Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

"God, our Father, you are the guardian and guide of our lives. Your word is joy, your will is life, your commands bring peace. Watch over the guide us as you did your Son's earthly family. Through the celebration of this feast help us to respond to your word and will, that we may grow together as people of faith and enjoy the peace of your kingdom."

Christmas Blessings to you and yours!

The Christmas season is finally upon us and hopefully some of the rush is over. This is also a time for families to hopefully have the time to spend together and strengthen their bonds. I think many families are quite lucky to have additional time off between Christmas and New Year's Day to rest, to play in the snow, to read, to watch movies, to visit friends, etc. Some of our visits might also bring some tears as we tell stories and remember family and friends who have gone to their glory.

As we celebrate this feast of the Holy Family, let us remember to take the time to pray to them for our guidance and inspiration. We often find ourselves in many situations that bring difficult decisions to make. Our prayers to the Holy Family can greatly assist us in our lives. Especially in our world today when there might be an increase of fear in all walks of life, we can use their help! Let's not underestimate the power of our prayer. Mary, Joseph and Jesus certainly had times of anxiety and shared some of the same frustrations as we share today. Just as Christ's presence brought joy to Mary and Joseph, may we find that some peace and joy in our own family this Christmas season and beyond.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis has said that Christmas is a time to encounter Jesus. "Christmas is an encounter between God and His people." It is also a mystery of consolation. Christmas speaks to us about tenderness and hope. Let us continue to seek out and be open for all the ways in which we can encounter Christ: in our prayers, our liturgies, our sacraments, and in our families. And the opportunity for us to be that instrument of God encountering His people!

** Be safe this New Year's Eve - watch out for the intoxicated drivers out on the road. We have to watch out for them since they probably don't watch out for us! Monday, New Year's Day is the Solemnity of Mary, Holy Mother of God. Normally a Holyday of Obligation, this year the obligation is lifted (since it falls on a Monday.) We will have one Mass at 9:30 am.

** Many, many thanks to all of you who offered Christmas greetings, blessing, prayers, cookies, or other gifts. Your kindness and thoughtfulness is always very much appreciated. Please know that all of you are a very special family. I am very happy and proud to be a part of it. You are certainly in my thoughts, prayers and the Masses I celebrate.

** During the Christmas season we always find individuals and families who return to Our Lady Star of the Sea. To all of you – Welcome! Know you are welcome and, if you come often, why not consider joining the family!?? If you have questions please contact us by phone, email or personally after Mass.

** End and begin the year in peace, joy and good wishes. See you in church at Mass, the greatest gift ever given to us, Jesus, as we also offer Jesus back to the Father with all of our offerings. May this new year bring you closer to the Lord and a more fervent practice of the faith!

Presence

The Mystery of the Eucharist begins February 15, 2024!

Presence explores the radical mystery of God’s love expressed in the Eucharist and shows us how in this sacrament God is really present to help and strengthen us at every step of life’s journey. By diving into the story of God’s love for his people in Scripture and the Church’s teaching on this sacrament, Presence invites each one of us into a deeper, more intimate union with God

Join us for Presence The Mystery of the Eucharist
beginning February 15.

This 4-week study will be held on Thursdays 9:30-11 AM in the Parish Office, or 7-8:30 PM in The Pointe. For more information or to register for the study, call Meredith Nesom at (313) 884-7407 ext. 2061 or email m.nesom@stargp.org.

Living Under the Influence

Adoring and The Family

As I continue this series on adoring, I’d like to consider the significance of the family on this Feast of the Holy Family.

Marriage and family is perhaps the most significant sacrament next to the Eucharist. It is the first of all the other sacraments and reflects the very essence of the Holy Trinity. In fact, marriage is the earthly witness to the Holy Trinity. One could say that to see holy matrimony is to glimpse God in action. St. Pope John Paul II reminds us of how critically significant holy matrimony is and why the vocation should be respected and lived at such a high level. He said:

"The family is the domestic church. The meaning of this traditional Christian idea is that the home is the Church in miniature. The Church is the sacrament of God’s love. She is a communion of faith and life. She is a mother and teacher. She is at the service of the whole human family as it goes forward towards its ultimate destiny. In the same way the family is a community of life and love. It educates and leads its members to their full human maturity, and it serves the good of all along the road of life. The family is the "first and vital cell of society". In its own way it is a living image and historical representation of the mystery of the Church. The future of the world and of the Church, therefore, passes through the family. ...As the family goes, so goes the nation, and so goes the whole world in which we live."

The family is so critical to the Church that the Church looks to the family to fully understand herself:

"The sacrament of matrimony witnesses to and strengthens the Church: "Spouses are therefore the permanent reminder to the Church of what happened on the Cross; they are for one another and for the children witnesses to the salvation in which the sacrament makes them sharers" (Familiaris Consortio,13). This marital witness is so significant for the Church she can admit "so that the Church, in order fully to understand her mystery, looks to the Christian family, which manifests her in a real way" (Instrumentum Laboris, 4).

The love in the family is where we begin to learn the true meaning of adoring and adoration. It is through the Holy Family that we witness this at the highest level, and are given the example and invitation to become like them, because we can. This Christmas season take time to adore at the nativity scene. Take the scene into prayer, then take the love in that scene into your live, into your family and into your neighbor. If you do this, then we truly will be living our vocation to marriage and family.

Merry Christmas

FORMING OUR FAITH

Service at Star

During Advent, our day school students as well as our after school Faith Formation students participated in service projects for those in need. Our Faith Formation students adopted a family in our community. Because of their generous donations, gifts were purchased to ensure a Christmas filled with Hope, Love, Joy, and Peace for this family. Day school students gathered donations for S.H.A.R.E, Seniors for Health, Advocacy, Reform, and Education. This is a group of low income senior citizens in the Detroit area in need of cleaning and hygiene products. With the donations, collected, we were able to make 30 Care Packages that were delivered to St. Aloysius Catholic Church in time for Christmas. How wonderful our students have a heart like Jesus!

Stewardship Thoughts

The topic of family links today's Scripture passages. The reading from Sirach instructs us: Whoever honors his father atones for sins, and those who respect their mother store up riches. Those who care for elderly parents are not forgotten, and their kindness is firmly planted as an offering against sin. In St. Luke's Gospel, the evangelist retells of Joseph and Mary's presentation of Jesus to the Lord in the Jerusalem Temple. This is done in accordance with Mosaic Law. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph then return to Nazareth, where our Lord grows in strength and wisdom. In St. Paul's Letter to the Colossian community, he emphasizes bearing with one another and forgiving one another... as the Lord has forgiven you. Christ's peace must reign in our families' hearts. As Pope St. John Paul II pointed out, the family is the "Domestic Church." Vocations are born and nurtured in families that embrace the Catholic faith by making Jesus the center of their lives. May we, as Christian stewards, continue to strive, build, and pray for solid Christian families in an increasingly antifamily attitude found today in secular society. To strengthen your family, make time daily to pray and eat at least one meal together. Most important, attend Sunday Mass weekly as a family and partake of Holy Communion.
