PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Prayers for Our Priests
Many of you have heard that last Saturday, Father Mike Williams was found dead in his rectory at age 60. He had been pastor at Saint Joseph Parish in St. Johns, Michigan for the last 14 years. He was a great priest, a good friend, and served as Dean of his deanery. May he rest in peace. His funeral will be this Saturday at 11:00am in St. Johns. I am grateful to be able to be there for the funeral to concelebrate it. Because that funeral mass conflicted with our planned mass for the deceased from the last year, we're going to postpone that mass for a week. (See below for more details.) I offered mass for him last Sunday after I heard about his passing, and I invite us all to pray for the repose of his soul.

Please also pray for Fr. Tim MacDonald, pastor of Queen of the Miraculous Medal Parish in Jackson and Vicar General of the Diocese of Lansing, who has been diagnosed with stage 4 melanoma. He is also Dean of the Jackson Deanery. He too is a good friend and I am praying for him, offering mass this morning. Father MacDonald also asks that people make prayerful petition through the intercession of Saint Peregrine and Blessed Solanus Casey. Come Holy Spirit!

Prayers for Our Nation
I am writing this article early Wednesday morning, after the election yesterday. It was indeed, as they say, a big blue wave. We have some idea about what this means in terms of national legislative priorities and agendas in the future, but, brothers and sisters, with the Lord I say, "Be not afraid." As I said in my homily about a month ago, the Lord is sovereign, and no leaders can be elected without His permissive will. He has purposes that can only be fully understood from the aspect of eternity. Our job is to love God and our neighbor. We are called to be salt, light, and leaven in the world, come what may, come whatever may. Let us pray for the body politic, and for the politicians, that these next two years and beyond will not be marked primarily by political retribution, rancor, scapegoating, and hatred, but that civility, prudence, and promoting the true common good might somehow return. Come, Holy Spirit!

Special Mass for Those Who Have Died
Because of the funeral for Fr. Mike Williams, I have postponed the Mass for those who have died in the past year to this coming Saturday, November 14 at 11:00 a.m. Please contact Sarah Michaels at the office if you have a loved one who died between 11/2/25 and 11/1/26, and we will add their names to the intentions of the Mass, and I will pray for them during the Eucharistic Prayer. I will now add, of course, Father Mike Williams to that list. May they all rest in peace!

Centennial of our School
This year, we celebrate one hundred years of Catholic education. The founding pastor (Monsignor John Gabriels) was committed to Catholic education, and the schools were built before the church. The grade school was built in 1926 and the high school (now middle school and gym) was built in 1939. It wasn't until 1952 that the current church was built. The priority then was formation and education of our youth. And that remains the primary apostolate of our parish. I'm very grateful for the countless hours of service that staff and volunteers have put into our school over the century of education we have been blessed to have (and to offer) here in the heart of the city. I thank God for those who did so in the past and those who are continuing to do so today. We are blessed!

Centennial Celebrations
You can get more information about our Centennial celebrations on the website, but the next events are Centennial Welcome Reception for those who want to gather together informally and get a tour of the school and the church on Friday evening, November 20. It begins at 6:00 p.m. in Mercy Hall. We would love for parishioners to share that invitation with family and friends who might no longer be in the area. The next day, we will celebrate our Centennial School Mass at 5:00 p.m., followed by a Centennial Gala, which is a fundraising dinner for the school. We would love to have you join us for the celebration. You can register and get more information on our website. (For those who would like to join us, but are unable to afford the $100 ticket for this special dinner, please contact Sarah Michaels at the office. Some sponsors may have additional tickets to offer to those who cannot afford the cost.) Tickets for the Gala will be on sale after Masses this weekend and in coming weekends. You can also register online. One Hundred years are worth celebrating. Please pray that our Second Century is as faith-filled and fruitful as our last. Come, Holy Spirit!

Priest Retreat
As I mentioned last Sunday this week, I am helping out with a priest retreat with the John Paul II Healing Center. The retreat is going well. Thank you for your prayers and keep praying for the team members and retreatants, that we will receive the graces and apply them in their lives. Thank you!

With prayers for all who have died,

Fr. Steve
