying for years. It’s no less important now than when we’d first begun to pray it. I long for that to be true here at our parish, and I’ve been praying with that intention as I’ve journeyed on pilgrimage.

You Have Gifts!

Many times I have quoted St. John Henry Newman’s reflections on the essential role that each of us is willed (and called and gifted) to be in the Body of Christ. Pope Leo XIV named him a Doctor of the Church on November 1, 2025, and we do well to heed his words even more eagerly since that declaration. As a refresher for you, this is what he wrote in reflections on March 7, 1848:

1. God was all-complete, all-blessed in Himself; but it was His will to create a world for His glory. He is Almighty, and might have done all things Himself, but it has been His will to bring about His purposes by the beings He has created. We are all created to His glory—we are created to do His will. I am created to do something or to be something for which no one else is created; I have a place in God's counsels, in God's world, which no one else has; whether I be rich or poor, despised or esteemed by man, God knows me and calls me by my name.

2. God has created me to do Him some definite service; He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission—I never may know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. Somehow I am necessary for His purposes, as necessary in my place as an Archangel in his . . . I have a part in this great work; I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good, I shall do His work; I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it, if I do but keep His commandments and serve Him in my calling.

3. Therefore I will trust Him. Whatever, wherever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him; in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him; if I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. My sickness, or perplexity, or sorrow may be necessary causes of some great end, which is quite beyond us. He does nothing in vain; He may prolong my life, He may shorten it; He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends, He may throw me among strangers, He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide the future from me—still He knows what He is about.

O Adonai, O Ruler of Israel, Thou that guidest Joseph like a flock, O Emmanuel, O Sapientia, I give myself to Thee. I trust Thee wholly. Thou art wiser than I—more loving to me than I myself. Deign to fulfill Thy high purposes in me whatever they be—work in and through me. I am born to serve Thee, to be Thine, to be Thy instrument. Let me be Thy blind instrument. I ask not to see—I ask not to know—I ask simply to be used.

May we all know that we are created for a purpose, and the enemy longs to get us to doubt our giftedness or to distract us way from using our gifts for the building up of the Kingdom of God and for the salvation of souls. Let’s be wiser and shrewder than the Devil, and let the Lord use us. For He longs to so to do!

Pope Benedict XVI on then Blessed John Henry Newman

At his beatification on September 19th, 2010, Pope Benedict XVI referred to his personal motto: Cardinal Newman’s motto, [Cor ad cor loquitur], (Heart speaks unto heart) gives insight into his understanding of the Christian life as a call to holiness experienced as a profound desire of the human heart to enter into explicit communion with the heart of God. One of the most important intellectuals of his time, he is an example to both Anglicans and Catholics. 120 years later, great crowds have assembled once again to rejoice in the Church’s solemn recognition of the outstanding holiness of this much loved father of souls. We long to be a church where hearts speaks unto heart, to the Lord and to each other. Let us pray, “Come, Holy Spirit!” so that it might indeed become a reality for all of us and those we love. Amen!

With gratitude for St. John Henry Newman, Doctor of the Church,

Fr. Steve

Medicare Seminar

Are you curious about how to apply for or make use of Medicare? Come to our Medicare Seminar on October 12th in Mercy Hall, 6-8pm. Topics to be discussed and hopefully anxieties dispelled about enrollment timelines to apply or change, applying for Medicare, opportunities to change policies, an outlined definition of Medicare coverage, drug plans, and much, much more! This seminar will be interactive so bring your questions and your interested friends and neighbors. All are welcome - there is NO charge!

40 Days for Life Celebration

Come celebrate the Closing of the Frandor Planned Parenthood! While over 680 40 Days for Life campaigns are currently active around the world, we are rejoicing that the Frandor abortion clinic recently closed for good. In celebration, we are coming together for an evening of Thanksgiving and Fellowship with desserts and coffee on October 13th in Mercy Hall. Please RSVP via a link at 40DaysforLife.com/lansing or text 517-528-8502.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24
6:00PM IN MERCY HALL

Come one, come all to the Parish Hall after Mass on Saturday, October 24! If you make a killer chili and would like to compete, please contact cspalding@corlansing.org for details by October 4th. If your strength is eating chili, then just show up and help us choose a winner. There will be hot dogs, non-competition chili, coleslaw and foccacia for everyone. If you really want to contribute, feel free to bring a dessert.

Lector and EMHC Training

We will hold a training session for Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers on October 20th in the Church. EMHC training is from 6:30-7:15pm and Lector training from 7:15-7:45pm. If you are a current volunteer, you are kindly asked to attend for a refresher course. If you are interested in becoming a lector or Extraordinary Minister, you are invited to attend. If you are a current volunteer but cannot attend the training, please email Cristin Luea at cluea@corlansing.org and a recording will be sent to you to keep your training up-to-date.

Box of Joy Christmas Gifts

Donations are being taken for Box of Joy, a project that puts toys, school supplies, and other goods into a shoebox-sized container and gives them as Christmas gifts to impoverished children in Latin America and Africa so they have something to open on Christmas Day. Make checks payable to K of C #11099 and drop them in the collection baskets. For any questions, or if you are interested in helping stuff the boxes, contact Brian O'Neel at oneelbk@yahoo.com or 484-735-5858. Please have donations in by October 31st. For more information, visit www.BoxofJoy.org.
