PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Solemnity of All Saints
Today, with all the Church, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints instead of the 31st Sunday of Ordinary Time because it falls on a Sunday. I will wear white vestments because it is a Mass for celebrating all those who have gone before us and are present in the heavenly realms. We remember them and call upon them as we pray the Mass. May we be "caught up" in the hope we have as we celebrate our brothers and sisters who have "made it home" to heaven.

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls)
November 2 is All Souls Day, when we pray for all our beloved dead, that they will be purified of any attachments to the things of earth. We fail in our charity if we neglect to pray for those who have died. One wise priest, when asked when we should stop praying for our deceased loved ones, said (as if it were obvious), "When they're canonized." Until then, let's not stop praying for them. Because I am gone this year, we will only have one Mass on All Souls Day, the one at 8:15 a.m.

Special Mass for Those Who Have Died
This coming Saturday, November 7 at 11:00 a.m., I will offer Mass for our loved ones and parishioners who have died in the past year. Please contact Sarah Michaels at the office if you have a loved one who died between 11/2/25 and 11/1/26, and we will add their names to the intentions of the Mass, and I will pray for them during the Eucharistic Prayer. May they all rest in peace!

Centennial of our School
This year, we celebrate one hundred years of Catholic education. The founding pastor (Monsignor John Gabriels) was committed to Catholic education, and the schools were built before the church. The grade school was built in 1926 and the high school (now middle school and gym) was built in 1939. It wasn't until 1952 that the current church was built. The priority then was formation and education of our youth. And that remains the primary apostolate of our parish. I'm very grateful for the countless hours of service that staff and volunteers have put into our school over the century of education we have been blessed to have (and to offer) here in the heart of the city. I thank God for those who did so in the past and those who are continuing to do so today. We are blessed!

Centennial Celebrations
You can get more information about our Centennial celebrations on the website, but the next event is the Centennial Welcome Reception for those who want to gather together informally and get a tour of the school and the church on Friday evening, November 20. It begins at 6:00 p.m. in Mercy Hall. We would love for parishioners to share that invitation with family and friends who might no longer be in the area. The next day, we will celebrate our Centennial School Mass at 5:00 p.m., followed by a Centennial Gala, which is a fundraising dinner for the school. We would love to have you join us for the celebration. You can register and get more information on our website. (For those who would like to join us, but are unable to afford the $100 ticket for this special dinner, please contact Sarah Michaels at the office. Some sponsors may have additional tickets to offer to those who cannot afford the cost.) Tickets for the Gala will be on sale after Masses this weekend and in coming weekends. You can also register online. One Hundred years are worth celebrating. Please pray that our Second Century is as faith-filled and fruitful as our last. Come, Holy Spirit!
St. John of the Cross on Loving One's Neighbor

Last Sunday, I talked about the struggles many of us have with forgiving those who have hurt (and keep on hurting) us. St. John of the Cross is very helpful just here. He was persecuted by his brothers in his community, and even put in prison. He wrote a letter that reveals the deep surrender that he was able to make to the Lord's providential hand in the challenges and suffering of this life. His powerful words in Letter 26 to Mother Maria of the Incarnation on July 6, 1591, are worth prayerful meditation:
Do not let what is happening to me, daughter, cause you any grief, for it does not cause me any. What greatly grieves me is that the one who is not at fault is blamed. Men do not do these things, but God, who knows what is suitable for us and arranges things for our good. Think nothing else but that God ordains all, and where there is no love, put love, and you will draw out love . . ."

Pray for Priests
I am helping out with a priest retreat with the John Paul II Healing Center this week. Fr. Jim Rolph is also one of the chaplains. We have two Lansing priests attending, as well. May we all have a deep encounter with God's love. And, with St. John of the Cross, may we allow the Lord to put love where He finds it not, in order to draw it out! I'll be back Saturday morning. Please pray for the team, for the priests and seminarians who are attending the retreat, and for the team who will be giving the retreat. Thanks!

With gratitude for healing retreats,

Fr. Steve

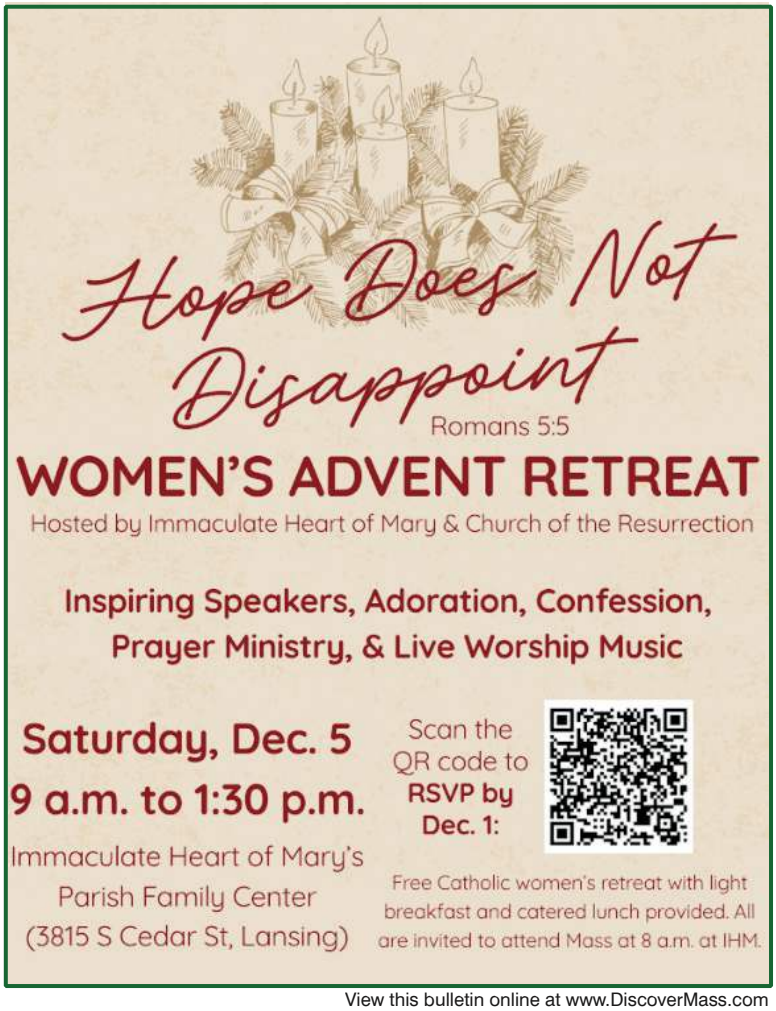

Donation Items for Box of Joy

This Christmas, our Knights of Columbus are participating in Cross Catholic Outreach's Box of Joy ministry. Help bless an impoverished child who might otherwise receive nothing for Christmas! Donate small toys, hard candy, children's clothing, non-liquid hygiene items (e.g. toothbrushes or nail clippers), school supplies, even forks, table knives and spoons! Anything that fits in a shoebox and isn't liquid or gel (e.g. toothpaste) will do. Please consider purchasing items at Dollar Tree and bringing them to fill our boxes! A donation box is in the vestibule. Packing Day is November 7th at 9:00am in Mercy Hall! We only have 25 boxes to fill, but we need volunteers. For more information, call Brian O'Neel at 484-735-5858 or visit http://tinyurl.com/w5wfxs42.
