Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension. "What?" some of you say! I always thought it was "Ascension Thursday!" Maybe the following will help explain.

"One of the first debates in the early church was this: Should Christians celebrate Easter each year on the date that Christ rose from the dead (the fourteenth day of the Jewish month named Nisan, according to the gospel of John), or should they celebrate Easter each year on the day of the week that he rose from the dead – Sunday? Some of the churches in Asia said "date." After all, Jesus' rising from the dead changed history, and we ought to keep the date holy. (And this is what the churches later decided to do with Christmas, which we celebrate every year on December 25, no matter what day of the week it is.) The church in Rome said "day": Sunday – the Lord's Day – is the best time to keep the solemn fast of the resurrection. Sunday was our first – and for a century or so, only – holy day. How could Easter not be on a Sunday? Rome won the debate. To this day, all churches celebrate Easter on a Sunday and never on a weekday.

A number of years back, the bishops of the United States had a similar discussion: Should we continue to keep the solemn feast of the Lord's Ascension on a Thursday – the fortieth day after Easter, according to the Acts of the Apostles – or should we move it to a Sunday, the Lord's Day? (In the gospels of Mark, Jesus ascends into heaven on a Sunday. The bishops in the western states and in Canada wanted to try celebrating Ascension on Sunday instead of Thursday. Rome approved their plan as an experiment to see if more people would be able to participate in Mass if Ascension Day was a Sunday. It worked. So the bishops of the United States discussed whether the whole country should change the celebration of Ascension from a Thursday to a Sunday. They agreed to make the choice by region. Rome approved.

So this year, Ascension Day is Sunday, June 1, in most of the United States. [There are 5 provinces that still celebrate it on Thursday.] The psalm for this solemn feast bids us to sing, "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy, a blare of trumpets for the Lord! All you peoples, clap your hands. Sing praise!" Sunday is the Lord's Day, and the ascension reveals the risen Lord's glory. Let us all keep holy this great feast of our God." © Archdiocese of Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications, 1800 North Hermitage Ave, Chicago IL 60622-1101: 800-933-1800. All rights reserved. Stewardship Thoughts

In the Solemnity of the Ascension's Scripture passages from the Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel of the evangelist St. Luke, the sacred writers profess the Ascension of our Lord. In both readings, Jesus offers a farewell to His disciples, but promises to send them His gift of the Holy Spirit — the Paraclete. In his Letter to the Ephesian community, St. Paul prays for God to give Christ's disciples the Spirit of wisdom. This same Spirit today continues to inspire and move us as faithful disciples to action. Are we responding to Jesus' invitation to make Him personal in our lives? In a spirit of evangelization, do we in turn spread His joy and peace — His Good News — by using our God-given gifts of time, talent, and financial resources to proclaim His Kingdom to our parish and beyond? Read and participate in sessions offered at your parish on Archbishop Vigneron's pastoral letter, Unleash the Gospel (<https://www.unleashthegospel.org>).

Please donate your clean bottles and cans to the Knights of Columbus

Money collected will be used to help numerous organizations. Donations may be brought to Mary's Garden Vestibule.

WITH EYES FIXED ON JESUS

This year's Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) theme comes from the motto of Archbishop Vigneron, which he adopted from the Letter to the Hebrews: "Let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith." It is this steadfast focus on Jesus that gives us the strength and courage to go about the work of sharing our love of Jesus Christ with others.

What is the Catholic Services Appeal?

The Catholic Services Appeal is an annual campaign that raises funds for the Archdiocese of Detroit's ministries, programs, and services that benefit all the faithful in southeast Michigan. This archdiocesan-wide campaign reinforces the fact that the local Church extends beyond church buildings.

The CSA is an opportunity for the faithful to respond to Christ's command "to love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12) by helping to fund services throughout the broader area of southeast Michigan. This collaborative, archdiocesan campaign is a way to demonstrate the unity of the larger Church and to fund these vital programs.

What does the CSA fund?

The Catholic Services Appeal benefits parishes and people in the Archdiocese of Detroit by helping to fund more than 100 ministries, programs, and services, including: support for men discerning God's call to the priesthood at Sacred Heart Major Seminary; campus ministry; grants to Catholic schools; and young adult programs. Essentially, CSA dollars help fund the spiritual and corporal works of mercy in the greater Detroit area.

Thank you for making a gift to the Catholic Services Appeal. Your donation makes it possible for over one hundred services and programs to respond to the physical and spiritual needs of countless individuals and families in Southeast Michigan.

CONGRATULATIONS MRS. TRUDEL AND MRS. VLAHANTONES!
