Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Today we celebrate the start of Catholic Schools Week. For many, many years, Catholic schools were in relative abundance, especially in the Archdiocese of Detroit. It seems almost every parish had their own school and there was great competition between them. Now, of course, there are few Catholic schools and still some competition, however the competition might be more for existence than anything else!

So many thousands of people are products of Catholic schools. When you get them talking, they usually focus on the treatment some received from “the nuns” in elementary school. There certainly are some pretty good stories out there! The stories you hear about the treatment from some of the religious brothers or priests in high school were also frightening and often comical. Nonetheless, you also had many testimonies about the formation, above and beyond the education, they received in Catholic school. The dedicated and passionate teachers in Catholic schools were always seeking to provide much more than the mere academic aspect of school for they were concerned about all aspects of life in our current world. They were concerned about a respectful social life, a life of service to others, a healthy lifestyle and certainly a solid life not only knowing the faith but especially in living it out. The parents of the students also have an important role in the education and, especially, the formation of their children. At the time they presented their child for Baptism, they became the first teachers of the faith. They promised at that time to raise them in the practice of the faith. As the school partners with the parents in providing the “education” and knowledge of the faith and the Catholic religion, it is the parents who make sure the practice of the religion is fulfilled, e.g., observing the teachings of the Church, the obligation to participate in the Eucharist every Sunday and Holyday of Obligation, etc. That is where the faith comes alive...as it is practiced in the family!

Do Catholic schools still have a place in the educational system? Absolutely. They are still generally known and respected for their discipline, some higher standards in education and of course the passing on of the faith and its integration in life. Are they perfect? No. No school or school system is. Are they still important in the formation of future vocations for the Church? Absolutely. Even with the decline of religious sisters, brother and priests teaching in the schools, the Catholic mission and philosophy continues and generates vocations for the Church. There are so many wonderful aspects of Catholic schools, it is no wonder why many, many people who are products of them will say in a heartbeat, “I’d choose them again.”

Our school has a long history of excellence in a solid education as well as faith formation. Thanks to all of you who are so supportive of Catholic schools in general and certainly our own parish school. Yes, parish schools are expensive to the parish as well as to the school families, but they are priceless in the formation of the students and the community.

** Thanks again for your faithful stewardship to the parish. Remember your Sunday envelope each and every Sunday. A very easy and helpful way to steady stewardship to the parish is through FaithDirect.

** Friday is the Feast of St. Blaise. Blessing of throats will take place after the homily at the 8:30 am Mass.

Have a great week in the Lord’s peace. Continue to pray for one another.

Stewardship Thoughts

In addition to obeying the Ten Commandments, following the Eight Beatitudes professed in today's Gospel from St. Matthew help us to embrace stewardship. The Beatitudes are a guideline for our behavior as we seek a deeper relationship with Christ — as we strive for holiness. During our journey forward, we need Jesus' Sermon on the Mount to be the basis for our ongoing conversion of heart and mind. We are then challenged to share these directives, in a spirit of evangelization, with those we encounter so they may discover or rediscover Christ in their lives. Before you next participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, use the Beatitudes for an examination of conscience.

Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, give us men willing to sacrifice and serve. Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity. Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call. With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

St. Anne, pray for us.

St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
 I believe that you are present
 in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love you above all things
 and I desire to receive you in my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment
 receive you sacramentally,
 come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace you as if
 you were already there
 and unite myself wholly to you.
 Never permit me to be separated from you.
 Amen.
