Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

As we approach this last half of Lent, we can hopefully take the opportunity to truly reflect upon our path of conversion and our need for reconciliation. As the elect (those who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil) experience their three scrutinies, which began last Sunday, we are all presented with a challenge: to see and experience God's presence and His great gift of love and all that is contrary to sin. The scrutinies, as provided in the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, are meant to raise up and expose whatever keeps the transforming love of God from liberating all forms of oppression. They are meant to unmask the deception of evil and sin because they rob authentic and true life. The scrutinies help point and focus the elect (and all of us) toward freedom, salvation and life. Hopefully, through the scrutinies we can see more clearly the gifts and attitudes that help to deepen our relationship with God. [The "scrutinizes," while directed to those about to be baptized in the Church, we can all benefit from such a scrutiny!]

This is not the place to give a complete examination of conscience (you can certainly find some "online," but I urge you to not only seriously think about the sins you have committed but most importantly think of the wonderful Grace you receive from God in the Sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which gives us a chance to "wipe the slate clean" and be renewed by God's love.

** We have had some very popular and well received Advent Family Nights. I invite you to please come Tuesday to our Lent Family Night. A little something for everyone as we are in the last half of Lent but still time to be renewed in our faith. See the ad for more information.

** Speaking of our sins... I will be in church this Thursday from 6:30 - 7:30 pm for private individual confessions. This is an addition to the regular time of 3 pm Saturday, until all have been heard.

** Thanks to all of you who have participated in our Friday Fish Fry this lent. So far it has been wonderful! I hear some people have been asking about the tartar sauce: yes, I make it fresh, but it is a secret recipe! Remember, carry-out cod can complement curious culinary cravings, culminating in a content customer!

** Don't forget to plan on participating in our Holy Week services. More descriptions of these liturgies will be forthcoming. Why not also invite a friend or neighbor to come with you?

May the Lord continue to bless you and guide you in your Lenten pilgrimage.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka
