PARISH REGISTRATION

Newcomers to the parish may register in the Parish Office during regular office hours. Others, please notify the Parish Office of address changes.

Adults over 21 need to be registered as an individual member to be considered a Catholic in Good Standing.

Hearing devices are available for use during Mass. Please ask an usher for assistance.

The phrase Unleash the Gospel refers to Archbishop Vigneron's 2017 Pastoral letter, as the result of a year of prayer to the Holy Spirit and Synod 16, as well as a movement to change the "DNA" or the culture of the Archdiocese in Southeast Michigan and moving parishes from "maintenance to mission" so we all become effective witnesses to the Gospel. The letter is our roadmap. The action of the Holy Spirit in our lives and parishes is the movement!

Each parish in the AoD will create a bold, actionable and concrete plan to bring the focus, mission and action steps of Unleash the Gospel (UTG) into the life of each parish. These action steps, or synod propositions, focus on families, parish life and culture, and support of Catholic education (whether a parish has a school or not).

Last summer Our Lady Star of the Sea was one of the 9 "partner parishes" in the Archdiocese of Detroit to participate in developing a Missionary Strategic Plan (MSP) incorporating the 6 synod propositions. The "parish visioning night" was very helpful in the formulation of our MSP. Overall, the 9 week process was challenging but most fruitful and productive! Just like other organizations, it is our action plan for the next 3-5 years as the result of our parish praying to the Holy Spirit for six months last year at Sunday Mass and in our personal prayer. Let me share this week our goals regarding the Family Synod Proposition, i.e., "Envision and develop a practical plan for ongoing formation and spiritual formation for all the stages of life."

Goal #1: OLSOS will expand the pastoral staff to focus on increasing faith in families of all ages. We will do this by hiring a Director of Family Ministry. #2: We will work on increasing the faith in families of all ages by providing more information and instruction regarding "the domestic church" which is the family. This can be accomplished through various resources and tools including events for families. #3: We also hope to provide married couples and young families with pastoral support through the Director of Family Ministry. #4: We also plan to assist the senior population through our personal or small group outreach through various events or gathering geared toward their needs. #5: We also plan to have more connecting points with our youth in college. #6: Finally, various events or venues of faith and fun will be designed to bring people in to our community.

I will continue to share the other goals of our MSP over the next weeks. I am happy to say that the work and effort of Star of the Sea's MSP, and that of another partner parish, is being noted as a model by the Archdiocese for the other 210 parishes when they begin their MSP process over the next 3 years. The past three weekend's gospel accounts remind us that Jesus invites us into his mission to spread the Good News to those around us. That is what we are about: responding to the call of Jesus, as a parish community and as individuals, to be sent on mission!

* I invite all of you to come to our monthly "holy hour" on Monday night at 7:30 pm. Allow the time to relax in the Lord's presence, give Him all your praise and petitions, and know His great love for you!

 Following the tragedy of Kobe Bryant I found it pretty awesome to hear that his Catholic faith was most important to him, especially a few years back when he was embroiled with life and relationship issues. Last Sunday he and his family participated in Sunday Mass at his parish before leaving with his daughter on their tragic flight. In this day and age when sports, especially youth sports, are often the stated reason why families do not participate in Sunday Mass, it is inspiring that such a respected sports celebrity found the Catholic Church and her sacraments to be essential to family life.

Have a blessed week in the Lord's peace.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Sunday of the Word of God

Today we hear from Luke's Gospel because of the feast of the Presentation of the Lord, but normally this liturgical year we hear from Matthew's Gospel. God in his goodness and the Church in her wisdom give us plenty to feast upon when we hear the Scriptures proclaimed in the Liturgy of the Word.

The Gospel: Our Sunday Gospels follow a 3 year cycle. Matthew's Gospel is known for his sermon on the mount (which we will begin hearing from next week) which portrays Jesus as the new Moses, going up the mountain to teach and deliver the law of the new covenant. We pray Matthew's version the Our Father at Mass. In Christian art, Matthew is often portrayed as the human face, using imagery associated with each Evangelist from the prophet Ezekiel (1:10) and the Book of Revelation (4:7).

The First Reading: While the Gospel readings follow a sequence from week to week, unique Old Testament readings are paired with each Gospel. Sometimes the reason is easy to discern, and sometimes it is more challenging! Making these connections is one of the tasks of the homilist, so pray for those who preach the word. The Church has paired the readings together to show us some aspect of Jesus visible in the Old Testament. Often this is a miracle or parable, but sometimes it is an identity like priest, prophet, king, redeemer, or beloved son.

Read today's first reading and Gospel again with family or friends and ask: how do the prophet Malachi (3:1-4) and the Evangelist Luke (2:22-40) describe the Lord's coming to the Temple? How is the Christ-child both a purifying fire and a light to the nations? God was present in the Temple, but where is he present in the Church today: The word? The Sacrament of the altar? The tabernacle? The heart of each person?

The Rock

Middle School Ministry

The Rock is a place where 6-8th graders gather to experience their faith and make it their own.

These fourteen middle school youth are beautiful examples of our faith community. They gave witness to Christ through their demeanor, patient craftiness, and opening and closing prayer. The sound of the Hail Mary filled the air and when the prayer was finished a deep peace came. When people asked who we were, I was proud to tell them "we are from Our Lady Star of the Sea."

On Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday Students from the Rock gathered at Starbucks and made 60 origami bookmarks for the G.P.W. Library and 60 Valentine's for the homebound in our community.

FORMING OUR FAITH

What is Having TRUE FAITH?

Scripture

"Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." Luke 2: 29-32 believing wholeheartedly in what you can't see, because God said so.

Faith:

Quote

Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase. --Martin Luther King, Jr.

For discussion in your family. . .

Discussion #1:

Jesus was always telling his disciples to have more faith. Why is faith almost as important as love? We often feel like we don't have enough faith. Where do you wish you had more faith. How do you increase your faith?

See Mark 9:24.

Discussion #2:

Faith means believing God will come through for you no matter what. However, you can't have true faith for everything. You can't believe God will provide an iPad just because you want one. Why not? (James 4:3) Discuss some things for which you can show true faith. What's the difference between these requests and "iPad-types" of requests?

Looking for ways to get involved in your parish?

BIBLE STUDY

GOOD NEWS FOR MOMS
WHO ARE TIRED OF TRYING TO BE GOOD ENOUGH

February 5 – March 18
8:15 am in The Pointe

This 7-session Bible Study, which includes short videos to watch each week, will empower you to live and parent in the freedom for which Christ has set you free.

As moms, we're under constant pressure. We have to get it right in all areas of life—work, home, family, and faith—because our children's futures hinge on our ability to perfectly orchestrate the present.

But those impossible standards leave us oscillating between worry, fear, anger, and shame. They threaten to steal all the wonder from parenting, life, and our personal relationship with God.

In this 7-session study, discover how the gospel message can empower you to parent in the freedom of God's sovereignty. So that you can breathe deeper, walk lighter, and enjoy your children—and the parenting journey—more than ever before.

Purchase the book, Mom Set Free - Bible Study Book: Good News for Moms Who are Tired of Trying to be Good Enough, Jeannie Cunnion (Author) from www.lifeway.com or through Amazon.

Blanket Making

Please join in blanket creation each third Saturday of the month at 9:00 AM in the Pointe!

We will make receiving blankets for baptisms and prayer blankets for the sick and suffering. You do not have to bring any materials or particular crafting talent; cutting in a straight line, sticking pins, or ironing are great contributions. If, however, you have a sewing machine to bring along and can do basic straight-line sewing, or if you knit or crochet, that would be a valuable asset.

Drop-off contributions of pre-washed flannel fabric in one-yard increments to the parish office are a way to get involved if Saturdays are inconvenient. Please consider joining in fellowship with us as we create these blankets, sharing love and hospitality with the most vulnerable in our parish.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

Since the 1970s, the last week in January has been known as Catholic Schools Week, a time to celebrate and promote the value of a Catholic education. January 31 is the feast day of St. John Bosco whose life work had young people and education as its focus.

John was born in early 19th century Italy. His father died when he was two, leaving his mother to raise John and his older brothers. They were poor but often helped others who were in need. His mother was a faithful and devout Catholic and raised her sons to follow that same path.

His childhood was lived in the midst of a poor community and it was difficult. One bright spot was learning magic tricks by observing some circus performers that were passing through. He used magic at an early age to get people's attention and then ask them to join him in prayer.

John's desire to become a priest came when he was quite young. The road was not easy, but he was able to eventually achieve his goal. Once a priest, he ministered to poor boys where he was assigned, including those in prison and those working. Having come from poverty himself, he understood their needs and challenges.

Most importantly, he was able to help. For those on the street, he tried to turn their attention away from the bad things that could lead to imprisonment and toward religion and education. For the homeless, he tried to find a place for them. For those working as apprentices, he worked to relieve injustices in their working conditions.

To further his mission, he founded the Society of St. Francis de Sales and later an order of sisters to work with girls.

St. John Bosco had a two-pronged approach: faith development and education. We have that in our Catholic Schools today. Let's preserve it and help it grow.

Praying for the young people in our archdiocese and those helping them encounter Christ is the focus of the website <http://boscoprayer.org>. Check it out!
