Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

As we celebrate today the Baptism of the Lord, we once again recognize that our faith is rooted in our own “baptism in the Lord.” This is the core from which everything we are, do and say flows. We have died with Christ in the waters of baptism and have been called to take on his life of service and love in all that we do. Do we??

We are all called to a vocation in life. For some it is being married. For others it is being single. For still others it is through “religious life.” No matter our vocation call, we are called to live that vocation out through our baptism. Do we??? Or do we somehow think or believe that all this religion is only to be lived out by the professional “religious” people? Once baptized, we are called to live out our faith through the practice of the faith, following the commandments and the teachings of the Church!

As I often explain at baptisms, everything goes back to our baptism and our place of baptism. Everything that we are called to be, by God, goes back to our incorporation into the family of God through our baptism, becoming his daughter or son. Everything we do as Christians flows from our baptism as we are called to be the Light of Christ to others and take on the image of Jesus and His dying and rising in our life. Many people also do not realize that, for Catholics, all our significant religious events are recorded at our place of baptism. Each parish has a big book to record every baptism. Each person has their own line that includes the names of the parents and God parents, date and city of birth, the date of baptism, the person baptizing, and then also the dates of First Communion, Confirmation as well as the sacraments of Matrimony and Holy Orders also get noted through the years.. Parishes are required to inform the church of baptism for all those sacraments a person receives. [Often people are asked to provide a newly issued baptismal certificate, e.g. before marriage in the Church, not one in the safety deposit box. This process helps to ensure the accuracy of statements of sacramental reception. It is a standard procedure but when you are asked to do such, please do so more than a few hours before you need it!]

Just a word of clarification about the role of Godparents. Often people think of them as those who will assume the legal responsibility of the child if something happens to the parents. That is NOT the role of Godparents. Godparents, being one male and one female by Canon Law, help the parents in providing the formation of the Catholic faith of the person being baptized. That is something that should be taken seriously and not just picking the next person in the family line. Hence, logically, you cannot pick a Jewish friend or a non-Catholic as “Godparents.” When it comes to the Sacrament of Baptism, a person must have at least one person who is Catholic that will assume the role of a Godparent. (A person cannot have more than two Godparents or only one will be recorded in the Baptismal Register.) A Godparent must be at least 16 years of age and fully initiated into the Catholic Church. A person who is a non-Catholic Christian would be recorded as a “Christian witness.” (For more information go to our website under the Sacrament of Baptism.) During the celebration of baptism, the Godparents themselves are asked three times if they are willing and able to assume the responsibilities of raising the child in the Catholic faith. Hence, it is an important lifetime responsibility regarding the faith!

This week let us reflect on the importance of our own baptism. If you do not know your baptismal date, maybe you can find out the date. Think of the significance of that baptism in your life as a christian or disciple of Jesus. How is your life lived out so that others know, without a doubt, that you are a baptized christian or Catholic?

* This week the Archdiocese takes a big step in its restructuring as the priests gather on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 8 am until 6 pm. Please pray for us!! Therefore, we will not have our normal daily morning Mass this Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

* Please spread the word about our upcoming school Open House in two weeks! Word of mouth is our best means of invite and publicity!

Have a blessed week!

Msgr. Gary Smetanka
