The offices will be closed on Monday, September 3rd for the celebration of Labor Day. We will have Mass this Monday, September 2, at 8:15 a.m. Enjoy your weekend!

Interested in learning more about the Catholic Church (RCIA)?

Each fall, as we begin a new season of learning, we also begin programming for those who are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. This year, Rich Budd will be teaching classes for adults as well as high school students who are interested in learning more and potentially becoming Catholics at the Easter Vigil in the spring. Rich’s full time job is Director of Family Life for the Diocese of Lansing. He helped out with the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) classes last year, and I’m grateful that he will be serving the parish in this way. Details about the RCIA class times will be finalized soon.

Once again this year, Angie Amburn will be working with those students up to 8th grade who are interested in learning more about and/or becoming Catholic at the Easter Vigil in the spring. Rich Budd can be contacted by email (rcia@corlansing.org) and Angie Amburn can be contacted by email as well (aamburn@corlansing.org). Feel free to call the parish office for more information (517.482.4749).

That Man Is You

Last weekend, members of the leadership team of the Wednesday morning Men’s Breakfast group invited other men to consider joining them for a new program called “That Man Is You,” which addresses practical issues that men contend with in life today. We will get started breakfast at 6:00 a.m., for those who would like to come early. The program will begin with a video at 6:30, which lasts about a half hour, followed by small group discussion. It’s a great opportunity for fellowship and growth in faith. Consider joining us. We will get started with this program on September 11.

New Prayer Ministry Scheduling System

Beginning Saturday, the sign-up system for prayer ministry will offer a window of two weeks for appointments. Each day, the window for appointments will shift, and, if there are regular times scheduled for the day two weeks out, they will open up. This will allow us to keep the number of appointments and the timing of appointments more manageable for everyone. Thank you for your patience heretofore, and let’s all keep each other in prayer, that we will all experience the healing love of God.

With gratitude for God's healing love,

Father Steve

Memorial Service for Aborted Children at St Joseph Cemetery, Sept 14th

As part of the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children, there will be a memorial service at St Joseph Cemetery beginning with Mass on Saturday, September 14th at 10:30 AM in the mausoleum. After the Mass, celebrated by Fr. Steve Mattson, there will be a rosary procession between the two grave sites of aborted children buried in the cemetery.

Please join us as we pray in reparation for all the harm done by legalized abortion. For more information, email: cveneklase@hotmail.com.

CHILDREN'S SCHOLA

We have been so remarkably blessed at Church of the Resurrection to have so many musicians who make devoted efforts to beautify our liturgies. Our parish and school have been exposed to many genres of music, ranging from rich choral music, Taize, hymns and contemporary songs, as well as drawing from the deep well that is Gregorian chant and polyphony.

Inspired by our parish values of seeking to support families in forming their children and build up what is 'authentically Catholic' (and because there is no more authentically Catholic music than chant) this fall a Children's Schola is being developed under the co-direction of Guine Christian and Lori Weismantel with help from Marisol Hennig. After consulting with Father Steve and members of parish leadership, we decided that the best place to start would be a weekly class with a small group of no more than 12 children from grades 3-5. This small group of young singers will be learning foundational principles for chant, as well as vocal techniques, musical theory, and the Church's repertory of music along with smatterings of chant terminology and Church history along the way in addition to their regular music classes at school. Beginning in Advent, they will help to lead the Communion Chant at our Wednesday school liturgies, as well as prepare all the music for May Crowning in the Spring. We hope not only to boost the students' musical skills and develop their appreciation for chant, but also to deepen their prayerful participation in Mass.

Our decision to start with personal invitations to a small number of students is because we are volunteers who've never led a children's schola before. We need some time to find our footing, so please bear with us as things develop. All the students at Resurrection School (and any homeschool families attending our Wednesday morning Mass) will still be gaining exposure to chant throughout this academic year, and we are very hopeful that this little apostolate flourish and grow to include more children in time.

Thank you so much for your prayers and patience,

Guine Christian

2019/2020 Adult Choir Season

The Resurrection Adult Choir will begin its new choir season with a rehearsal on Wednesday September 11th at 7:00 pm with the first sung Mass on September 15th. For new singers wishing to newly join the choir, auditions can be set up by contacting David Stattelmann, the Director of Music by phone (517) 614-1736 or email dstattelmann@corlansing.org. You can also call the office. Auditions will not be a scary affair but are really set up so that we can get an understanding of your sound and your ability to develop as a singer.

For Lansing Catholic Students interested in the joining the choir, this can count towards your Lansing Catholic Service Requirement for graduation. It is also a very good way for music students to further their study of solfege and theory along with developing skill and proficiency in the reading of chant notation and modern notation; all which will be fundamental in secondary and college music courses.
