Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

"It is only because God himself is the eternal dialogue of love that he can speak and be spoken to. Only because he himself is relationship can we relate to him; only because he is love can he love and be loved in return. Only because he is threefold can he be the grain of wheat which dies and the bread of eternal life. Ultimately, then, Corpus Christi is an expression of faith in God, in love, in the fact that God is love. All that is said and done on Corpus Christi is in fact a single variation on the theme of love, what it is and what it does. In one of his Corpus Christi hymns Thomas Aquinas put it beautifully, neq sumptus consumitur – love does not consume: it gives and, in giving, receives. And in giving it is not used up but renews itself. Since Corpus Christ is a confession of faith in love, it is totally appropriate that the day should focus on the mystery of transubstantiation. Love is transubstantiation, transformation. Corpus Christi tells us: Yes, there is such a thing as love, and therefore there is transformation, therefore there is hope. And hope gives us the strength to live and face the world. Perhaps it was good to have experienced doubts about the meaning of celebrating Corpus Christi, for it has led us to the rediscovery of a feast which, today, we need more than ever." [Pope Benedict XVI]

These words, though maybe a little "heavy," remind us again of the significance of this feast today as we celebrate the Body and Blood of Christ.

On this day, may we take the opportunity to be renewed by the mystery of the Eucharist and all that it teaches us, especially how to live our life. May we be renewed to spend time with the Lord, in private prayer, in adoration before the Tabernacle or during Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. May we be especially renewed in our commitment to celebrate the Eucharist each and every Sunday, with our families, and allow the depths of what we celebrate transform us in our daily life!

 Today, June 7, at 1:30 pm, help is needed in church to unbolt the pews and move them to the side so new carpeting can be installed. With many hands and good muscles, it should not take long! Hopefully, a few days later, a notice will be sent out to move pews back into place, all set for next Sunday. Please help us if you can!

 Needless to say, we will gather in The Pointe for 7:30 morning Mass this week.

 I draw your attention to the upcoming musical production of Joseph and His Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat! here in our very own (gym) auditorium June 19 and 20. This is a multi-generational cast from the parish and the school. Watching rehearsals, it only brings smiles to my face! Very catchy music and lively choreography. You will leave tapping your toes and smiling as well. Any you might be surprised at the people in the cast!

 Your CSA gifts are still appreciated and, in fact, still very much needed. If you have not given in the past, please consider doing so this year. [Thanks so much to all those who have generously given!!] Your gifts and pledges are important, not only for sharing in the mission of the Church through the CSA but also for the good of the parish!

 May you know the depths of the Lord's love and life this week. See you in church!

Deo Gratiarum was founded by two Felician sisters in 2018 and deals primarily with food insecurity in northeast Detroit and Harper Woods – and even supports some guests living in 48236. Our mission is to provide Christ-like hospitality to our guests in both our daily Café and Food Pantry.

In 2025, Deo Gratiarum served over 30,000 meals in the Café and distributed over 170,000 pounds of food via our Pantry. We also have a social worker that provides referrals for our guest needing additional help, a tutoring program for elementary and middle school students, an art room and a community garden!

We are looking to grow support for our mission. That support could take any number of forms, including:

- donations of cash
- gift cards (for stores like Kroger, Meijer, etc.)
- non-perishable food items
- Volunteering:
 - in our Café
 - Pantry
 - Community Garden
 - a tutor

YOUR FAITH. YOUR HEART. HIS MISSION

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Each year, the Church calls us back to the heart of our identity as disciples—inviting us to reflect on the gifts God has entrusted to us and how we are called to place them at the service of His people. As I prayed about this year’s Catholic Services Appeal, one verse continually rose to the surface: “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be” (Matthew 6:21).

These words remind us that our mission flows from what we love most. When our hearts are rooted in Christ, His mission becomes our own—to proclaim the Gospel, form disciples, accompany those who suffer, and bring the light of His love throughout southeast Michigan.

God has blessed each of us with time, talents, and resources meant not to be held back, but shared generously. Through faithful stewardship, we participate directly in the Church’s work of evangelization.

The Catholic Services Appeal is an expression of this shared mission, sustaining ministries that form clergy, strengthen families, serve the poor, and renew our parishes. I invite you to prayerfully consider how God is calling you to take part. I am deeply grateful for your faith, generosity, and commitment to Christ’s mission.

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,
Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger
Archbishop of Detroit

Protect your Boxwood plants from Boxwood Tree Moth

Box tree moth is an invasive pest that can significantly damage and potentially kill boxwood plants if left unchecked. The caterpillars are ravenous feeders, and heavy infestations can completely defoliate host plants. After the leaves are gone, they feed on the bark which eventually kills the plant.

Contact Marshall Landscape, we have a program to reduce the population of Boxwood Tree Moths on your plants.
