Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Many will gather at cemeteries and parades this weekend to remember in a special way all those who have given their life in service to our country. It will be a day of memories that opens old wounds of the agony and perils of war and conflict. It will be a day of memories of good friends that have fallen in the line of service. It will be a day of remembering those who have sacrificed their life so that others may live. It will also be a day of thankfulness for the life saved and the victory won. At some point let us make sure we remember the point of our holiday and stop and pray:

Dear Heavenly Father, as we remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom, we think of how they have followed in the footsteps of your son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Please hold our service men and women in your strong arms. Cover them with your sheltering grace and presence as they stand in the gap for our protection.

We also remember the families of our troops and ask for your unique blessings to fill their homes and your peace, provision and strength to fill their lives.

May the members of our armed forces be filled with courage to face each day and may they trust in the Lord's mighty power to accomplish each task. Let our military brothers and sisters feel our love and support. We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

* Why not start the day with Mass on Memorial Day at 9:00 a.m.? It is a good way to start the day in prayer remembering those who have given their life. At our Mass we welcome those from St. Joan of Arc and St. Lucy parish as we come together for the first of three summer holidays.

* This Thursday 7:00 pm (note new time) we will begin our Summer Outdoor Rosary at the Rosary Garden on Morningside. Bring a lawn chair if you like and join us every Thursday until Labor Day..

* Our prayerful good wishes to the Star of the Sea 8th grade class who will be graduating this coming Friday evening, June 2. It is always a joyous occasion yet bittersweet for some. Moving on from a place that has provided a formation and educational foundation is not always easy We offer them all our best wishes and we know they will do well in high school!

* This Friday, our morning Mass moves to 7:30 am until Labor Day.

Know of the Lord's great love in your life this week.

Stewardship Thoughts

Today's Scripture readings for Pentecost fittingly focus on the Father's gift of the Holy Spirit and the grace and strength He brings to the Apostles and the early Church. In his First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul proclaims all spiritual gifts (charisms), forms of service, and works come from the same Trinitarian God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. What a powerful stewardship message for us even today! We, as Christian stewards, realize that all members of the Body of Christ, through God's grace, are abundantly blessed with unique talents for building up our parish communities. What special gifts can we offer each week at the altar of the Lord in gratitude for our many blessings? Pray and reflect on how you can serve your parish. Discover your God-given talents by taking the St. Austin Spiritual Gifts Inventory at www.staustin.org/spiritual-gifts-inventory. God will truly bless your efforts.
