PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Reflections on the Pilgrimage

As those of you who were at Mass last weekend heard, the pilgrimage to Rome and Italy for the diaconate ordination of (now Deacon!) Thomas Crowley was a wonderful gift to those 49 of us who were able to carve out the time and journey together abroad. Pilgrimage is a great grace, and it offers challenges, as well, which lead to more grace being offered to us as we navigate the difficulties. Please, if you would, keep those who made the pilgrimage in your prayers, as we prayerfully reflect on the many wonderful (and challenging) experiences and the beautiful places we visited.

Future Pilgrimages

Though I don't have any set plans, I do want others in the parish to know that I hope to lead future pilgrimages, the first of which will likely be to the Shrine of the North American Martyrs in Midland, Ontario, and then on to Montreal and Quebec City. I can imagine that such a pilgrimage might be six, perhaps seven, days, and would not (obviously) entail airfare. I'll look at calendars, and see if fall of 2027 might be possible. Stay tuned!

Pray for Our Seminarians

It was wonderful to see other Lansing Seminarians in Rome, some of which are studying at the North American College in Rome, and others who are on the semester abroad program through St. John Vianney Seminary at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, MN. In addition to Deacon Thomas Crowley, please keep Mason Abbott, who is scheduled to be ordained to the transitional diaconate in June at the ordination Mass when Deacon Thomas and his classmates will be ordained to the priesthood. Please also keep Charlie Gates, who is a senior at St. John Vianney seminary, in your prayers, as he continues his discernment and finishes up his studies there. Please pray for Brother Joseph Crowley who has made simple vows with the Holy Cross Fathers in South Bend. It was wonderful to have Joseph read at Deacon Thomas's first preaching Mass in Rome.

Wedding Banquet Invitations

At Masses last Sunday (I didn't mention it at the 5:00 p.m. Mass), I shared this poem from George Herbert, in light of the one wedding guest who didn't have a wedding garment and was "reduced to silence." I think many who were (are!) invited to the Feast may feel "unworthy" to be there, but the Lord invites us to talk with him about that feeling, and to let him speak into our brokenness and sense of unworthiness. This poem, by which I was struck when I first read it, gives a poignant picture of Love. The poem is, aptly enough, titled "Love (III)" Enjoy!

*Love bade me welcome. Yet my soul drew back
Guilty of lust and sin.*

*But quick-eyed Love, observing me grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning,
If I lacked any thing.
A guest, I answered, worthy to be here:
Love said, You shall be he.
I the unkind, ungrateful? Ah my dear,
I cannot look on thee.
Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,
Who made the eyes but I?
Truth Lord, but I have marred them: let my shame
Go where it doth deserve.
And know you not, says Love, who bore the blame?
My dear, then I will serve.
You must sit down, says Love, and taste my meat:
So I did sit and eat.*

Though we be unworthy, He makes us worthy, if and when we cooperate with grace. Let us never be afraid that our actions or thoughts of any kind ever define us in the end. The benefit of being human is that we can change, repent, turn again, and grow. Last Sunday, I referenced St. John Henry Newman, and I'll do so again today. One of his most famous quotes gets to this point about change. I share it with you as both encouragement and exhortation. He wrote: To live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often. Let us be among those who "change often" in light of the Spirit's lead, so that, in this pilgrimage, we can become perfect.

Notes on Pilgrimage

On Sunday, I quoted a reflection from Shauna Miannecki, who was one of the pilgrims. Her encouraging and challenging words are as applicable to those who didn't make the pilgrimage as they are for those of us who did.

Reflection on this Pilgrimage to Italy
I was thinking of some of the hardships and how it is easier to offer them up since we are on a pilgrimage. Whenever there is a delay, uncomfortable pillows, long lines in the heat or the same meal our groups common phrase has become, "It's a pilgrimage!" I am now thinking it would serve one well to treat our everyday lives as a pilgrimage as we are all journeyers here on earth. We have so much comfort, instant gratification, want the best, and lack for nothing. Yet how easy do little inconveniences upset us or throw off our day? My prayer is that this time here carries over to daily life to offer up more on this pilgrimage of life. Andiamo! Towards heaven we go! Amen!

Together with you on this pilgrimage to heaven,

Fr. Steve

World Mission Sunday - This Weekend!

The World Mission Sunday collection grants funds to mission dioceses, which help to underwrite the basic physical footprint that keeps missionary life going: where priests live, where sisters live, where children are catechized, where formation and pastoral work can happen, and where Holy Mass can be celebrated, often for the first time. Part of the funds are used to help missionary diocese run and survive, while the rest of the funds are used to build churches, seminaries, convents, and pastoral centers. In an average year, WMS helps to fund over 900 infrastructure-related projects for the Church! We will be taking up a second collection. You can make check out to Society for the Propagation of the Faith, visit our website, or go to pontificalmissions.org/wms.
