PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Centennial of our School
This year, we celebrate one hundred years of Catholic education. The founding pastor (Monsignor John Gabriels) was committed to Catholic education, and the schools were built before the church. The grade school was built in 1926 and the high school (now middle school and gym) was built in 1939. It wasn't until 1952 that the current church was built. The priority then was formation and education of our youth. And that remains the primary apostolate of our parish. I'm very grateful for the countless hours of service that staff and volunteers have put into our school over the century of education we have been blessed to have (and to offer) here in the heart of the city. I thank God for those who did so in the past and those who are continuing to do so today. We are blessed!

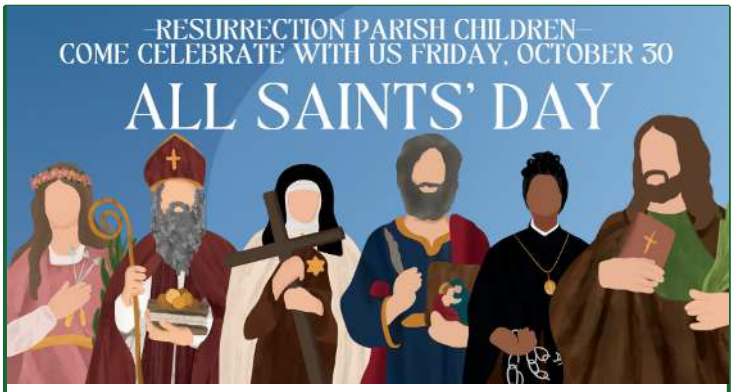

Centennial Celebrations
You can get more information about our Centennial celebrations on the website, but the next event is the Centennial Welcome Reception for those who want to gather together informally and get a tour of the school and the church on Friday evening, November 20. It begins at 6:00 p.m. in Mercy Hall. We would love for parishioners to share that invitation with family and friends who might no longer be in the area. The next day, November 21, we will celebrate our Centennial School Mass at 5:00 p.m., followed by a Centennial Gala. This is a fundraising dinner for the school. We would love to have you join us for the celebration. You can register and get more information on our website. Tickets for the Gala will be on sale after Masses this weekend and in coming weekends. You can also register online. One Hundred years are worth celebrating. Please pray that our Second Century is as faith-filled and fruitful as our last. Come, Holy Spirit!

Circle of Concern and Circle of Influence
Last weekend, in my homily about trusting the Lord's providential care, I mentioned the common temptation of focusing too much on the "Circle of Concern" relative to the "Circle of Influence." I shared some quotes from Stephen Covey's Seven Habits of Highly Effective People, in which he addresses the two circles. I offer them for your reflection:
CIRCLE OF CONCERN/CIRCLE OF INFLUENCE
Another excellent way to become more self-aware regarding our own degree of proactivity is to look at where we focus our time and energy. We each have a wide range of concerns—our health, our children, problems at work, the national debt, nuclear war. We could separate those from things in which we have no particular mental or emotional involvement by creating a "Circle of Concern." As we look at those things within our Circle of Concern, it becomes apparent that there are some things over which we have no real control and others that we can do something about. We could identify those concerns in the latter group by circumscribing them within a smaller Circle of Influence.
By determining which of these two circles is the focus of most of our time and energy, we can discover much about the degree of our proactivity . . . .
Proactive people focus their efforts in the Circle of Influence. They work on the things they can do something about. The nature of their energy is positive, enlarging and magnifying, causing their Circle of Influence to increase.
Reactive people, on the other hand, focus their efforts in the Circle of Concern. They focus on the weakness of other people, the problems in the environment, and circumstances over which they have no control. Their focus results in blaming and accusing attitudes, reactive language, and increased feelings of victimization. The negative energy generated by that focus, combined with neglect in areas they could do something about, causes their Circle of Influence to shrink . . . .
As long as we are working in our Circle of Concern, we empower the things within it to control us. We aren't taking the proactive initiative necessary to effect positive change. (pp. 79-82). Let us be among those who focus on what we can do something about.

Two Great Commandments
This Sunday, we hear Jesus reflect on the Greatest Commandments, which are to love God and neighbor. Loving well is what we will do when we focus on the circle of our influence. Prayer is influence with the Source of All Being; the First Cause. Loving God is the first focus of a wise life. Loving others well, in keeping with the truth, is how we fulfill the second great commandment. Let's focus on how we can love well, beginning today. Come, Holy Spirit!

With gratitude for our Catholic school and the command to love,

Fr. Steve

Donation Items for Box of Joy

This Christmas, our Knights of Columbus are participating in Cross Catholic Outreach's Box of Joy ministry. Help bless an impoverished child who might otherwise receive nothing for Christmas! Donate small toys, hard candy, children's clothing, non-liquid hygiene items (e.g. toothbrushes or nail clippers), school supplies, even forks, table knives and spoons! Anything that fits in a shoebox and isn't liquid or gel (e.g. toothpaste) will do. Please consider purchasing items at Dollar Tree and bringing them to fill our boxes! A donation box is in the vestibule. Packing Day is November 7th at 9:00am in Mercy Hall! We only have 25 boxes to fill, but we need volunteers.
