What a blessing we have received from Fr. Bell and the Holy Spirit during our Parish Mission. I could tell from his homily at last Sunday Masses that he was speaking to so many hearts. After all, who doesn't feel they have enemies, or at least those few people who irritate us just enough to annoy us? And yes, we are not supposed to simply tolerate them but truly love them! That is the difficult task!! How do we love those who irritate us or who have done us wrong? Hence, why we need the power of prayer in our life and to stay committed to the Lord so we know he walks alongside us every step in our journey of life.

Thanks to all those who participated in the Mission in any way. Certainly those who came with open hearts and listened to Fr. Steve. I am very happy you responded to the Holy Spirit who prompted you, by that inner voice or through a family member or friend, to come and hear what Fr. Steve had to say. Thanks to the greeters and those who baked and brought some goodies to share at the fellowship each evening. It was a wonderful gathering and sharing of stories.

Let us continue to pray for Fr. Steve. He is a busy priest, not only doing parish missions around the country but also other projects regarding race relations and group dynamics. Let's also continue to pray for ourselves and our parish, may we continue to have greater openness and awareness to the Lord in our life. With Lent just around the corner it might be the thing for us to focus on!

** Believe it or not, Ash Wednesday is this Wednesday, March 6. Though it is not a Holyday of Obligation, many people treat it as such. See our schedule elsewhere in this paper. Remember, the distribution of ashes takes place after the homily, not at the end of the Mass or service. (And no... self-imposition of ashes is not allowed!) What is important is not just getting the ashes marking our forehead but coming together as the Body of Christ with the scripture and prayers that accompany the action of receiving the ashes.

** As you will see later in this paper, we are presenting something different for you this Lent. We have a challenge for you and your family. We have 40 suggested "activities" for you and your family (younger children) to do. Most of these are pretty simple, like attending a weekend Mass as a family! Then we have 20 more super challenges for adults...though they are not all that difficult either, e.g., sign up for a daily Lenten reflection to be delivered to your phone every day, watch a 20 or 30 minute video or pray the whole rosary and not just one decade of the rosary. A little more time but a lot more profit! So I hope you can take this little challenge as a family and as an adult. Overall, they do not take much time compared to all the things you do. Give it a try and see how you do. When you complete a task cross it off. The real challenge would be to see if you can cross off every box. During the Easter season, we will have a little celebration for all those who worked on the challenge and have something to show for it.

Watch the bulletin for more information.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

The word “holiness” may bring to mind one or more of these thoughts: the saints, priests and religious, lots of prayer, even “that’s not me”. Pope Francis would not entirely agree.

In a recent apostolic exhortation, his “modest goal is to repropose the call to holiness in a practical way for our own time, with all its risks, challenges and opportunities.” (Rejoice and Be Glad: The Call to Holiness in Today’s World, 2018)

He says it is Jesus who calls each of us to holiness. Vatican II describes the path to holiness as being “Each in his or her own way”.

Every person in this world has a mission. “A Christian cannot think of his or her mission on earth without seeing it as a path of holiness.” With God’s grace, we can perform our mission and be holy.

Pope Francis writes that we need to be “living our lives with love” in whatever role we have in life. He says that by doing small things we will grow in holiness. They could be things we could just as easily not do or require a little sacrifice or make us go out of our way or consciously decide to avoid.

Pope Francis points out that our mission must be intertwined with Christ’s mission. That means we are to “build with Him that kingdom of love, justice and universal peace”.

We need to be “living our lives with love” in whatever role we have in life.

With the start of Lent, this is great food for thought. Here are some questions to ask ourselves.

What do I think my mission is? (Think about what takes the majority of my time.)

Am I living out my mission intertwined with Christ’s mission?

How can I inject His mission into mine remembering that “little things” can make a difference?

One in the Spirit,

FORMING OUR FAITH

Join the Lent Book Club

Be sure to pick up one of the book offerings located on the table in the Gathering Space and enrich your Lent this year! In addition to the daily meditations in the Little Black Book and the Word Among Us, our gift to you this Lent are the books, The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity and Rediscover Jesus, both written by Matthew Kelly, motivational speaker and founder of the online resource, community, and ministry Dynamic Catholic.

The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity begins with two simple propositions: everyone wants to be happy, and the world at large will always present a vision of happiness that comes up short. To get out of this trap, Kelly proposes that readers ask themselves four questions: Who am I? What am I here for? What matters most? And what matters least? Kelly's musings on these questions always lead back to Scripture and what he considers the lies currently believed about Christianity.

If there is one person we should each get to know in a deeply personal way, it is Jesus. And what better time to get to know Jesus than during the season of Lent. In Rediscover Jesus, Matthew Kelly, takes you on a 40-day spiritual journey to encounter Jesus—the amazing friend who is going to help you answer life's toughest questions.

So when you are FASTING from social media or TV, you can spend that time reading one (or both) of these books. If your goal is to learn a new form of PRAYER, you can find it in these books. As to ALMSGIVING, well, you know what to do!

Make this your Best Lent Ever!

Lenten Alms Giving

The three traditional pillars of Lenten observance are prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Almsgiving: It is a sign of our care for those in need and an expression of our gratitude for all that God has given to us. Works of charity and the promotion of justice are fundamental components of the Christian way of life we began when we were baptized.

Starting March 6th, we will have a Cross displayed in the gathering space with envelopes nearby. Please take an envelope and place your donation to one or more of the organizations in the envelope and return your envelope during the Holy Thursday Service or on Palm Sunday.
