Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Imagine flying over the United States in a small private plane at twilight Tuesday. You could watch fireworks going off beneath you in all directions, as every town celebrates the birthday of the nation. They celebrate because, on July 4, 1776, the Declaration of Independence was announced publicly.

The Declaration was basically a list of the reasons why the 13 colonies had broken ties with their mother country, Great Britain. It was written by a committee headed by Thomas Jefferson. It stated that all people have a right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. By the time the Declaration was produced, the Revolutionary War had already been going on for some months. It would take eight years for the colonists to win the independence they prized so greatly.

Traditional celebrations for Independence Day include torchlight parades, bell ringing, picnics, family reunions, band concerts, and, of course, fireworks. It's a time for fun and a time for reflection, too. People give thanks today for a beautiful country and for a system of government that is admired all over the world.

We know there are many great things about our country that we are grateful for. However, there are also many aspects that we still need greater unity, We still need to close the gaps of disparity. We still need to pray for peace across our land.

Our bright celebrations this day are done in the hope that one day all will be free, that one day the earth itself will shine with liberty.

[Mary Ellen Hynes, Companion to the Calendar, Liturgy Training Publications, 1993.]

*Father of the family of nations, open our hearts to greater love of your Son.
Grant that the boundaries of nations will not set limits to our love,
and give us the courage to build a land that serves you in truth and justice.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen. [Roman Missal]*

** Have a blessed Independence Day holiday and let's continue to pray for freedom around the world. Let us also remember our troops who are fighting to protect and give freedom to others around the world. Our parish Independence Day Mass will be Tuesday morning at 9 am at St. Joan of Arc Church. Please join us.

** We will have our usual first Monday of the month Holy Hour, July 3. at 7:00pm

** The Parish Office will be closed Monday, July 3 and Tuesday, July 4.

** You have seen evidence of the work to replace all the classroom skylights and the roof or our "lower" school building, basically the original section of the school that today comprises of Pre-k through 5th grade. This has been important so as to prevent leaks and damage, taking a proactive stance to our maintenance plan for the parish. Your contributions the CSA, and specifically to the Raise the Roof campaign makes this possible. Your extra gifts over the next three years are greatly appreciated as we have two more roofs to replace the next two summers. Thank yo for your sacrifices to make this happen.

Have a great week in the Lord's peace and love.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Stewardship Thoughts

Sacrifice links today's Scripture readings. In the Second Book of Kings, the prophet Elisha sacrifices time to visit the woman of influence and her husband. Because of his kindness, they provide him with hospitality. In turn, he promises them a son. St. Paul, in his Letter to the Romans, acknowledges Christ's sacrifice for sin: He died to sin once and for all. In St. Matthew's Gospel, Jesus proclaims, Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. Jesus is asking His disciples to sacrifice themselves for the Kingdom — to abandon themselves to His will. We all have at least one talent to offer to our parishes, which are always in need of lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, catechists, school volunteers, or committee and council members. Your dedicated prayer, service, and generosity will be appreciated and blessed.

Coming Soon! Fall 2023 Adult Faith Study
What We Believe: The Beauty of the Catholic Faith

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic? What do Catholics actually believe?

Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church.

Written and presented by Marcellino D'Ambrosio and Andrew and Sarah Swafford, What We Believe: The Beauty of the Catholic Faith was filmed on location in Rome. In it you will discover:

- What Catholics truly believe
- Who Catholics truly are and how we are called to live
- The blessings of Creation, redemption, and newness of life in the Holy Spirit
- The profound gift of the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist, the source and summit of our Faith
- How to imitate Christ through prayer, through personal conversion, and through love for others

This study will meet on Thursdays from 9:30-11 AM in the Parish Office or 7-8:30 PM in The Pointe.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish presents the
"ASK Program" featuring the novel: *A Hiker's Guide to Purgatory
by Michael Norton

An out of this world page-turner novel and a life-changing read

Read the book then join us for an afternoon with the author
Sunday, September 24th at 12:30 pm., in The Pointe

As we continue to age, many of us can't help but think of the next stage of our spiritual journey: heaven, purgatory, or the other place. One of my favorite reads for 2023 is Michael Norton's A Hiker's Guide to Purgatory. The protagonist, an attorney Dan Geary, at the age of 77, finds himself no longer on this earth, but in a setting much like being in a national park surrounded by flowering hills, glistening streams and far off majestic snowcapped mountains. Having no trails to follow, but plenty of time to figure it all out, Dan finds that each day is a new adventure which eventually leads him to his final goal. Through this believable character who has not yet reached heaven, the reader is invited to ponder the experiences of regret, contrition and forgiveness while realizing how much he is loved by God. Please join us for a unique and blessed conversation with the author. Books are available for purchase at the Parish Office or from book sources everywhere.
