Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension. "What?" some of you say! I always thought it was "Ascension Thursday!" Maybe the following will help explain.

"One of the first debates in the early church was this: Should Christians celebrate Easter each year on the date that Christ rose from the dead (the fourteenth day of the Jewish month named Nisan, according to the gospel of John), or should they celebrate Easter each year on the day of the week that he rose from the dead – Sunday? Some of the churches in Asia said "date." After all, Jesus' rising from the dead changed history, and we ought to keep the date holy. (And this is what the churches later decided to do with Christmas, which we celebrate every year on December 25, no matter what day of the week it is.) The church in Rome said "day": Sunday – the Lord's Day – is the best time to keep the solemn feast of the resurrection. Sunday was our first – and for a century or so, only – holy day. How could Easter not be on a Sunday? Rome won the debate. To this day, all churches celebrate Easter on a Sunday and never on a weekday.

Back in 1998, the bishops of the United States had a similar discussion: Should we continue to keep the solemn feast of the Lord's Ascension on a Thursday – the fortieth day after Easter, according to the Acts of the Apostles – or should we move it to a Sunday, the Lord's Day? (In the gospels of Mark, Jesus ascends into heaven on a Sunday. The bishops in the western states and in Canada wanted to try celebrating Ascension on Sunday instead of Thursday. Rome approved their plan as an experiment to see if more people would be able to participate in Mass if Ascension Day was a Sunday. It worked. So the bishops of the United States discussed whether the whole country should change the celebration of Ascension from a Thursday to a Sunday. They agreed to make the choice by region. Rome approved.

So this year, Ascension Day is today, Sunday, May 17, in most of the United States. [There are 5 provinces that still celebrate it on Thursday.] The psalm for this solemn feast bids us to sing, "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy, a blare of trumpets for the Lord! All you peoples, clap your hands. Sing praise!" Sunday is the Lord's Day, and the ascension reveals the risen Lord's glory. Let us all keep holy this great feast of our God."

 Please remember to make your pledge or gift to the CSA this year. Besides supporting 100 programs or ministries of the Archdiocese, ones no one parish can support itself, Star of Sea benefits from those ministries. In addition, all money in excess of our target is returned to the parish "tax free." This has been a great benefit in the past years with the many projects of improvement and enhancement. We still have other enhancements we would like to make this Summer and over the next year. Thanks for whatever size gift you are able to make.

 Next week is Pentecost: wear red and bring a red geranium or two if you can!

The Archdiocese will also ordain 4 men on Saturday. Pray for them and for an increase in vocations.

Joy, peace and love in the Lord this week.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

YOUR FAITH. YOUR HEART. HIS MISSION

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Each year, the Church calls us back to the heart of our identity as disciples—inviting us to reflect on the gifts God has entrusted to us and how we are called to place them at the service of His people. As I prayed about this year’s Catholic Services Appeal, one verse continually rose to the surface: “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be” (Matthew 6:21).

These words remind us that our mission flows from what we love most. When our hearts are rooted in Christ, His mission becomes our own—to proclaim the Gospel, form disciples, accompany those who suffer, and bring the light of His love throughout southeast Michigan.

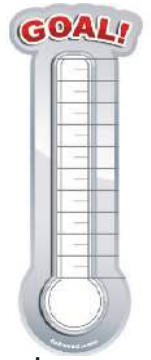

God has blessed each of us with time, talents, and resources meant not to be held back, but shared generously. Through faithful stewardship, we participate directly in the Church’s work of evangelization.

The Catholic Services Appeal is an expression of this shared mission, sustaining ministries that form clergy, strengthen families, serve the poor, and renew our parishes. I invite you to prayerfully consider how God is calling you to take part. I am deeply grateful for your faith, generosity, and commitment to Christ’s mission.

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,
Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger
Archbishop of Detroit

Protect your Boxwood plants from Boxwood Tree Moth

Box tree moth is an invasive pest that can significantly damage and potentially kill boxwood plants if left unchecked. The caterpillars are ravenous feeders, and heavy infestations can completely defoliate host plants. After the leaves are gone, they feed on the bark which eventually kills the plant.

Contact Marshall Landscape, we have a program to reduce the population of Boxwood Tree Moths on your plants.
