

SUPERVISION REFLECTION GUIDE

Master of Arts in Ministry – Saint John's Seminary
Rev. Frank Silva, Coordinator of Pastoral Formation
Phone: 617.746.5425

Due: Monthly by the student via email by the end of each month
(Oct., Nov., Dec., Feb., Mar., and Apr.) to:
E-mail: ellen.oesterle@sjs.edu (TI Assistant to the Director)

(In completing this Guide please note that it is not meant to be a word for word report or an exhaustive description of the many elements of the event. It is simply a starting point for discussion. It is most helpful to give the completed guide to your supervisor ahead of time so that it may be read before you sit to discuss it together.)

A. The Event

- Briefly describe the pastoral event or encounter for which you are offering this reflection.
- Why is this event or encounter significant to you?
- Upon reflection and prayer, how do you now understand/see the situation? Would you do things differently? How?

B. The Learning

Spiritual – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my relationship with God?
About my ability to share my faith-life with others or have the faith of others teach me?

Intrapersonal – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my priorities, needs, biases, hopes, fears, desires, insecurities and interior disposition?

Interpersonal – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my communication style and my interaction patterns with other people?

Theological – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my understanding and application of the teaching and theology of the Church? What Church teaching, Tradition, or experience have I used to inform my actions in this event and since?
