Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Happy Fathers' Day to all you dads!! On this day, may you turn to St. Joseph and God and offer thanks for the blessings you have as a father. May you also turn to them and ask them for the continued guidance and inspiration you need to be strong and effective in your vocation. (Of course, don't forget to thank your wife and children also!) You certainly have an awesome task, being a father, in today's world. Our youth, especially young men, need good role models of men who are strong in their faith, caring for their wife and family, guided by honesty, integrity, and faithfulness in life. I think the testimonies and words of many children at their father's funeral demonstrate the lasting and enduring effects of a good father in a child's life. It is especially inspiring to hear how positively a father's strong Christian faith, which was integrated in his daily life, was at the core of who some dads were. Dads – don't be afraid or ashamed to speak about your faith in front of your children. Don't be afraid to pray with them. As the years progress, it just very well may be the greatest gift you can give them!! God bless you all. So here is our prayer for you this day:

God our Father, we praise you and bless you for the life you have given us, through your saving love, revealed in Jesus your Son. Through Christ you have revealed yourself as a loving father who provides for us all.

Look with love upon our father and bless him with your love. Deepen his love for his wife and family and make us one in love with all your holy people as we proclaim your mighty deeds and sing your praises. We offer your praise and glory through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

* Your Faith. Your Heart. Your Mission. Through our faith and our heart, we find our mission. This year's campaign for the Catholic Services Appeal challenges us to connect our faith, and our mission. It is an appropriate reminder of what we need to do. We examine the blessings God has bestowed upon us and then we can see what is important in our heart. What is in our heart helps us to see what we truly value. Hopefully, what we value we also share with others out of thanksgiving to God for what He has done for us.

Our Catholic Services Appeal benefits our schools, our campus ministries, chaplaincies in hospitals and prisons, the Catholic Youth Organization, services to the poor and vulnerable, the formation of our seminarians (like our parish seminarian Ralph Kaleniecki and those studying for other ministries in the Church, the "Mass for Shut-Ins," support for the rights of the unborn and those who have experienced the trauma of abortion, for all the communication and media efforts to bring the Good News to people of all ages in a variety of different formats, and so much more. All that is funded by the CSA is tremendously important to the life and breath of the Church that cannot be accomplished by a single parish or three. Nonetheless, when we all pool our resources, the mission of Jesus, to provide the material and spiritual needs of people in southeast Michigan, is achieved. (It is also good to note that all funds given to the CSA is administered and overlooked by a lay council and no funds have been or will be used to settle any lawsuits of any kind.)

Here is the bottom line. We have been successfully meeting our target the past few years because of your understanding to support the mission of the Church. The many gifts and generosity help us exceed the target with the excess returned to the parish and likewise providing funds for our own parish ministries and programs. Much good has been done here because of the excess returned to the parish. I know we can do the same again this year! What is most important is that we share in this larger mission of the Church by giving to the CSA. Thank you for your willingness to offer a gift from your heart for the heart of Christ.

* Reminder: there will be no morning Masses here at Star this week.

Have a blessed week.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

ARCHBISHOP OF DETROIT

June 21, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We've reached another important milestone in our Archdiocesan Restructuring process. Over the last several weeks, we have completed over 400 parish listening sessions, hosted at every parish in the Archdiocese of Detroit. These listening sessions were opportunities for the Faithful to see the proposed models for pastorates in their planning area, and share valuable feedback on what might work, what needs additional refinement, and other insights into the local communities of each parish. These listening sessions were not a simple offering; rather, they were a high-level view of a deeply layered process. I am thankful to all of our parishes for hosting these events, as well as all those who had a part in making the sessions possible: our priests, deacons, parish staff, volunteers, Key Parish Leaders and Primary Points of Contact, our on-site technical contacts, on-site facilities contacts, scribes, volunteer facilitators, and of course—the participants!

I want you to know that, while parish listening sessions have been completed, there is still time and space for you to provide your feedback. You can visit the restructuring website at restructuring.aod.org to access your parish workbook and the information presented at your parish listening sessions, including the videos from your listening session, the proposed models for your planning area, and the post-listening sessions survey.

I encourage each of you to first and foremost find time to thoughtfully and prayerfully engage with these materials. Then, please share your feedback on the proposed models in the online survey. Your suggestions, insight, and recommendations are essential to this next phase of our restructuring. Every piece of feedback received will be read and taken into consideration. This survey will remain open until July 31st.

In August, further discernment and refinement will continue as we review and analyze all the data from the parish listening sessions, the online survey responses, and ongoing feedback from our priests. We expect to announce the new pastorates in April 2027, with implementation beginning July 1, 2027.

Brothers and sisters, I know this process has not been an easy one for many of you. I know, too, that as we discern the future of our archdiocese, difficult decisions must be made. But my hope remains in our shared vision for the future: vibrant faith communities, flourishing priests, and sustainable, mission-ready parishes. Join me in prayer during this spiritual moment, as we continue to walk this path together, and know that I'm praying for each of you.

Very sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,

Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger
Archbishop of Detroit

Father's Day

God took the strength of a mountain, the majesty of a tree, the warmth of a summer sun, the calm of a quiet sea, the generous soul of nature, the comforting arm of night, the wisdom of the ages, the power of the eagle's flight, the joy of a morning in spring, the faith of a mustard seed, the patience of eternity, the depth of a family need, then God combined these qualities, when there was nothing more to add, He knew His masterpiece was complete, and so, He called it ... Dad.

YOUR FAITH. YOUR HEART. HIS MISSION

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Each year, the Church calls us back to the heart of our identity as disciples—inviting us to reflect on the gifts God has entrusted to us and how we are called to place them at the service of His people. As I prayed about this year’s Catholic Services Appeal, one verse continually rose to the surface: “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be” (Matthew 6:21).

These words remind us that our mission flows from what we love most. When our hearts are rooted in Christ, His mission becomes our own—to proclaim the Gospel, form disciples, accompany those who suffer, and bring the light of His love throughout southeast Michigan.

God has blessed each of us with time, talents, and resources meant not to be held back, but shared generously. Through faithful stewardship, we participate directly in the Church’s work of evangelization.

The Catholic Services Appeal is an expression of this shared mission, sustaining ministries that form clergy, strengthen families, serve the poor, and renew our parishes. I invite you to prayerfully consider how God is calling you to take part. I am deeply grateful for your faith, generosity, and commitment to Christ’s mission.

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,
Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger
Archbishop of Detroit

Deo Gratias was founded by two Felician sisters in 2018 and deals primarily with food insecurity in northeast Detroit and Harper Woods – and even supports some guests living in 48236. Our mission is to provide Christ-like hospitality to our guests in both our daily Café and Food Pantry.

In 2025, Deo Gratias served over 30,000 meals in the Café and distributed over 170,000 pounds of food via our Pantry. We also have a social worker that provides referrals for our guest needing additional help, a tutoring program for elementary and middle school students, an art room and a community garden!

We are looking to grow support for our mission. That support could take any number of forms, including:

- donations of cash
- gift cards (for stores like Kroger, Meijer, etc.)
- non-perishable food items
- Volunteering:
 - in our Café
 - Pantry
 - Community Garden
 - a tutor

Protect your Boxwood plants from Boxwood Tree Moth

Box tree moth is an invasive pest that can significantly damage and potentially kill boxwood plants if left unchecked. The caterpillars are ravenous feeders, and heavy infestations can completely defoliate host plants. After the leaves are gone, they feed on the bark which eventually kills the plant.

Contact Marshall Landscape, we have a program to reduce the population of Boxwood Tree Moths on your plants.
