Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Congratulations to our second graders who participated in the Rite of Enrollment this Sunday to receive First Holy Communion in the spring of 2027. First Communion is such an exciting time for the child and the family. After many years of the young child seeing mom and dad, and siblings, go up to communion to receive Jesus and they can't, it is a BIG DAY for them to finally do what the adults have been doing. They know the process of standing in line and then finally receiving the Host from the priest or minister is special, just by observing the way others go to receive the Host, together with the prayers they see people praying before after.

Stop and think how often children want to imitate their parents. There was that tv commercial showing the little boy doing everything dad was doing, e.g., washing the car, cutting the grass, painting, napping. I see it so often when young children come up for communion and they want what mom or dad has. Remember that when it comes to the practice of the faith. Children tend to imitate what their parents do. Rightfully so that this is the case because parents are the first teachers of the faith. When parents practice the faith through their grace before meals, prayers in the morning and evening, participating in Sunday Mass every Sunday, going to the sacrament of confession, etc., they tend to pick up those practices in their life. When the parents fail to do that, the child will most likely follow suit until, with the Grace of God, they are formed, inspired, and encouraged to practice the faith later in life. [Studies have also shown that when the father especially take the lead in practicing the faith in the home, the children are more likely to do the same in their own life as adults.]

We pray for our young children who so much want to receive Jesus in Holy Communion. However, their "first communion" is not something to check off a list of things to do or accomplish in life. Rather, it is only the beginning of a way of life, centered on the Eucharist, and our surrender to the Lord who gave himself in the Eucharist. We continue to pray for their parents, guardians, grandparents, and siblings who all need our prayers and encouragement to be strong witnesses in the faith. In addition, we pray for each other, to be renewed in the great gift of the Eucharist, our source of life and renewal each, and every, Sunday!

 As we have announced, here is the envelope situation. The parish office does not print and send out the envelopes. Parishes hire a company who get a mailing list to distribute the envelopes. Once again, our company has had difficulty getting the physical envelopes to print on. In any case, you can always put your name and envelope number on any envelope. Sorry for the convenience and we hope this gets corrected soon!

 Thank you for your support in supplying Halloween candy for the seminarians to distribute as hundreds of kids come to Sacred Heart Seminary on Halloween. It certainly makes for a wonderful night at the Seminary!

Continue to love the Lord and spread the Good News!

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

My name is Deacon Ron Potempski, and I was blessed to receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders on October 3, 2026, when I was ordained to the Permanent Diaconate. My wife, Marie, and I have been married for 22 years. We have two children: our daughter, Violet, who attends the University of Michigan (2028), and our son, Gabriel, who attends Michigan State University (2029).

Our home parish is Ss. Cyril & Methodius in Sterling Heights, where I have been involved in various parish ministries, including RCIA, serving as a catechist and altar server, and leading Beloved, a marriage program offered through the Augustine Institute, together with Marie.

Professionally, I am an Engineering Manager at DCS Corporation, a defense contractor. In my free time, I enjoy exercising, landscaping, barbecuing, and watching sports.

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve the people of Our Lady Star of the Sea and look forward to getting to know the parish community as we grow together in faith.

ARCHBISHOP OF DETROIT

October 2026

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Since July of 1701, when Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac first stepped onto the shoreline of what would become the City of Detroit, the story of the Catholic Church here has been written through the lives of God's holy people: religious men and women who served in our parishes, schools, hospitals and retreat centers; priests who dedicated their lives to ministering to God's people; and generations of faithful Catholics who have lived their faith through Word, Sacrament, charity and service.

What a story it has been.

Today, we stand at the threshold of a new chapter in our long and remarkable history. As you know, the Archdiocese of Detroit is in the second half of a two-year process of restructuring. This past spring, we shared draft pastorate models and opened the doors to your feedback. More than 40,000 parishioners attended 412 listening sessions, and 17,000 provided additional feedback through our online survey over the summer.

I would like to share with you where we are and what comes next.

First, and among our greatest treasures, our priests.
As part of the restructuring, all parish priests will receive new assignments, with only a very few exceptions—primarily the four newly ordained priests and five pastors who were newly assigned and moved in 2026. Our priests have been informed of the broad reassignment process that will take place next summer and have been asked to begin planning for a smooth transition.

I cannot overstate my gratitude for their faithful leadership. Their spirit of sacrifice, unity, and service is a powerful witness, not only to our local Church today but also to the generations of priests who will follow them. I know, too, that while we have great faith in the Lord's never-failing help, facing the reality of these priest transfers can be challenging.

Our priests forge deep bonds with those they serve, and those relationships are a treasured part of parish life.

But this movement of priests is important and intentional. As we form new pastorates, we need to look at the needs of newly formed pastorates as a whole and match the gifts, experience, and abilities of our priests with the communities they will serve. This gives both our priests and our parish communities an opportunity for a fresh start together, laying a foundation on which ministries and relationships from prior communities can be successfully blended into one.

This approach of a true fresh beginning for all has proven absolutely essential in dioceses where restructuring has known great success. And while it asks much of our priests, it is a sacrifice they are making as brothers of one, unified presbyterate, for you, the faithful whom they are committed to serve with great fidelity. I ask that you give them your full support as they take their leave from their current assignments and, as these new pastorates are formed in July 2027, that you welcome new priests to your communities with full and loving support.

Second, a word about the pastorate models.
As you may recall, we began this process in the spring by releasing three to four draft models for each planning area of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Those models were a starting point for discussion and discernment.

We then gathered your feedback through more than 400 parish listening sessions, an online survey, and thousands of additional comments, emails, and conversations we have received over the last few months.

We have incorporated your feedback into a second round of draft models, now with two models for each planning area. Some models may be revised, some may be entirely new, and others may remain unchanged from Round 1. In late October, you can view these Round 2 models by visiting restructuring.aod.org.

Once again, these are still draft models. The pastorate groupings are not final. Rather, these models are an opportunity to see how your feedback is helping to shape this important process. I pray you will see in this next round of draft models that we truly listened, took your feedback to heart, and did our best to let it shape where we are today.

One example of your feedback was that the phrase "no weekend Masses" in the Round 1 models raised questions about what that would actually mean for the future of these communities.

As we move into the next stage of refining the models, we are now able to provide greater clarity. In the refined models, you will continue to see some locations identified as having "no weekend Masses." For those locations, this means they would be combined with another parish, or with other parishes in the pastorate, to form a single, unified parish community.

This is not a change in the overall direction of the restructuring process. Rather, it is a further clarification that is appropriate at this stage of our planning. It also aligns with much of the feedback we have heard from you as we continue working together to refine these models.

What happens next?
In October, these second-round draft models will be shared with our priests and key parish leaders for another round of feedback. From there, the material will go to the Archdiocesan Restructuring Commission for its review and feedback. The proposal will then come to me for my own prayerful discernment before a final plan is announced in April 2027.

I recognize that behind every model, every recommendation, and every decision are parish communities that people deeply love and call home. Our parishes have rich histories, and they often feel very much like members of our own families. I honor those feelings because they reflect the love you have for your faith and for the communities that have nurtured it. That love is something we carry with us as we look to the future.

For more than 300 years, Catholics in Detroit have responded to the needs of their time with faith, courage, and trust in God. Through every season, generation after generation has found new ways to live the Gospel, worship together, serve others and pass on the faith. We are part of that same story today.

This moment gives us an opportunity to ask not simply how we preserve what has been, but how we best prepare the Church of the Detroit Archdiocese for what God is calling us to become. Our hope is to build on the faith, sacrifice, and generosity of those who came before us so that generations still to come will encounter vibrant Catholic communities where they can know Christ, grow as disciples, and experience the life of the Church.

We may not see every detail of the path ahead, but we know the One who leads us. Let us move forward with faith and confidence in Christ, trusting in the Holy Spirit who has guided the Church of this Archdiocese for more than three centuries.

And let us embrace this moment together as children of God the Father, disciples of Christ the Son, and recipients of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, united in our shared vision for the future: vibrant faith communities, flourishing priests, and sustainable, mission-ready parishes.

May God bless you abundantly.

Remembrance Mass

Monday, November 2, 2026 at 7:00 p.m.

All Souls Day

The month of November has traditionally been set aside for remembrance of those who have died.

Please join us for a special Mass as we remember all who have died, especially our parishioners who have gone to their eternal rest in the past year.

Lift Your Voice!
Join The Star Adult Choir

There's still room for you in our choir!

Our choir season is underway, but it's not too late to join us! We are looking for new members who enjoy singing and would like to share their musical gifts in service to our parish community particularly as we prepare for Christmas.

Whether you have years of choral experience or simply enjoy singing, we invite you to consider becoming part of our music ministry. Our choir is a wonderful opportunity to grow in faith, build friendships, and help lead our congregation in prayer through the beauty of sacred music.

All voice parts are welcome, and you don't need to be a professional singer to participate! All you need is a love of music, a willingness to learn, and a desire to serve.

If you've been thinking about joining the choir, now is a perfect time. We would love to have you!

For more information, please contact Aaron in the parish office, or stop by after Mass.

What is the OCIA?

Are you or anyone you know interested in learning more about the Catholic Church?

The OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process through which a person becomes a fully initiated member of the Catholic Faith. It is for:

- Adults and children of catechetical age (over 7 years) who have not been baptized
- Those who have been baptized in another Christian denomination who want to become Catholic
- Those who were baptized as infants in the Catholic Church but have not completed the Sacraments of Initiation (First Eucharist and/or Confirmation) and who have had no faith formation

How long does it take?
Each person is on a personal journey in his/her relationship with God. Time varies depending on the individual. We walk with you in this process.

Do I have to commit to becoming Catholic if I enter the OCIA process?

No, the OCIA process is marked by opportunities for discernment along the way, and ultimately it is about one's readiness and desire to be received into the Church.

Please contact the Parish office if you or someone you know is interested.

Knights of Columbus

Saying Thank You to Our Seminarians

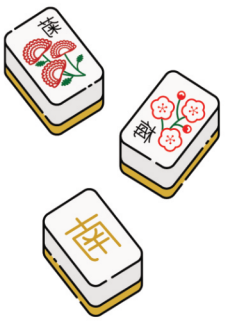

On October 3rd, your Knights of Columbus council hosted an appreciation event for the Archdiocese of Detroit's seminarians at Sacred Heart. Partnering with the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, 24 seminarians enjoyed a complimentary dinner and a few hours of bowling at the club's private alley. They were able to get together outside of their classes to socialize, relax, and recharge. And we were able to thank them for their commitment to our Church's future.
